The Growth of Foot Ball

BY WALTER CAMP.

Only a few years ago the Harvard Stadium and the Yale Bowl were the only very large structures designed of special character for the seating of the crowd attending a foot ball game. These were followed by the Palmer Stadium and by other structures of a similar character at other universities. Within the last year, however, there have been put in process of construction stadiums of enormous seating capacity at many other college athletic fields, and by the time the season of 1921 opens most of these big structures will be completed. Nothing can attest more strongly the permanent popularity of this sport.

At the time when the Harvard Stadium, the first of its character in the country, was erected, Professor Hollis, who was then chairman of the Harvard Athletic Committee, came to the writer before accepting the responsibility of putting up such a structure, and queried quite strongly whether it was advisable to put an amount of money, which was then considered quite large, into seating arrangements for a game like foot ball. But he and the Committee finally determined to go ahead and the Harvard Stadium was the result. As originally constructed, it was designed to seat only between twenty and twenty-five thousand people. Today, with its additional end stands, forty or fifty thousand can be accommodated, and at the Yale Bowl some eighty thousand. But these new stadiums that are being built in other places, in some cases contemplate a seating capacity of one hundred thousand. No greater evidence could be given as to the increasing popularity of the game.

As to its extension throughout the country, this phase of its development has been astonishing, for schools, colleges, universities—all recognize that foot ball is practically the central power plant of their athletic system. From this in most of the larger institutions come the financial sinews of war by means of which all the other sports are kept in operation. In the larger universities the receipts from the foot ball games are the ones which go to make up the deficits in a majority of the other branches, also paying the upkeep of stands and fields.

Base ball is next to foot ball in this respect, but that for the most part does well to break even without making contributions toward other sports or the general upkeep. In other words, and it is something which certainly has the full consideration of all university authorities, if it were not for foot ball the college athletic exchequer would be bankrupt and the graduates and undergraduates be obliged to finance all the other sports except base ball, if they were to be maintained.

Turning to the other phase of it, which has developed so rapidly in the last decade—that of intercollegiate relations: Ten years ago intersectional games were the exception. Annually there would be one or two of these contests, but so far as general relations between different sections being close, they were almost negligible. For the last few years these intersectional games have grown in number and importance to such an extent that foot ball in the country is now like one big school. Men on the Coast, in the Middle West, on the Eastern Seaboard, in the South, and in the Northwest—all talk one language in foot ball, and the style of play is gradually becoming more and more homogeneous. One section develops for a short time a particular phase of the play, and by these intersectional games this is spread until the whole country is trying it out. This tends towards a large increase of interest, because it makes intelligible the various methods which can hardly be conveyed on paper, but which are quite patent when observed in an actual game.

Harvard, one of our oldest universities, sent its team clear across the continent to the Pacific Coast for a game. Brown, Pennsylvania and Dartmouth have all made the transcontinental trip. Ohio State last year went out as champions of the Middle West Conference and took on California for the big game in Pasadena, and California proved the conquerors in a most decisive battle. Incidentally, California sent its track team East and cleaned up the Intercollegiates, and its crew finished a fine second in the intercollegiate regatta on the Hudson at Poughkeepsie. A great many foot ball enthusiasts turned out at the intercollegiate track games at the Harvard Stadium to see "Brick" Muller and Sprott, the heroes of California's gridiron struggles. Every man in the United States navy and in the United States army, wherever stationed, listens for the news of the Annapolis-West Point game at the end of the foot ball season, as one of the things that outside actual war he is most interested in.

As to the probabilities and possibilities of the game this season, we can be sure, under the former, that there will be a still further increase in interest, and, under the latter, that there may be in this game, which offers such an opportunity for the development of tactics, some new phases of play, or some remarkable progress along lines already experimented with, as to stimulate coaches and players to increased effort.

The forward pass has become a most remarkable phase of the play and has so threatened the defense that many are inclined to think that it will have to be put under restrictions. So far, however, no team relying on the forward pass alone, without a very strong background of good running play, has been able to win a decisive victory. The forward pass has been the added touch, but has not proven sufficient in itself to settle the issue of contests. It may grow. There may be some method of using it so as to pit it almost by itself against a running play, or a combination of running play and forward pass; but this is yet to be demonstrated. Teams which so far have relied upon a forward pass and have not developed the other phases of play sufficiently, have not been able to win by this means alone. Altogether, the prospects for the 1921 season are almost limitless, and the possibilities and further development of the game, great.

The All-America team of 1920 represents a far greater breadth of ability on the part of every one of its members than any team ever before selected. The startling development of the game has put additional requirements on each individual position, and this condition has reached a limit today undreamed of by the general rank and file, and only appreciated by the coaches and experts throughout the country. Perhaps it is only fair to give some idea of this, so that the average layman may understand what it means to be an All-America man today.

Taking an individual man in position as an example of this, there is no better illustration than Stanley Keck, the Princeton tackle. Here was a tackle who, in his two big games, showed the following qualifications: In the first place, he had the usual earmarks of a strong player in the position, namely, ability to handle himself well, to break through, to tackle, to lead a line buck or a play that went between the tackle and guard, to aid an end, and sometimes to beat him in getting down the field under kicks. Then, in addition, Keck hurried the forward passer as well as the kicker; he was a long distance placement kicker, a goal kicker of accuracy, and finally, with one or two comparatively light men in his backfield, he helped bear their burdens in a measure where they were forced to come up against weight and power.

One added element was that of shiftiness, his ability to move on defense from one side of the line to the other according as unbalanced lines required a greater power to meet the charge. He met the Harvard charges, he shifted to meet formation plays, he broke through and hurried the passer and the kicker, and finally brought about a touchdown by blocking the Harvard punt. In the Yale game he did all these things, with the exception of the blocking of a punt, and in addition scored one field goal from placement, hit the cross-bar with another, and acted as interferer for Lourie's run for a touchdown around the end. This is a typical illustration of the possibilities of a single position under the modern game.

From this it is easy to see that few indeed of the positions on the All-America team of 1920 were made without a struggle. But in spite of the fact that competition for almost every position was keen up to the end of the season, it has been possible to reach a final and conclusive decision.

Carney and Fincher receive the end positions for the proper balance of the team. Carney's play all season was practically errorless and was a great asset to his team. He is fast, strong, and well built, a superb handler of the forward pass and a star end down the field. He is hard to circle, fights interference well, and lets no one outside him. The other end goes to Fincher, whose original position, and whose schooling had been that of an end, although he was used at tackle by Georgia Tech last year. He has always been one of the fastest of rangy ends, and is needed especially for his power, long reach and general build, which is of the kind that occupies a great deal of space from one finger tip to the other, and who can be used not only on the defense, but with great power on the attack, as he is quite big enough to handle a tackle. His reach is also an asset in forward passes, as well as in breaking them up.

As to the tackle position, the qualifications have already been specifically stated. Scott of Wisconsin gets the other tackle on account of his great activity, coupled with his strength and power. It is seldom that a man of his physique is as quick on his feet, a quality which aids him much on defense, while enabling him to displace his opponent on attack. Sedgwick of Harvard showed the same qualities, but was unfortunately laid up so much as to be out of condition for playing a full game.

At guard, Callahan of Yale was the best defensive lineman on any team last year. He is quick as a cat, for all his weight, and particularly brilliant in sizing up the break in the line and getting to it by the time the runner reaches it. A bad shoulder forced him into the position of guard on account of his inability to pass the ball, but that has not in the least interfered with his work as a guard. Woods of Harvard was in a class by himself for power, aggressiveness and ability to diagnose plays. His huge frame is impregnable to line forcing, and he is wonderfully active for such a big man.

At center it was for a time a very close thing between Stein of Pittsburgh and Cunningham of Dartmouth. Stein has come through grief a little more successfully than Cunningham. Not that this casts any reflection upon the latter, but it must be remembered that Dartmouth suffered at the hands of both Syracuse and Penn State, whereas Pittsburgh, in spite of some close calls, has come through, and Stein has really been the keystone of the line and has kept it together when things were disintegrating. He passes particularly well and is thoroughly satisfactory in all the requirements of this not exceedingly difficult job. A good deal of the passing now is direct passing, and that requires even greater regularity than passing through the quarter-back. Stein is exceptionally good at this from his long experience under the Warner system.

The quarter-back position goes, after much consideration, to Lourie of Princeton, because, as a climax to the rest of his work, his generalship not only in former games but in his final contest for the season, that with Yale, was almost uncanny in its accuracy in disclosing every weak point of his opponents. In all other points, McMillin and Boynton were quite on a par with him. In fact, McMillin upheld in a high degree the reputation he made in 1919, and both he and Boynton are exceptional assets to any team.

In the backfield, Gipp of Notre Dame gets the first place on account of his versatility and power, able as he is to punt, drop-kick, forward-pass, run, tackle—in fact, do anything that any backfield man could ever be required to do, and do it in a well-nigh superlative fashion. He drop-kicked on his freshman team sixty-two yards. When a man who has been taken off with a badly injured shoulder can go in on a pinch and carry the ball over the goal line to get his team an absolutely necessary touchdown, something of the man's power can well be understood. Way of Penn State gets the next place, not only for his speed, elusiveness and quick sizing up of opportunity, but also because he could always be relied upon when held on the sidelines to go in at any time when things were menacing to his team and make the necessary gains against any opposition. A most elusive back, far more than any of the others, he still has plenty of power for straight line plunging and off-tackle plays.

Stinchcomb of Ohio State, who completes the trio, is the fastest man down under a forward pass on the gridiron today. His speed, together with the passing of Workman, pulled his team out of a hole in the Wisconsin game in the last minute of play, and he has repeated this on other occasions. Had Stinchcomb been an ordinary man, although fairly fast, he would not have been able to get away with these plays, for the defense was prepared for them, saw them coming, and yet was deceived in both cases on account of this peculiar burst of speed which Stinchcomb is able to put on. Stinchcomb is also a quarter-back of note and a backfield runner second to none, but it is just that asset of speed which makes it necessary to have him. We reserve Scherrer of Princeton and Templeton of Stanford as long distance punters for emergencies.

We thus put in that remarkable little general's hands, Lourie, all the weapons of an attack that we can possibly give him by the use of Way, Stinchcomb and Gipp. We put in front of him a line of supreme power, a line on which we can count upon three remarkable men for getting down the field under a kick—Fincher, Carney and Keck—men in Keck and Scott who are liable to hurry any punter, and very likely block a kick; men in Callahan and Keck who can alternate in roving defense; a tackle in Scott who can not only smash the interference, but who is quick enough to seize the runner, and in Stein a steady passer who feeds the ball well to his backs.

The stiffness of this line on defense—its speed to hurry forward passers, and its power to open holes and drive the opposition back on offense—is exceptionally high class, and opposing tackles who were menaced by Fincher and Carney at the time they were trying to get through at the runner would find their hands full. As a matter of fact, with this line there would be very little tackling left for the secondary defense, and in that way it would be kept fresh at all times. With Lourie and Gipp throwing forward passes, Stinchcomb and Way receiving them, a defense of the opponents would be well put to it to offer a tight resistance, and with this line opening holes and driving the opposing line back for these backs, the secondary defense of the opponents would have to come up at times. And a great asset in its own defense to that now most dangerous menace to modern foot ball, the forward pass, is that all these backfield men are of the keen-witted type that diagnoses the direction and can cover up quickly. On the whole, it is one of the most versatile teams on attack and stiffest on defense that has ever been put together.

Other star ends of the season were: Albright, Brown; Anderson, Notre Dame; Belding, Iowa; Berkey, California; Fallon, Syracuse; Faulk, Washington; Gulick, Lehigh; Hanley, Washington State; Hanny, Indiana; Kane, Harvard; Myers, Ohio State; Pelouze, Stanford; Reynolds, Georgia; Robertson, Syracuse; Shirey, Auburn; Storck, West Point; Swanson, Nebraska; Williams, Brown; Weston, Wisconsin; Carroll, Washington and Jefferson.

The great tackles of the year, outside the six named, were: Beck, Penn State; Birk, Purdue; Coughlin, Notre Dame; Ellis, Detroit; Evans, University of South Carolina; Gulick, Syracuse; Gulian, Brown; Hamilton, Washington State; Huffman, Ohio State; Jackson, Chicago; King, Annapolis; Leslie, Oregon; Maguire, Chicago; Milstead, Wabash; Olander, Illinois; Pucelik, Nebraska; Slater, Iowa; Sedgwick, Harvard; Stein, Washington and Jefferson; Sonnenberg, Dartmouth; Wieman, Michigan.

Of guards, the following were close upon the heels of those named: Acosta, Yale; Cranmer, California; Dean, Stanford; Dickinson, Princeton; Dunne, Michigan; Gatz, Kansas Aggies; Majors, California; Mautz, Oregon; McCaw, Indiana; McCormick, Detroit; McKinley, Oklahoma; Moore, Annapolis; G. Penfield, Northwestern; Redmond, Chicago; Smith, Notre Dame; Taylor, Ohio State; Tolbert, Harvard; Valentine, Swarthmore; Welchel, Georgia.

Other outstanding centers were: Bunge, Wisconsin; Callahan, Princeton; Day, Nebraska; Depler, Illinois; Gorman, Fordham; Heaphy, Boston; Hoving, Brown; Larsen, Annapolis; Nemecek, Ohio State; Righter, Stanford; Smith, Washington; Vick, Michigan; Wallace, Iowa State.

There was a wealth of quarter-back material in spite of the difficulties of one or two of the big Eastern teams in finding what they needed. The distribution was country-wide. Beside the first three, and crowding them closely, were: A. Devine, Iowa; Davey, Wisconsin; J. Dunn, Michigan; Holleran, Pittsburgh; Kempton, Yale; Killinger, Penn State; Kochler, Annapolis; Harrington, Lehigh; Mathys, Indiana; Oden, Brown; Schlaudeman, Stanford; Steers, Oregon; Wilhide, West Point; Workman, Ohio State; Rex Wray, Pennsylvania; Zink, Amherst.

And finally, as to the backfield, stars were so numerous that even coaches could not tell at times what selection to make. Those worthy of special mention, and close to the final leaders, were: Abbott, Syracuse; Aldrich, Yale; Armstrong, Brown; Bowser, Bucknell; Bower, Dartmouth; Barron, Georgia Tech; Beck, West Virginia; Crangle, Illinois; Cammack, Springfield; Canapary, Columbia; Card, Amherst; Churchill, Harvard; Conroy, Annapolis; G. Devine, Iowa; Elliott, Wisconsin; Eckman, Washington; Erickson, Washington and Jefferson; Fitts, Harvard; Fitzpatrick, Boston; Flowers, Georgia Tech; Ralph Fletcher, Illinois; Flavin, Georgetown; Gagnon, Holy Cross; Gazella, Lafayette; Gilroy, Princeton; Goodale, Stevens; Hanisch, Chicago; Hewitt, Pittsburgh; Hellstrom, Illinois; Humphrey, Harvard; Kaw, Cornell; Kyle, Indiana; Kelly, Yale; Mohart, Notre Dame; Morrison, California; McTavish, Colorado College; Owen, Harvard; Oss, Minnesota; Peek, Wesleyan; Roberts, Centre; Sundt, Wisconsin; Straus, Pennsylvania; Sprott, California; Stephenson, Alabama; Shelburne, Dartmouth; Steketee, Michigan; Scherrer, Princeton; Templeton, Stanford; Toomey, California; Witmer, Princeton; Whiting, Marietta; Williams, Wisconsin; Walquist, Illinois; Whitehill, Pennsylvania.

Outside of the development of the open play and forward pass, the most striking feature of the season was the great interest shown by coaches and enthusiasts in the East as to what the West and South were doing, and in the South and West as to what the East was teaching. This had been brought about by the great growth in favor of the intersectional game, led by Harvard's trip to the Coast on New Year's Day, 1920, and by the signing up of agreements between Princeton and Chicago for games in 1921 and 1922. Perhaps the greatest factor of all, however, was the very definite increase, already referred to, in the knowledge of the game by the foot ball public. The spectator in the stands now is an educated spectator. During a trip through the West the writer was pressed with questions all the time as to just what Eastern teams were doing in the way of tactics, and upon his return to the East found that coaches and players alike in this section were studying with avidity the Western and Southern methods.

On the present schedules the ranking of teams is impossible. But there is one quality that goes for a great deal, and that is the ability to rise to the occasion when necessary, and when this test is applied we find that the outstanding teams were Princeton, Harvard, Notre Dame, Pittsburgh, Penn State, California, Virginia Military Institute, Boston and Ohio State. They all came through, and would be the ones selected to carry a game anywhere. Their methods differed largely. Princeton had the greatest variety and made the largest use of generalship. Ohio State took the greatest advantage of the modern rules. California ran up the largest scores. Harvard and Pittsburgh were most cautious and calculating. Boston, Notre Dame and Virginia Military Institute were most aggressive.

Important Games in 1920

PRINCETON—HARVARD.

This was one of the sensational games of the year. Harvard seemed the better team in the early part of the play, but Princeton rallied strongly and took the lead, and apparently had the game won. With only a few minutes left to play, Harvard commenced the same style of forward passing which had proved so effective against the Tigers in the previous year, and by successfully working three of these in succession tied the score at 14—14. Neither team was at its best, but each had an opportunity to show that it could rise to an emergency and gave indications of power and ability.

PRINCETON—YALE.

This game provided Princeton an opportunity to show how far the Tigers had progressed since the tie with Harvard. Yale had been beaten by Boston College, had defeated West Virginia, 24—0, and had won from Colgate and Brown. Princeton had suffered no upsets and had defeated Annapolis and West Virginia, the latter, however, by a much less decisive score than Yale's—10 to 3—and had tied Harvard, 14—14. The game proved a startling exposition of headwork on the part of Lourie, the Princeton quarterback, who, at the very beginning, knowing Yale's weaknesses, opened up with some end runs and cut-in plays which seemed to completely demoralize the Yale team, and from that time on almost anything worked against the disorganized wearers of the blue. Finally, to cap the climax, Princeton used the old play of going into formation for a field goal from placement and then faking a kick and running with the ball. Even this worked and added another score, so that the final victory by 20—0 was the most decisive that Princeton had imposed upon Yale in many years. Princeton throughout played good foot ball, with a dash of fire and confidence as well as headwork that gave her such an overwhelming victory.

HARVARD—YALE.

This was a peculiar game in many ways. It showed that Yale had bolstered up its defense very materially since the Princeton defeat, and Harvard, apparently believing that Yale had paid the greatest attention to stopping the running plays, shifted its methods quite materially, making little use of driving runs but opening up forward passes and then relying upon the drop-kicker whenever the Crimson got within scoring radius. It was a remarkable game in this respect, and was won by Harvard, 9—0, through the medium of three well-executed drop-kicks. The passes which Harvard used were wide ones rather than deep ones, but many of them worked. Toward the end of the game the Blue realized that its limited form of running attack was powerless against the Harvard line and went into an orgy of forward passes, some of which connected, and had there been a faster man on the receiving end, upon one occasion at least, it would have given them a touchdown; but the receiver in this instance, although getting the ball clean, was immediately overtaken and Yale's last chance had disappeared.

CALIFORNIA—OHIO STATE.

There had been plenty of evidence that California had a powerful team and was likely to defeat the champions of the Middle West Conference. Still, those who were backing Ohio State felt hopeful of the Buckeyes' chances because of their remarkable ability to decide a close game by the forward passing of Workman to Stinchcomb. When the teams met, however, it was evident from the start that California's power and drive, as well as the variety of its running attack, were too much for Ohio State, and although the visitors fought pluckily they seemed more or less dazed. Some of their forward passes worked, but they were by no means effective in stemming the tide, and the score grew as the minutes flew, until the visitors left the field at the end of the game thoroughly convinced of the merits of the California aggregation.

OHIO STATE—WISCONSIN.

This was the most exciting foot ball game that the writer has witnessed in many years. In fact, the spectators were so exhausted at the completion of the game that it was difficult for them to get out of the stands. The day was perfect. Wisconsin started out with rather a more powerful attack and scored seven points in the first period. The game went on until some four minutes of the end of the fourth period with the score stationary at 7—0 in Wisconsin's favor. Then Ohio State, which had been threatening at times, managed to get the Workman-Stinchcomb forward pass going and the Buckeyes scored; but after bringing the ball straight out in front of the goal posts, the kick hit the post and bounded into the field of play, leaving the score 7—6. About one minute before the game ended, with the ball on Ohio State's 20-yard line, a running play was tried which was unsuccessful. This was followed by a forward pass which was incompletd, and the ball was brought back for third down on Ohio State's 20-yard line. A forward pass, Workman to Stinchcomb, was completed and gave Ohio State the ball in midfield. With something like 30 seconds remaining, the Buckeyes worked the same formation again, Stinchcomb receiving a long pass on Wisconsin's 20-yard line and going over for a touchdown from which the goal was kicked, giving Ohio State the victory, 13—7.

PITTSBURGH—SYRACUSE.

It was unfortunate that two of the important games of the season were played under almost impossible conditions. This Syracuse-Pittsburgh game was an illustration. It had been a cloudy morning, but rain fell before play began and at times came down in torrents, so that the field was deep with mud. Toward the latter part of the game the handling of the ball, which had become a mass of greasy pulp, was almost impossible. Neither team was able under these conditions to show the quality of its play, and the result was a highly unsatisfactory tie at 7—7. The next week each team showed better play under more reasonable conditions, Syracuse defeating Dartmouth, 10—0, and Pittsburgh beating Georgia Tech, 10—3.

UNITED STATES NAVAL ACADEMY, ANNAPOLIS, MD.

PENN STATE—PITTSBURGH.

This game was played on a slippery field under most unfavorable weather conditions, almost as bad as prevailed at the Pittsburgh-Syracuse contest. The game was hardly a criterion of the ability of either team, as many plays were impossible owing to the conditions, and the result was a tie, disappointing to each side.

ANNAPOLIS—WEST POINT.

This game, which brought to a conclusion the Eastern season, was, as usual, witnessed by an enormous crowd of well-nigh frenzied sympathizers. The noise at this match is gradually reaching a state where anything like conversation in the stands, and almost along the side lines, is impossible. The game itself went about as was predicted. It was not the best foot ball that either team had played or could play, and the honors were fairly divided until Annapolis succeeded in opening up the West Point line by spreading it and weakening it in the middle, and from this point the success of the Navy was well assured.

BOSTON COLLEGE—YALE.

Boston College, which had taken the measure of the Yale team the previous season, came down to New Haven knowing what was in store for them, yet fully believing they could repeat what already had been accomplished. Probably more interest centered about this game than any other of the early season contests, and it was bitterly fought throughout; but the visitors were too strong for the Blue and won by a score of 21—13.

PITTSBURGH—PENNSYLVANIA.

This game deserves mention because of the remarkable scoring of both teams. Pittsburgh was a much-fancied favorite, yet Penn scored no less than 21 points. However, Pittsburgh proved too strong in the long run and finally won by outscoring its opponents by six points, making the final result, 27—21. The defense of each team seemed to be lacking, but the attack was spectacular.

HARVARD—CENTRE.

The Harvard-Centre game deserves notice on account of the trip East of Centre and the brilliant work of McMillin. It also was an exposition of the superiority of Harvard's more broadly developed play, and the Crimson team eventually defeated the visitors, 31—14.

DARTMOUTH—BROWN.

The Hanover institution had played some in-and-out foot ball, but had shown great power. Although losing to Syracuse, 10—0, in midseason, Dartmouth later defeated Cornell, 14—3, and Pennsylvania no less than 44—7, and then met its old rival, Brown. It was an interesting and hard fought game, with Brown giving the wearers of the green plenty to do; but the more powerful team from Hanover eventually won, 14—6.

NOTRE DAME—WEST POINT.

Notre Dame always has been the menace of the Army team, and last year was no exception. Gipp, the remarkable star, was at his best, although the rest of the Notre Dame team played good foot ball. The defensive work on each side was not quite up to the standard. Notre Dame, however, scored more freely than the Army and won by the score of 27—17.

PENN STATE—NEBRASKA.

This game is worthy of comment, as it was left to Penn State to defend the reputation of the East against the Middle West visitors, who had played all around Rutgers, winning by a score of 28—0, and had thrown something of a scare into the ranks of Eastern teams by this success. Penn State went out after Nebraska from the start, and with its active backfield and its short, quick shifts kept Nebraska on the run, finally winning by the score of 20—0.

PENNSYLVANIA—CORNELL.

This game proved to be a sort of anticlimax, for Cornell showed very little result of its season's play, and Pennsylvania, which had been none too good on occasions, rose to the emergency after spending some little time getting going, and at the end succeeded in winning a decisive victory.

LAFAYETTE—LEHIGH.

This game, the most important of the season to both principals, was played on March Field, Lafayette College, and won by the latter, 27—7. It was Lafayette's second consecutive victory over Lehigh and by the most decisive total in several seasons. The battle was fiercely fought, Lehigh's one offensive brace resulting in its only score. Lafayette's superior weight and play were the deciding factors in the second half, when the victors scored a majority of their points.

SOUTHERN GAMES.

Among the more important Southern games, Georgia Tech defeated Centre, 24—0, at Atlanta, this contest being witnessed by a crowd estimated to be the largest ever attending a foot ball game in the South. Tech perhaps reached its best form of the season on that day and gained at will, the difference in play between the two teams being very marked. Auburn, with one of the heaviest lines in the country, crushed Washington and Lee, scoring eleven touchdowns against the Virginians; but Auburn was defeated by Georgia Tech, 34—0, and by the University of Georgia, 7—0. Tulane won from Louisiana State in their annual clash, 21—0, reversing the decision gained by the latter in the previous year. In the Southwest the University of Texas defeated the Texas Aggies on Thanksgiving Day, 7—3, a crowd of 20,000 spectators witnessing the triumph of the University. The result was a severe blow to the Aggies' hopes, as the team had played through the season without having its goal line crossed.

Foot Ball in New England Colleges

By JOHN J. HALLAHAN, BOSTON, MASS.

Nothing other than complimentary could be said of the 1920 foot ball season in New England. Keen interest was manifest from the start of the season until its close, which was prolonged to enable Boston College and Holy Cross College to settle their rivalry on the gridiron.

Boston College was the only eleven in New England that went through the season without being tied or beaten. Its big victory was that gained over Yale, the little institution located in Newton having the unique distinction of being the smallest college that ever has been able to defeat Yale in two successive years. As with all teams coached by Major Frank Cavanaugh, Boston College was well drilled in the fundamentals, and it was a big tribute to Cavanaugh's ability to turn out winning combinations.

But as tributes to look back on, followers of Boston College hail with almost as much delight the victories attained over Georgetown and Holy Cross as that over Yale. The last two contests were played after Thanksgiving Day on the muddiest kind of playing fields. Georgetown was unable to cope with its Northern rivals, while Holy Cross, fresh from its win over Syracuse, found the Maroon and Old Gold team better fortified in all-around ability. The two wins, together with that secured over Fordham earlier in the season, left little to say regarding which was the best of the four Catholic colleges.

Clarence W. Spears closed his career as foot ball coach at Dartmouth after developing a capable eleven at Hanover. Penn State and Syracuse, the latter when at the top of its game, defeated the Green; but it was felt that a struggle such as was expected from Penn State was scheduled too early in the season. Next to these games and the one with Brown which Dartmouth won for the first time since renewing athletic relations in 1917, the opposition furnished by Holy Cross was the most exacting. Holy Cross scored two touchdowns, succumbing because of the lack of good substitutes, 27—14. Cornell was much easier for Dartmouth than the score of 14—3 indicates, and Pennsylvania was overwhelmed in a one-sided conflict, 44—7. The Green was at the height of its game in that contest. Against Brown it was forced to the limit. Brown was without its star end, Williams, and only after a real tussle did Dartmouth emerge with a 14—6 win. Immediately after that game Dartmouth's foot ball warriors boarded a train for Seattle and the following Saturday saw Coach Spears' proteges defeat the University of Washington, 28—7.

Probably the greatest surprise in New England foot ball was the 3—0 victory of Holy Cross over Syracuse. The latter was looked upon as being "dead certain" to win, only to find the little Worcester eleven full of fight. Syracuse had tied Pittsburgh and beaten Dartmouth after the latter had won from Holy Cross. In the opening game of the season Holy Cross displayed great possibilities against Harvard, giving as good as it received in a 3—0 defeat. Coach Cleo O'Donnell, however, after the Syracuse game, had only two contests in preparation for the "big game" with Boston College. This was watched by the largest crowd that ever saw a foot ball match in New England outside of Harvard and Yale. A Thanksgiving Day game with Fordham was called off because of wretched conditions.

Brown found playing three hard games in a row, like Yale, Harvard and Dartmouth, too much for its light squad. Coach Ed Robinson's proteges gave their best demonstration against Yale, being on the small end of a 14—10 score. The team did not play so well against Harvard the following Saturday and the latter won, 27—0. Against Dartmouth, as always, Brown played a remarkable game before finally yielding.

There was nothing to choose from in the annual triumvirate series in which Williams, Wesleyan and Amherst figured. Williams defeated Wesleyan and the latter defeated Amherst. Amherst, in turn, drove Williams back, all the victories being gained on the home gridirons. Wesleyan had not been beaten until the Williams game, which was the only smirch on a record that included a 13—13 tie with New York University. Williams won, 50—14. Amherst was beaten, 7—0, by Wesleyan, and Amherst defeated Williams, 14—7. Wesleyan defeated Columbia and the latter won from both Amherst and Williams.

Maine intercollegiate honors went to the University of Maine. It did not suffer a defeat, Bowdoin offering the greatest opposition in a 7—7 tie. Bates also made it interesting for the champions, losing, 14—9, but Colby was easy for Maine, 0—22. Bates did not win a game in the series, a no-score tie against Bowdoin being its best effort. Bowdoin beat Colby and the latter won from Bates, showing a somewhat scrambled series.

Tufts College, adopting the one-year and freshman rule for the first time, had a most disastrous season, victories over Bowdoin and Norwich being the only incidents in the season's showing aside from the star individual runs of Bart Macchia, the end, who made many long runs either from kick-offs or fumbles.

Massachusetts Agricultural College had a successful season, only being defeated by New Hampshire State and Springfield College. Boston University, playing a real schedule of games, did remarkably well under the coaching of Percy Wendell, former Harvard captain. Boston College was the only team to beat B.U. by more than one touchdown.

Springfield's greatest victory was gained over Detroit University, which had come East acclaimed as one of the greatest of teams. Other winning scores were run up against Bowdoin, Trinity and Massachusetts Aggies. Trinity won only from Connecticut Aggies in a schedule of eight games, while Rhode Island State College had the rather unusual record of tying four games and losing the same number. Norwich won the championship of Vermont with victories over Middlebury and Vermont to its credit.

An All-New England college eleven could be obtained from the ranks that could cope with the best, and the following would make a first-class aggregation:

College Foot Ball in the Middle States

BY GEORGE W. ORTON.

Middle States foot ball again lived up to its traditions of the past few years when it led the other sections of the country in the high standard of game shown by its numerous representatives. It is true that never before in the history of college foot ball has such a high standard of play been seen throughout the entire country as last year. Even the best of our critics, men who have traveled extensively and seen teams from various sections in action, are for the first time rather nonplused in deciding on the best team of the year.

Though Princeton was given the palm by the most noted critics, they are all a unit in stating that the best teams of the East, Middle West and Far West—Princeton, Ohio State and California, respectively—showed but little difference in standard of play. They all hesitate to pick any one of these teams as decidedly superior to the other. As is natural, Californians and Pacific Slope men feel that Coach Andy Smith's California team is the strongest in the country; Middle Western critics maintain that Ohio State is the best, while Eastern critics give Princeton the preference. The conclusion is that with the permanency of the rules as now established, and the wide publicity that has been given to the games, the various styles of play, the different shifts and plans of offense and defense, the game has been standardized throughout the country as never before and more high-class teams have been developed than ever before.

But, whether the claim made for the Middle States teams of leading the other sections in standard of play is strictly true or not, there is no doubt that any section that can boast of such a galaxy of elevens as those developed at Princeton, Pittsburgh, Penn State, Syracuse, Annapolis, West Point, Washington and Jefferson, Lafayette, Lehigh, Bucknell, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and others, must have reached high rank in the college world.

Princeton was given the premier position by the majority of the best informed critics. This is in itself the very highest praise for the wonderful work of the Tigers and speaks volumes for the careful coaching of William Roper, who, in his second engagement as head of Princeton foot ball, has certainly put them on the map. The team was strong in every department of the game and furnished one man who was unanimously named for All-America honors, namely, Keck, the left tackle. Callahan at center and Lourie and Murray as backs were also given high rating by all the Eastern critics. It is true that Princeton was able only to get a draw in the Harvard game, but the Tigers defeated Yale by double the score made by Harvard and were thus generally considered as being better than the Harvard eleven. This opinion was also further impressed on the critics by the fact that in the Harvard game Princeton made much the better showing.

The fact that Pittsburgh and Penn State have been regarded by some very well-known critics as on a par with Princeton indicates what high-class foot ball both of these elevens played; but a close examination of the records will give Princeton the preference by a slight margin. They must be ranked together. Coach Warner was not favored with the wealth of veteran material at Pittsburgh that had reported for several seasons, so his work in developing such a high-class eleven proves that he has lost none of the ability that has won for him the title of "Dean of American Foot Ball Coaches." At the same time, his eleven was not up to the mark set by at least three of his elevens of the past five years. The line was lacking in the power that has usually characterized his elevens, while the backfield did not have the versatility of play that has been such a marked feature of the Pittsburgh attack for several seasons. Davies was the bright particular star of the entire team. Practically single-handed he won for Pittsburgh the Syracuse, Lafayette, Pennsylvania and Washington and Jefferson matches. His work stamps him as one of the greatest backfield players that the modern game has produced.

Coach Bezdek of Penn State also deserves the greatest credit for his work in developing such a capable team. Had the Penn State players come through their last two games as expected, they would have won a clear title to the championship; but after the Nebraska game, in which they showed a wonderful versatility of attack, they did not play so well. Lehigh, the following Saturday, played them to a draw and really had the better of the play, while Pittsburgh held them off in spite of the fact that Davies retired early in the game and thus greatly weakened the Pittsburgh eleven. In Killinger, Coach Bezdek showed one of the best quarter-backs of the year, while Haines also was regarded very highly as a back. The game with Nebraska was especially interesting. The Middle Western eleven was one of the best from that section of the country, but the State eleven clearly outplayed the visitors, the final score being 20—0.

Pennsylvania, in its final match with Cornell, showed a power on defense and a speed and strength on attack that was but seldom exhibited by any other team throughout the East. It would be quite fair to rank Pennsylvania on its play against Columbia and Cornell, for the team started in October with a new coach and only six men from the previous year's squad. But all that Pennsylvania claims is that the last season was practically a success because of its final showing and because it proved that Coach Heisman had worked along the best lines and that, with the material developed, the 1921 season should be much better from start to finish. The defeats by Penn State, Virginia Military Institute and Dartmouth were bitter pills for Pennsylvanians to swallow. The Pittsburgh defeat was a moral victory, as the men outplayed the Smoky City representatives and scored 21 points against them, indicating that when working smoothly Pennsylvania's offense had great elements of strength. For the first time in many years Pennsylvania did not get mention for All-America honors, though Ward at left tackle played a high-class game all season.

Syracuse played in-and-out foot ball. After holding Pittsburgh to a tie and defeating Dartmouth by 10—0, the Salt City collegians were defeated by Holy Cross and in their final match defeated Colgate by only 14—0. Alexander, at center, was the star of the team and fully justified the reputation he had made by being twice selected for All-America honors. five years, it would seem that they lay too much stress on the Pittsburgh game, as after that contest they have invariably slumped. From the Syracuse standpoint, it would be better if the Pittsburgh game were played later in the season.

West Virginia may very properly be included in the Middle States colleges, as the Mountaineers play so many teams from that district. As usual, Coach McIntyre had a very good team. This was surprising in view of the fact that he had lost many veterans of the previous year. The schedule, as usual, was a very difficult one. Lehigh, Princeton, Yale, Pittsburgh, Washington and Lee—one of the strongest teams of the South—and Washington and Jefferson were played. For a small college, with a limited squad, such a schedule seems an impossibility, and the wonder is that West Virginia did so well. The Mountaineers tied Lehigh, scored 13 points on Pittsburgh, held Princeton to a 10—3 score, defeated Washington and Lee and then fell heavily before Washington and Jefferson. Beck was the big gun of the attack all year.

Washington and Jefferson again had a fine eleven. This is shown by its defeat of Lehigh by 14—0, holding Pittsburgh to one touchdown, and its great victory over West Virginia by 28—0. Stein, left tackle, played wonderful ball all season; but in the final contest he outdid himself, as he played a truly heroic game, scoring all four touchdowns for his side.

It has not been the writer's intention to rank the foregoing colleges as they have been taken up in this chapter. Princeton, Pittsburgh and Penn State naturally lead the Middle States colleges, but it would take more than the allotted space to give reasons for ranking the other colleges in the Middle States. They have thus been taken up arbitrarily and we shall continue to do so without any idea of ranking them in their order of merit.

Annapolis and West Point both developed very good teams. Their final clash was very adroitly led up to by their matches of the previous Saturday, West Point defeating Bowdoin by 90—0 and Annapolis burying South Carolina under a 63—0 score. Both teams were very confident, but the Middies showed superiority and won by one touchdown, the only score of the game. A careful survey of the season's work of the two elevens would indicate that the Annapolis team deserved its victory. The Middies defeated both Lafayette and Bucknell. Though Coach Folwell had had his best material at home only ten days, they held Princeton to two touchdowns. The season was regarded as a great success and Coach Folwell's efforts were keenly appreciated, as he worked not only under the ordinary handicap of being a new coach but several of his best men, because of a cruise, did not get back to college until two games had been played, thus retarding the development of the eleven. West Point would have benefited by a harder schedule. Its only really hard game was played with Notre Dame, which the latter won in a spectacular contest by 27—17.

Coach Dobie at Cornell had very much the same proposition on his hands as Coach Heisman at Pennsylvania. The schedule seemed to be a good one for developing the best in the team, but it proved to be too easy, as both Colgate and Rutgers were not up to their general form. The first hard game was with Dartmouth, which the latter won by 17—0. This was a much better showing than Pennsylvania had made, but the critics were no doubt deceived as to Pennsylvania's inherent strength, as Penn's eleven on the day it met Dartmouth was in a very bad slump and played like schoolboys. Cornell also defeated Columbia by a bigger score than did Pennsylvania, but in the final game Cornell proved no match for the Red and Blue and received one of the worst beatings in its history. Coach Dobie's statements that the eleven lacked the speed necessary for the modern game was proven.

Lafayette and Lehigh were very much in the same state of mind as Annapolis and West Point when they met in their final game. Lafayette had defeated Bucknell by a margin of only three points, while Lehigh had held the strong Penn State eleven to a tie. It looked like an even match, but Bucknell was much stronger than usual, while State College did not play up to its capabilities. Lafayette showed great superiority over Lehigh, winning by 27—7. In fact, Lafayette was one of the strongest teams in the Middle States. The Easton players should have won the Pennsylvania game, and it was only Davies' scintillating play that won for Pittsburgh.

Lehigh, however, had a very good eleven, being beaten only by Washington and Jefferson and Lafayette. Tie games were played with West Virginia and Penn State, and Carnegie Tech was defeated. The eleven was at its best against Penn State and played remarkably well. Rote and Harrington outplayed the famous State backs and very fairly earned the touchdown which State was not able to even up until the last period.

Rutgers and Colgate both had teams far below their usual form and for the same reason, namely, poor and inexperienced material. In spite of their numerous reverses, both teams improved steadily throughout the season and they promise to resume their high place in Eastern foot ball this year.

Columbia showed considerable improvement over the previous year and it should be only a question of two or three years until the New Yorkers will be back to the grade they held prior to their dropping foot ball. Considering his material, Coach O'Neill did wonders.

Bucknell had the strongest team in its history. In the opening game with Pennsylvania, the Bucknell students played a very fine brand of foot ball and should have won. They held Annapolis to a 7—2 score and again would have won had the breaks not favored their opponents. In midseason they played Lafayette to a 10—7 score, while they defeated all their natural rivals by large scores.

Stevens Tech is another team that went over the top, as it also had its best eleven. The Hoboken players defeated the strong Swarthmore team and won their big game against New York University by 21—14.

With Penn State, Pittsburgh and West Virginia, the western section of the Middle States was well provided with high-class elevens, but two others deserve mention, namely, Washington and Jefferson and Carnegie Tech. Washington and Jefferson has had strong elevens ever since Bob Folwell several years ago took charge. The team last year was not quite so strong as in 1919, but any team that could hold Pittsburgh to one touchdown, Syracuse to two and defeat West Virginia by 28—0 must be given high rank in any list of Middle States foot ball teams. The defeat of Lehigh by 14—0 also indicates that the team was strictly first class.

DICKINSON COLLEGE, CARLISLE, PA.

In spite of Carnegie Tech's defeat of Washington and Jefferson by 6—0, Tech does not deserve equal rank with W. and J. on its season's showing, but the team certainly played better than any previous Carnegie eleven and bids fair to become a real factor in western Pennsylvania foot ball in the very near future. Tech held Lehigh to a 17—6 score and defeated its old rival, Allegheny College, by 42—0.

Neither Fordham nor Georgetown were up to their form of the previous year. The former fell off considerably, but Georgetown played through a hard schedule with uniform credit to the institution, though with more defeats than usual.

Franklin and Marshall had one of the best teams in years and had a very sane schedule for a small college, playing only its natural rivals. The fact that F. and M. beat Dickinson and Ursinus and held both Swarthmore and Gettysburg to a 0—0 tie would indicate that the team was well coached and had an excellent defensive system of play. Albright and Dickinson had good elevens in their class and both finished successful seasons. Delaware was not up to the form of the previous year.

Drexel Institute broke into the college class and found the going rather hard. Pennsylvania Military College, another school that began playing collegiate foot ball only a year previous, showed great improvement and with a similar advance will soon be to the front in the colleges of its class. Coach Bennett at Haverford, with very light and inexperienced material, did wonders in spite of the overwhelming defeat at the hands of its old rival, Swarthmore.

The general play of Swarthmore throughout the season was high class, and its team would take rank with Bucknell and the best of the minor colleges. Ashplund, Swarthmore's full-back, was regarded by many as the greatest kicker of the East. He also was a great back in other respects and would deserve mention on any All-Middle States eleven that might be named.

Gettysburg had a very successful season, winning from all its rivals except Bucknell and the tie with Franklin and Marshall. Muhlenberg and Ursinus both had good teams in their class.

The University of Rochester showed continued improvement and will soon be recognized as one of the strongest elevens in central New York. St. Lawrence University is another New York institution that is showing steady improvement in its play.

The University of Maryland outclassed the other Maryland colleges, as shown by its unexpected defeat of Syracuse. Johns Hopkins, as usual, had only a fair team, while St. John's was not up to its best standard. St. Mary's, though not strong, showed improvement.

In conclusion, we state again that the Middle States colleges showed the result of the standardization of the rules. Not only were there more high-class teams than usual, but the smaller teams played better ball. It is also gratifying to state that very few men were hurt during the season. This is another boost for the prevailing rules and an argument that they be left practically as they are now. The game is best suited to the players and more interesting than ever to the spectators, the two big factors in making any sport popular.

Foot Ball in Western Pennsylvania

BY HARRY KECK, PITTSBURGH.

The University of Pittsburgh eleven again stood out as the leader in collegiate foot ball in western Pennsylvania in 1920, playing a stiff schedule of eight games and losing none and tying two. The ties were 0—0 with Hugo Bezdek's crack Penn State team and 7—7 with Syracuse University.

The Pitt team was not the powerful aggregation of several years before and at times appeared quite shaky, yet it managed to rise to occasions and thus pulled through without tasting defeat. Three players were prominent on the team: Tom Davies, stellar half-back; Herb Stein, captain and center and All-America choice of Walter Camp, and Tommy Holleran, the quarter-back. The line, aside from Stein, was mediocre, and Davies' and Holleran's mates in the backfield were lost in the lustre of the work of these two players. Hewitt, the full-back, shone in a few games, and Anderson, full-back and half-back, and McCracken, half-back and quarter-back, played hard and consistently.

In several games it was the genius of Coach Glenn Warner alone that saved the team. At the conclusion of the season the Panthers were generally ranked with Penn State and Princeton as the Eastern leaders. Geneva, West Virginia, Georgia Tech, Lafayette, Pennsylvania and Washington and Jefferson were beaten. Incidentally, the Pitt team's best feat of the season was in again defeating Georgia Tech. Pitt downed the Southerners, 10—3, only after a hard, uphill battle. Tech was easily the best team played by Warner's men. Penn State was the second best. The University of Pennsylvania held Pitt to a 27—21 score, but the Quakers played ahead of their normal stride in this game.

Davies scored 77 of his team's 146 points during the season and was one of the scoring leaders of the country. He ran wild in the Penn game and scored 20 of his team's 27 points. He is captain-elect for this year, which will be his last for the Blue and Gold.

Much was expected from Washington and Jefferson, which had excellent material, but its followers were doomed to sad disappointment. The Red and Black was strong defensively, but lacked a punch offensively in its hard games. West Virginia Wesleyan held W. and J. to a 7—7 tie in the second game of the season and three of the last four games were lost, Syracuse winning, 14—0; Pitt, 7—0, and Carnegie Tech, 6—0. The Presidents showed a flash of the real form that was expected of them in their final game, when they came back with a bang and defeated West Virginia University by the surprising score of 28—0. The other teams beaten by W. and J. were Bethany, Kalamazoo, Geneva, Lehigh and Westminster. The Lehigh score was 14—0.

Carnegie Tech, with a virtually green team, got off to a poor start, but settled down and wound up the season in a blaze of glory. Yale defeated the Tartans, 44—0, in the opening game at New Haven, after which Westminster, Grove City and Cincinnati were won from by the Plaid. Lehigh proved a stumbling block, 16—6, but Tech followed this by winning from

GALLAUDET COLLEGE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

Allegheny, 42—0. The Bethany (W. Va.) College team, which developed unexpected strength during the season, humbled Tech, 14—0, but the team coached by Walter Steffen made up for this by defeating Washington and Jefferson in the closing game, played on Tech's field, 6—0.

This was the first time Tech ever had beaten the Red and Black, and the victory created a sensation in the district. The game was played on a very heavy field, the mud being almost ankle deep and very slimy, and neither team could do much in the way of advancing the ball. However, Tech played a heady kicking game, and, in the closing minutes, blocked a W. and J. punt and scooped up the ball and scored.

Geneva College won the championship among the secondary colleges of the section, losing only to Pitt and W. and J., and holding all its natural rivals scoreless. Grove City was the only one of these teams to get a scoreless tie with the Covenanters. W. and J. downed Geneva by a score of only 13—0, while Pitt, in the opening game of the season, ran up a 49—0 tally.

Grove City College, like W. and J., had wonderful material, but failed to realize on it. The Crimson had a fine galaxy of big, husky players, but there was little strength in the attack, and, as a result, the only games won were against the weak Westminster and St. Bonaventure elevens, while Geneva was tied in a no-score game. Carnegie Tech downed Grove City by a 21—3 count.

Allegheny College had a mediocre season, showing a good defense but little in the way of attack. In fact, the team scored only 10 points during the season, the result of a touchdown and goal and a field goal. The field goal defeated Grove City, 3—0, the Blue and Gold's only victory, while the touchdown enabled the team to tie Colgate in an early season game. Scoreless ties were played with Thiel and Westminster, two natural rivals. Defeats were suffered at the hands of Carnegie Tech, 42—0; Dickinson, 7—0, and Geneva, 19—0.

Thiel College had a 50-50 season, so to speak, scoring 71 points and having the same number scored against it. It won four games, lost two and tied two. The ties were 6—6 with Westminster and 0—0 with Allegheny. Geneva was lost to, 31—0. The teams beaten by Thiel were the Titusville Independents and Buffalo, Duquesne and Alfred Universities.

Westminster College, with little material, had a very poor season, winning no games, losing seven and getting two ties, with Allegheny and Thiel. Only 19 points were scored, against 214 by opponents.

Duquesne University of Pittsburgh, returning to 'varsity foot ball after a lapse of six years, compiled a creditable record, losing to Marietta College and Detroit University in the first two games and then winning three, tying one and losing one of the last five games. Muskingum, St. Bonaventure and Dayton were beaten, while St. Mary's played a scoreless tie and Thiel was lost to by the narrow margin of 19—14. Jake Stahl, a former Pitt lineman, and Skip Gougler, a former Pitt half-back, coached the team.

Davies, Pitt, 77 points; Erickson, W. and J., 36; Wierman, Carnegie Tech, 36; Schachren, Geneva, 45; Stephanian, Grove City, 18; Miller, Allegheny, 6; Bell, Thiel, 18; Dishman, Westminster, 7, and Shortly, Duquesne, 45, were the leading scorers of their teams.

South Atlantic foot ball during the 1920 season probably reached its greatest heights. Never have all the schools been so strongly represented, never have so many good players been developed, and never have such good records been made against big Northern elevens.

Undoubtedly the greatest single feature of the season was the wonderful record made by Virginia Military Institute. No V.M.I. team has ever before accomplished anything like it, and it is questionable if any South Atlantic eleven in previous years surpassed the attainment of the Lexington Cadets. Starting the season by winning from three small colleges by big scores, the Cadet aggregation sprang into prominence by going to Charlottesville and defeating Virginia, 22 to 6. Everybody thought that victory was due more to Virginia's weakness than to V.M.I.'s strength, but many were the expressions of wonder when, two weeks later, the University of Pennsylvania was overwhelmed. Then, in turn, North Carolina State—a powerful machine—North Carolina University and Virginia Polytechnic Institute fell before the slashing, deceptive attack of the team which was waking up South Atlantic gridironists. With such a decisive record back of it, no critic should find fault with the awarding of the South Atlantic championship to Virginia Military Institute.

Next to V.M.I.'s achievements, probably the University of Maryland deserves more credit for its season than any other school. In some respects the Marylanders deserve just as much credit as the Lexington men, because the former made their record jumping from one point on the map to another, covering a total of about 80,000 man-miles during their season. Had Maryland and V.M.I. met on the Saturday that Maryland defeated Syracuse, one of the most remarkable games of foot ball ever staged in the South Atlantic section should have resulted, with the chances about even for each team to win. Maryland defeated every team it met below the Mason-Dixon line, and defeated the one big Northern eleven it faced after it had reached the peak of its development.

Georgetown, perhaps, had its worst season in years. With the exception of its game with North Carolina State, the Blue and Gray did not win one of its really important games. Consecutively it went down to defeat before Navy, Georgia Tech. Washington and Lee, and Boston College.

HAMILTON COLLEGE, CLINTON, N. Y.

North Carolina State turned out a powerful combination which at times got great results. Virginia won its game with North Carolina on Thanksgiving Day, which gave it a successful year, according to its lights, as that was the all-important event from a Charlottesville view.

Washington and Lee had a good year, notwithstanding its defeats by West Virginia and Auburn. It beat V.P.I. and Georgetown in its two most important games, speaking strictly from a South Atlantic standpoint. North Carolina University and Virginia Polytechnic Institute had much the same kind of seasons, neither winning their important games.

Among what might be termed the elevens of secondary rank, Davidson and Johns Hopkins were about the best. Catholic University had a team which played better foot ball than it has turned out since 1916, and it seems in a fair way to come to the front and stand on a par with the best on South Atlantic gridirons within the next two or three years. William and Mary succeeded better than usual, and the University of Richmond also did well.

George Washington came out with an eleven for the first time since 1916 and now has its athletics on a basis which indicates that it is in the game to stay. Gallaudet made an excellent record in its class.

No previous season has produced so many good players. Every team had at least two or three men in its line-up who could make bids for places on all-star elevens. In making his selections the writer has been compelled to accept the opinions of others in regard to the abilities of Washington and Lee and Virginia Military Institute players. All the others, including Virginia, Maryland, V.P.I., North Carolina, North Carolina State and Georgetown, he saw in action.

Most important is the quarter-back's place, and any one of three men might be picked with little difference in the value of the player to his team. These three men are Fawcett of North Carolina State, Stuart of Virginia Military Institute, and Oppleman of Virginia. One critic told the writer that Stuart was the best general in the South and that the game he played against Pennsylvania was the most perfect he had ever seen. Another man gave about the same opinion of Oppleman, with the exception of the Pennsylvania part of it. The writer saw Fawcett and Oppleman, and of the two, the former was much more impressive. He was one of the best running backs in the section, was an exceptional thrower of the forward pass and used good judgment in the direction of play. He is the type of player it would be difficult to keep out of any backfield. Stuart is given a place on the second team, with Oppleman coming third.

Half-back positions are given to Leech of V.M.I. and Brewer of the University of Maryland. The former has been rated as one of the best backs in the East, being brilliant in about everything that goes to make up brilliance in a half-back. The latter could not be kept off any eleven in the section and could probably make most any team he was out for, mainly because of his punting and drop-kicking ability and for the reason that he is, with the exception of Lourie of Princeton, the best safety man the writer has seen since Thorpe played at Carlisle. Also, Brewer is a fine running half-back and is likely at any time to furnish a run which may put the ball in scoring distance. Any eleven would have its trouble stopping a pair of open running backs like Brewer and Leech, especially with Fawcett thrown in to add a little spice to the game.

HOLY CROSS COLLEGE, WORCESTER, MASS.

Silverstein of Washington and Lee is given the full-back position and would call the signals on all plays except those in which the quarter-back took the ball from center. With four years of college foot ball experience, with ability as a line plunger and as a running back and as a punter, Silverstein would fit in well with the other three men. Flavin of Georgetown and Rhinehart of Virginia are awarded the second string positions at half-back, and Dixon of V.M.I. is placed at full-back. Other good half-backs deserving of more than passing mention are Sutton of V.P.I., Bunting of V.M.I., Johnson of North Carolina State, Semler of Maryland and Denault of Catholic University.

End positions were not any too strong on any of the teams, only two or three men standing out during the season. Kenyon of Georgetown was the best flanker in the section; he could do anything a good end should do and some other things besides. To Michie of Virginia goes the other end position. Both were fast and used their speed admirably in covering punts, were good offensive as well as defensive players—and few ends are to be praised to any extent in offensive play. In fact, weakness in offensive work keeps Eppley of the University of Maryland off the first team. There was no better defensive end than Eppley, but on offensive many were much more capable. Eppley gets one end on the second eleven and Parrish of V.P.I. the other.

Moore of Washington and Lee played brilliantly all season at left tackle and he is given that berth on the all-star eleven. Besides being a splendid tackle, Moore also had the ability to cover punts just as effectively as ends. Undoubtedly, he was the fastest of any of the five center men on any of the teams. Mackert of Maryland is shifted from full-back to play the other tackle, the position for which he was selected by some critics last year. Mackert and Moore would make a pair of tackles who would measure up to a much higher standard than the average for Southern foot ball.

Because in the modern game guards should be fast, and because there were no particularly brilliant men playing the guard positions, two tackles, Summers of V.M.I. and Ripple of North Carolina State, are moved to play the guards. The guard positions on the second team are given to Comstock of Georgetown and McKay of Johns Hopkins. The other two tackle places go to Weathers of North Carolina State and Pritchard of University of North Carolina. The two best centers were Paget of Washington and Lee and Smith of V.M.I. Neither of these two men were seen by the writer, but opinions of those that have watched both men trend toward Smith. Probably there is little to choose between them.

Such an eleven as has been selected would be by far the fastest that ever has been gotten together on a Southern gridiron. It would have the advantage of exceptionally fast-running backs in combination with a good forward passer who at the same time could run in the open or hit a line, and a good man to smash through for short gains or to take advantage of quick openings. The ends would be fast, would cover kicks well and should play well on offensive and defensive alike. The five center men would average more than 190 pounds and be fast and shifty in every phase of play. Three good punters, with one of them, Brewer, mentioned with Fitzpatrick of Boston College and Sherrer of Princeton as one of the best three punters of the year, and two drop-kickers of ability would be in the backfield.

Foot Ball in the South

BY H. J. STEGEMAN, UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA.

The 1920 foot ball season was without doubt the greatest that this section of the country has ever enjoyed. Interest in the sport, as evidenced by the unusual size in numbers of the squads at all universities, and by the crowds that attended important games, was greater than ever before. Three Southern teams went through their schedules without meeting defeat at the hands of a Southern institution—Tulane, Georgia Tech and the University of Georgia. Tulane was defeated by Michigan, and Pittsburgh barely defeated Georgia Tech in one of the hardest games that the Panthers played during the season.

The feature games of the year, perhaps, were the Georgia Tech-Centre, the Auburn-Washington and Lee, and the Georgia-Auburn game. Georgia Tech decisively defeated Centre in a game that made an attendance record in the South. Centre showed very little power at any time, while Tech's team reached the height of the season on that day, and the difference in the two teams was very evident. Tech gained at will, while Bo McMillin was held to a scant gain of about 15 yards. Auburn, boasting the heaviest line in the country, aggregating 1,500 pounds, crushed Washington and Lee, giving the Virginians the worst defeat they have ever had, eleven touchdowns being made against them. Auburn was defeated by the University of Georgia, 7 to 0, in perhaps the hardest fought game of the year.

The University of Alabama again had a strong team, winning every game but one. Alabama presented the best drilled team in the Association and had an exceptionally diversified attack. With a good line this team would have been hard to beat. Three blocked kicks spelled defeat in the University of Georgia game. Riggs Stephenson and Lenoir were the outstanding players.

Vanderbilt was weak throughout the season and lost overwhelmingly to Georgia Tech and Auburn, tied Virginia, but won its Tennessee and Sewanee games.

Alabama Polytechnic Institute had an in-and-out season. The games with Vanderbilt and Washington and Lee stamped Auburn as the most powerful team in its section, but the excessive weight of its players was a handicap later on in the year, which was responsible for losing the Georgia and Tech games. Caton at center, Shirling at full-back and Stubbs at quarter did the best work for Auburn. Shirling is one of the best full-backs the writer has ever seen, without exception the best defensive full-back.

Tulane won its important game with Louisiana State handily. Its record against Southern teams is clean. Furman ranked high among the smaller schools, having a light, aggressive team. The University of South Carolina, under Sol Metzger, showed improvement.

Georgia Tech, employing an elaboration of the Heisman shift, improved over its 1919 form, winning every Southern game with ease. The feature of its game was an exceptionally strong end running combination with powerful interference. Flowers' punting was above the average at all times. Flowers, captain and half-back; Barron, half; Harlan, full, and Fincher, tackle, were Tech's outstanding players. Fincher was one of the best defensive players in this section.

The University of Georgia went through its season undefeated. Day, captain and center; Pew, tackle; Reynolds, end, and Cheves at quarter-back stood out above the rest in every game played.

Officiating in Southern games was of high class, better than ever before. Several important games have been scheduled for the 1921 season. Centre College again plays Harvard. Georgia Tech will play Penn State and Rutgers, and the University of Georgia will play Harvard and Dartmouth. Rutgers and Dartmouth will play in the South, the first Northern teams to come into this section in four years. These games will add interest to a full year, and the appearance of these teams is a welcome prospect, not for the purpose of comparison of strength of teams, but for the better relation between institutions from different sections of the country.

At the close of the season twenty-seven coaches and editors chose the following composite All-Southern team:

Western Conference Foot Ball Review

BY WALTER H. ECKERSALL.

WALTER H. ECKERSALL.

Displaying a determination which could not be denied and a forward pass attack which could not be checked, Ohio State, ably coached by Dr. John Wilce, a former Wisconsin player, won the undisputed Western Conference foot ball championship of 1920 by winning all its games.

On no less than three occasions the Buckeyes came from behind with their indomitable fighting spirit and snatched seeming defeats out of the fire. In these games the long forward pass, with quarter-back Workman hurling the ball far down the field, turned the tide of battle, although the defeated elevens had been coached carefully in a defense to check the aerial attack.

In addition to its uncanny forward pass offense, Ohio was well fortified in smashing plays on and off the tackles. The team also had mastered strong end running formations which resulted in Stinchcomb being sprung loose on several occasions. The combination of the close and open attack, combined with the rare foot ball knowledge of Stinchcomb, made Ohio a respected eleven from the start of the season.

While Ohio was the undisputed champion of the Big Ten institutions, the fact must not be overlooked that Notre Dame, an eleven developed by Knute Rockne, did not lose a game. The Hoosiers defeated some strong elevens, including the Army, Nebraska, Purdue, Indiana and Northwestern.

Notre Dame was a team of great offensive power. It used the shifted backfield attack, and in this shift the plays were timed perfectly. Feet of all shifted players were stationary when the ball was snapped, although many claimed the backs were in motion at the time.

In half-back George Gipp, Notre Dame boasted one of the shining lights of the Western gridiron. This player was the almost unanimous choice of critics for All-American elevens, and the honor was deserved. He could kick, run or pass, while his defensive play was in accord with his offensive work.

Wisconsin was runner-up in the Conference race. The Badgers suffered their only defeat at the hands of Ohio, but came right back and won from Minnesota, Illinois and Chicago. Wisconsin, however, was forced to extend itself in two of these struggles. Minnesota and Chicago were defeated by 3—0 scores, and Illinois vanquished, 14—9. Coach Richards' eleven was one of great power. The backs were of the strong, driving variety, the ends clever and fast, and the line strong enough to prevent consistent headway being made. In Davey, Wisconsin had a field goal kicker whose only rival was Ralph Fletcher of Illinois.

Illinois made a great effort to retain the title. Coach Zuppke, however, did not have the forward wall of former teams, with the result that his team was beaten twice, but won four other struggles. In Captain Depler, Crangle and Carney, Illinois was represented by three sterling performers, while Ralph Fletcher's reliable toe was feared by every opponent.

Michigan was represented by a much stronger team than in 1919. The Wolverines won two Conference games and lost the same number. Coach Yost's eleven lost its first Big Ten game to Illinois by the narrow margin of one point, while Ohio beat Michigan by a score of 14-7. Michigan won from its old rival, Chicago, 14-0, and was the victor over Minnesota, 3-0.

Chicago, although it lost four Conference games, was stronger than its record shows. In fact, the Maroons were a powerful defensive aggregation, as was shown by the narrow margin victories of Illinois and Wisconsin by 3-0 scores, and the defeat by Ohio, 7-6.

Iowa was represented by another team of the Howard Jones variety. After it defeated Indiana early in the season, the Hawkeyes submitted to a 20-3 defeat by Illinois, but after another setback by Chicago, 10-0, Jones' men came right back and won from Minnesota and Northwestern.

Indiana had its best team in years, and it was unfortunate it did not play any of the really strong elevens of the Conference. The Hoosiers lost to Iowa, but won from Purdue, Northwestern and Minnesota. Indiana concentrated on the Notre Dame game, which was lost, 14-10, and then was only able to defeat Purdue in the final clash, 10-7.

At Northwestern Coach McDevitt developed the eleven to a high point of efficiency, but the caliber of the men fell short of the ordinary run of Conference players. The Purple got away to a good start by winning from Minnesota in the opening clash, 17-0. It also won from Purdue, 14-0, but lost a hard-fought struggle to Indiana, 10-7. It also was beaten by Wisconsin and Iowa by scores of 27-7 and 20-0, respectively.

Purdue played and lost four Conference games. The Boilermakers did not match up with other elevens of the Conference and succumbed to expected defeats.

Dr. H. L. Williams, veteran coach at Minnesota, experienced the worst season in his long career at the Gopher institution, but in justice to Dr. Williams it must be said he did not have the material of former years.

The University of Oklahoma won the foot ball championship of the Valley organization in its first year as a member of the Conference. When Benny Owen, the veteran athletic director and coach at Oklahoma, withdrew from the Southwestern Conference and entered the Valley circles, there was some adverse criticism as to the wisdom of the move, but after the Kansas game at Norman last fall these critics were silenced.

It was home-coming day for the Sooners, and the greatest crowd that ever saw a foot ball game in Oklahoma assembled around Boyd Field. The crowd topped the 8,000 mark. It was a wonderful day, a wonderful crowd, and Oklahoma won a wonderfully contested game, coming from behind to take a 21—9 battle.

Missouri under Johnny Miller and Jimmy Phelan had a fine season, losing only to Oklahoma. The Tigers turned back the Iowa Aggies, the Drake Bulldogs, the Kansas Aggies, Washington University and, lastly, their time-honored enemy, the Kansas Jayhawkers. For more than twenty years the Missouri-Kansas Thanksgiving Day game has been the big game of the Valley in drawing power and general interest. At times other games have drawn bigger crowds than an average Missouri-Kansas game, but year in and year out the annual struggle between the Tigers and the Jayhawkers is the big battle of the Valley in every way.

Dr. F. C. Allen, widely known as a basket ball and foot ball official as well as a successful coach in Kansas and Missouri college circles, was drafted by his alma mater, Kansas, and managed to spare the time from his work as director of athletics to act as head coach of the foot ball team. He was assisted by Howard Laslett and Adrian Lindsey, former Kansas stars and members of the championship foot ball team of the A. E. F.

The Kansas material was not up to the Valley standard, but Coach Allen and his assistants instilled a fine spirit in the Lawrence school and the Jayhawkers, so that the Kansans dropped only two Valley games, one to Oklahoma, the other to Missouri.

The Kansas team rose to an unexpected ability in its annual game against Nebraska on McCook Field, the home of the Jayhawkers. When the first half of this memorable game ended, Nebraska led, 20—0. Kansas had been outclassed completely. There didn't seem to be a chance for Kansas. But when the final whistle blew, the score was 20—20 and Kansas had missed its chance for victory when the massive Sandefeur fizzled the goal kick after the final touchdown.

The Iowa Aggies had an unsuccessful season, although the Ames boys chalked up a 17—0 victory over the Kansas Aggies and gave Iowa a great battle at Ames in the final combat of the season. Coe College, a small Iowa institution, defeated Ames early in the season, and Missouri and Kansas also humbled the Iowans. Against Kansas, Ames played well; but on the first down of the game a Kansas half-back, Harley Little, broke away on an end run and dashed eighty-five yards to a touchdown and the Iowans never could overcome that first minute handicap.

The Kansas Aggies were a scrappy crowd, playing the Notre Dame style of foot ball as taught them by their new coach, Charles Bachman, former Notre Dame star and coach at Northwestern in 1919. The Manhattan eleven showed its top form against Oklahoma.

Drake, with powerful material, did not come up to the expectations of its followers or of Valley critics generally. The Des Moines team put both Kansas and Missouri to the supreme test, but could not quite muster the aggressiveness to go through a winner.

Grinnell, the newest Conference member until Oklahoma joined the organization, did not play a heavy Conference schedule. This team was under the direction of H. W. (Bud) Saunders, a Missouri quarter-back in the days when Roper and Hollenbach were coaching foot ball at Missouri. The Grinnell team showed the results of Saunders' work and another year should see the Grinnellians throwing fear into the Valley contenders.

Washington University turned out a good team, one that gave Missouri a hard battle but lacked the necessary offensive punch to put over a victory. George Rider succeeded Richard Rutherford, the old Nebraska star, as director and coach at Washington and was complimented for turning out so good a team with the material at hand. Rutherford resigned to take the directorship and coaching at the Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis.

Nebraska played only one Conference game, that with Kansas. The two schools had a two-year contract and the game was played under the terms of that arrangement.

The Nebraska eleven of 1921 also will make a trip East to meet the University of Pittsburgh eleven. Cornhusker material for 1920 is rated the best ever turned out at Lincoln, so the Nebraska team that travels East should be fully representative of the best the Valley turns out.

The All-Valley teams preceding this article were chosen as the result of the written selections of coaches, officials and foot ball critics. For years the Valley all-star teams have been selected by this method and have come to be looked on as semi-official.

The Southwestern Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship of 1920 was won by the University of Texas Longhorns in the annual Thanksgiving Day game with the Texas Aggies on Clark Field, Austin, Tex., by the score of 7—3. The game was played before 18,000 enthusiastic spectators.

The Longhorns, under the very able coaching of Berry Whitaker, assisted by C. E. Siddon, turned out a splendid machine, which won all of its games.

The University of Arkansas, under the leadership of George McLaren of Pittsburgh, turned out a good team. Only two Conference games were played, one with S.M.U., which resulted in a 6—0 score, and the other with Rice Institute, which resulted in a scoreless tie.

The Texas Aggies started the season with many of the members of the 1919 championship team in uniform. The team was again coached by D. X. Bible, who proved that he is one of the greatest defense coaches in the country. None of the opponents were able to cross the Aggie goal line until Texas performed the feat on Thanksgiving Day.

The Rice Institute, led by P. H. Arbuckle, lost to Texas University and Texas Aggies and played Tulane and Arkansas University scoreless ties. All other games were victories.

Baylor University of Waco was coached by Frank B. Bridges of Harvard, assisted by Jim Kendrick and Jim Crow of the Texas Aggies. The Bears showed flashes of form at times, but did not play consistently.

The Southern Methodist University of Dallas played wonderful foot ball against the Texas Aggies and against Texas University. J. Burton Rix, Dartmouth, coached the team.

Phillips University of Enid, Okla., a new member of the Association, did not win any of its Conference games, but tied Oklahoma Aggies. The team was coached by Johnny Maulbetsch, a former University of Michigan star and All-America half-back.

Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College of Stillwater had a disastrous season. The Aggies started the season with good material, but the team never did get together. The team was coached by J. E. Pixlee.

Henry Kendall College of Tulsa, Okla., now the University of Tulsa, a non-Conference team under the leadership of F. A. Schmidt, turned out another undefeated team, winning the Oklahoma Conference championship. The team had a high-power offense, making a total of 622 points. The team won in ten games and was held to a tie by Phillips University.

Foot Ball in the Rocky Mountains

BY CLEMENT F. CROWLEY, DENVER, COLO.

From every standpoint the 1920 foot ball season in the Rocky Mountain section was an unbounded success. Attendance at all games was far in excess of any previous year, teams were stronger than usual, and more experienced material was found on every eleven.

Two new coaches made their appearance in Colorado last fall. Fred Murphy, the former Yale half-back and Northwestern coach, handled the University of Denver eleven, and Myron C. Witham, former Dartmouth star and Purdue coach, took charge of University of Colorado. Witham was assisted by Joe Mills and developed an excellent eleven. He whipped his team into shape so that they tied the championship Colorado Aggies in one of the greatest games ever played in Boulder. Murphy ended a successful season for Denver by defeating Wyoming and the Mines and holding the Colorado Aggies to a score of 14 to 0 on Thanksgiving Day.

Coach Hughes led the Aggies to a championship, but his eleven displayed far better foot ball in the beginning of the season than they did toward its close. They were clearly outplayed by the University of Colorado in their annual contest and were lucky to get a tie score. The eleven, however, won the championship and demonstrated their ability to Missouri Valley foot ball fans by holding the University of Nebraska to a 6-0 score.

Coach Glaze of the Mines was unable to put the same eleven in the field for two successive games. He had particular misfortune in losing back field material, so that it was difficult for him to get any team play.

Coach Parsons of Colorado College felt the loss of his great stars of the 1919 eleven. The Tigers played good foot ball and showed a well-coached team at all times, but they did not have the weight or experience to cope with the Colorado Aggies in their annual struggle.

Coach Corbett of the University of Wyoming brought down the best eleven that has appeared since the days of Burgess. The team was heavy, fast and experienced. Lack of capable substitution was the only drawback.

Utah University was considered an in-and-out. Coach Fitzpatrick's eleven lacked steadiness. They won a notable victory in defeating the University of Colorado at Boulder, and in this game played at their best.

The Utah Aggies had lost some of their stars of a year previous, but nevertheless had a good team. They won the annual contest with the University of Utah at Salt Lake City, which is the most important game on their schedule. Coach Dick Romney deserves considerable praise for the work of his team. Montana Aggies did not play any games in Colorado during the season, but had a fair record in Montana.

The University of California foot ball team established a clear title to the gridiron championship of the Pacific Coast Conference for the 1920 season. California showed one of the greatest foot ball machines ever seen in action in the West, and established itself as a championship aggregation of real caliber by defeating the Ohio State University team, winner of the Big Ten Conference championship, in a post-season game at Pasadena, Cal., New Year's Day, 1921, by the decisive score of 28—0.

The Washington State College team figured as the runner-up to California in the championship race in the Pacific Coast Conference, with Stanford next in order. Oregon and the Oregon Aggies followed on practically an even footing, with the University of Washington as the tailender.

In addition to the intersectional battle between California and Ohio, two additional contests of particular significance were played by Pacific Coast Conference elevens against other Conference representatives. The Washington State College team went to Lincoln, Neb., and defeated the University of Nebraska team, 21—20, in a Thanksgiving Day game. Dartmouth came West to Seattle and defeated the weakest team in the Conference, the University of Washington, in a post-season battle, 28—7.

Coach Gus Welch's Washington State College team got away nicely and played excellent ball until the California game. The W.S.C. eleven went completely to pieces against the Bears and took a 49—0 defeat.

Stanford, under Coach Walter Powell, did not undertake a particularly heavy schedule, and played but three Conference games. Stanford defeated Oregon and Washington, but lost by a big score to California.

The Oregon Aggies furnished the keenest competition of the entire season for California's great team. Coach Rutherford's eleven held California to a 17—7 score, and until the closing minutes of the game played California to a 7—7 tie.

Oregon's team did not measure up to the Eugene eleven of the previous season. Coach Huntington was shy on veteran material and did well to get through the season as well as he did.

The Washington team was not a contender at any stage of the race. Coach Allison had trouble getting his team rounded into form and did not win a Pacific Coast Conference game.

Foot Ball in Central New York

BY DR. ELLERY C. HUNTINGTON,
Director of Athletics, Colgate University.

Perhaps more interest centered around Cornell foot ball during the past season than that of any other college in central New York. This was undoubtedly due to the curiosity as to what Gilmour Dobie would do with the wealth of material at his command. This question remains unanswered, and will till at least another season has gone by. No one can do the impossible, and it is not possible to start at the bottom and turn out a finished team in a single season. There is every indication from the work and upward progress during the season that Cornell will very soon regain its former prestige in the foot ball world.

Colgate was as far down the scale during the past season as Cornell. The slump here was due to graduating, the year after the war, the entire list of veterans. Colgate's advance upward will have to be slow also, as teams can not be made in a year, especially in a small college where material comes slowly.

The team at Syracuse University was easily the leader of this section. It had everything that a team could desire and it was a pleasure to see them work. To many of their friends the Holy Cross game was a great disappointment, but the Holy Cross team of 1920 was a good team.

The real intercollegiate interest centered around the games between Hamilton, Rochester, Union and St. Lawrence. All of these colleges turned out fine teams and verified the prophecy of a few years ago that they were all on the road to better days. St. Bonaventure too showed a marked advance, and only Hobart, Rensselaer Poly and Alfred remain a little slow in their development.

Collegiate Foot Ball in the Capitol District

BY JULIUS J. HELLER, ALBANY, N. Y.

The absence of veteran material greatly handicapped Union College and the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute on the gridiron last year. Changes in the coaching systems at both institutions necessitated a fresh start, and it was midseason before either team attained its real stride.

The Union College eleven lost five games and tied one before gaining its first victory, New York University losing to the up-state eleven. Hobart was the next victim which failed to withstand the vicious line attacks of the Garnet machine in a 20-7 game. The climax of a season full of thrills came in the annual clash with Hamilton, the Schenectady eleven winning by a score of 7-3.

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute of Troy won but two games, four being registered in the lost column. The Engineers hung up victories over Worcester and Hobart. The powerful Williams team defeated the Trojans in the opening game. Fumbles proved costly to the Engineers, especially in the big clash of the season with Stevens Tech at Hoboken, the latter scoring on a fumble and intercepted forward pass.

Foot Ball in Central Pennsylvania

By E. C. LUTZ, HARRISBURG.

ALL-CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA ELEVEN.

O'Connell (Lafayette) and Emanuel (Gettysburg), ends.
 Whistler (Lebanon Val.) and Williams (Lafayette), tackles.
 Schwab (Lafayette) and Fuhrman (Gettysburg), guards.
 Bihl (Bucknell), center.
 Mangan (Bucknell), quarter-back.
 Gazella (Lafayette) and Wilsbach (Bucknell), half-backs.
 Bowser (Bucknell), full-back.

With Lafayette and Bucknell leading the procession and Gettysburg coming in a close third, Central Pennsylvania colleges cut a prominent position for themselves in the 1920 foot ball field. Lafayette probably deserves credit for placing the better team on the gridiron, but its advantage was a very slight one, particularly where Bucknell was concerned.

For a school of its size, Bucknell was represented by an eleven that could be compared to that of any institution in the country with an enrollment of under 500. Reynolds, the Bucknell coach, started early in getting a line upon the men available, and among the new faces on the 1920 eleven were several regarded as being among the best in the state in their positions. Among these were Bowser and Wilsbach. Bowser had been a substitute the year before and Wilsbach was a freshman. Mangan and Bihl were veterans. Both of the latter gave good accounts of themselves, Mangan's work at quarter-back being a big factor in the success of the eleven.

Lafayette's banner feat of the season was its overwhelming defeat of the Lehigh eleven in the annual match. Outside of this game and the victory over Bucknell, Lafayette did not maintain a consistent degree of work during its schedule, its playing in several games being mediocre in comparison to that of the Lehigh tilt. Four positions on the all-star team were awarded to Lafayette men, and all are apparently deserving of this honor. Lafayette's defense was regarded as one of the best among the smaller college teams of the country and the line proved a big item of this defense. Captain Emanuel of the Gettysburg team wound up his college career in a blaze of glory. His work was an outshining feature of the Gettysburg play during the season. Another Gettysburg player deserving of mention is Derr, a clever lineman. Morrett, right guard of the Bucknell team, showed up well during the season. Others who figured prominently in the playing of their respective teams were Smith, Wertacnik and Pippa of Dickinson and Mellinger and Dechant, Franklin and Marshall. Smith, a freshman at Dickinson, made a 'varsity post without difficulty. He had played the same position on the championship Harrisburg Tech High School eleven of 1919. Wertacnik and Pippa both filled backfield positions to advantage. Mellinger and Dechant were in the F. and M. backfield.

Lebanon Valley started out well, but the team was disrupted about the middle of the season when nearly half the squad was suspended because of having taken part in a game without the permission of the college authorities.

UNION COLLEGE, SCHENECTADY, N. Y.

Foot Ball in Maryland

By M. J. THOMPSON.

The college schedules last year were better arranged and more of the state teams played each other than had been the case for a number of years back. This created a great amount of interest in going after state honors, a feature that should be looked to every year. That there was more interest in the game in 1920 than in former seasons was clearly demonstrated by the large crowds attending the contests on Johns Hopkins Field in Baltimore. The attendance at all games played was away beyond the hopes of the most optimistic. If foot ball is properly conducted in Maryland it will be well supported, but lack of detail work in former years kept the game in the background.

Coach Curley Byrd of the University of Maryland accomplished wonderful results with his squad. He had very little trouble in annexing the state title and also placed his institution very much to the front in the foot ball world by gaining a victory over Syracuse University.

Ray Van Orman, the new mentor at Johns Hopkins University, did very good work in his first year with the material on hand. He has inaugurated a system that will bear watching, and his ideas of the past season should be very much in evidence this fall.

Mount St. Mary's College also opened the season with a new coach, Charlie Dickerman, a former Princeton man. The Mountaineers did well, but unfortunately lost to Gettysburg and Johns Hopkins, two of the best games on the schedule. The Mount St. Mary's boys should be well fortified this year, as very few of the past season's team are lost through graduation.

Western Maryland, St. John's and Washington College were not up to the standard of previous years. This was mainly due to the large amount of green material at all three institutions, but the men worked hard in all games played and were improving as the season advanced. All three colleges are looking forward to good teams this year and have arranged their schedules accordingly.

All of the Maryland colleges had a few star men who stood out prominently on their respective teams, and their names were constantly mentioned in every game played. Not that their work in any way interfered with general team play, but they always managed to do something spectacular in every contest to make their names by-words on their own college campus. Many fast combinations could be gotten together from the men playing on the different state teams, but in looking over the work of the men for 1920 the following would make a well balanced All-Maryland selection:

Foot Ball in West Virginia

BY H. A. STANSBURY,

Athletic Director, West Virginia University.

The season of 1920 marked the resumption of meetings on the gridiron between West Virginia Wesleyan College and West Virginia University, and it can be said that this renewal of relations operated to bring about a greater interest in the sport in the Mountain State. Another hardly less important factor was the unusual strength of the team at Bethany College, which made a brilliant record and for the first time in several years was a real factor on the gridiron in the so-called "Tri-State" section.

These three elevens—West Virginia University, West Virginia Wesleyan College and Bethany College, in the order named—were the only college teams of major importance in the state. West Virginia won from Wesleyan, 14—0, and from Bethany, 21—0, giving the State University a clear claim to the state foot ball championship. Wesleyan tied Washington and Jefferson, 7—7, while Bethany was beaten by the latter, 28—0. Detroit was beaten by Bethany but won over Wesleyan, while Marietta won handily over Bethany and only after a great struggle with Wesleyan, so that the major portion of the evidence seems to indicate that Wesleyan outranked Bethany in a slight degree.

West Virginia University had a mediocre season aside from the success inside its own domain. Princeton, Yale, Pittsburgh and Washington and Jefferson won from the Mountaineers, and Wesleyan, Washington and Lee, Bethany and Rutgers were notable victims of the team's prowess. The University suffered heavily from graduation in June, 1920, but should have a powerful team this fall. Wesleyan never fully recovered from the defeat by West Virginia in the opening game, and aside from the tie with Washington and Jefferson was beaten in each of its important games. Coach Higgins, however, made a strong impression at Wesleyan and it is believed that the Methodists will show great improvement in another season. Bethany had a team of unusual strength. Its victory over Detroit as well as that over Carnegie Tech were exceptional achievements, and the new coach, H. N. Buland, is counted upon for great things in the future.

There was considerable activity among the secondary colleges and normal and prep schools during the season. Marshall College, Morris Harvey College, Broaduss Institute, Davis and Elkins College, Glenville Normal, the Keyser Prep School and other teams were conspicuous, and the West Virginia University freshman team, which competed with the majority of these schools, was an especially prominent eleven.

Foot Ball in Ohio

BY JOE WILLIAMS, CLEVELAND.

It was a great year for foot ball in the state of presidents and pennant winners. Ohio State University won the Western Conference title by dint of a forward pass attack of the highest possible proficiency. Those who witnessed the thrilling moments of the climax of the deciding game with Illinois at Urbana will never forget the spirited play of the Wilcemen.

The State Conference, too, was productive of much impressive foot ball. The caliber of play seemed as high as ever, and the quality of the players was equally fine. Again a deadlock resulted. Wooster and Wittenberg both finished the season with an unbroken string of victories. No post-season game was played, and discussion was started as to the advisability of scheduling a game between the two for the following fall. The fact of the matter is that the membership of the Conference has grown so unwieldy that nothing but a rare stroke of fortune will permit any one team to finish out the campaign with an undisputed claim to championship laurels.

A novelty touch was introduced into the campaign by a foot ball enthusiast who offered a motor car to the player adjudged the most valuable man in the Conference. The honor ultimately went to Snyder, quarterback of the Wooster team, the smallest player in the state and one of the lightest as to weight to ever make a Conference 'varsity eleven.

Cleveland had nothing to cheer about in the form of college foot ball teams. Case School of Applied Science and Western Reserve University, members of the Conference, experienced a very ordinary year and at no time was either able to make matters interesting for the contenders. St. Ignatius College had quite a formidable team and the manner in which the officials handled the sport there presages an improved future. Reserve, as usual, defeated Case in their annual Thanksgiving Day game, a safety in the first two minutes of play deciding the issue.

If the collegiate situation was drab, however, Cleveland scholastic activities bore all the lustre and glamour of a splendid success. Coach Willaman's East Tech squad was a wonder aggregation. It not only won the scholastic title by defeating the powerful West Tech aggregation, 7—0, but it handed a defeat to the noted Scott High School team of Toledo, 14—7.

Another Toledo team of high standing also bowed to a Cleveland invader, Lakewood, quad champions, winning, 22—3. However, East Tech was not destined to go through the year unbeaten. The Everett, Wash., team, claimants of the scholastic title of the country, brought the Cleveland champions out West to battle, and while Willaman's lads made a gallant effort they were forced to concede defeat to a better team.

And, lest we forget, Cleveland was treated to a dish of intersectional foot ball, a popular edible last season, by the way. Coach Scott brought the University of Alabama squad North and pitted them against Case, a team he had previously coached. Alabama literally played rings around the home town collegians, displaying a forward pass attack and defense that astonished the onlookers. The final score of 40—0 was legitimately earned. There was just about that much difference between the two.

Foot Ball in Georgia

By W. A. ALEXANDER, COACH GEORGIA TECH.

Foot ball reached its high-water mark in the state of Georgia during the season of 1920. All of the colleges were represented by excellent teams that played good sound foot ball. The most gratifying feature was the big improvement in the prep and high school teams. The attendance figures at all games were smashed, nearly twice as many persons viewing the contests as compared with the best records of former years.

The two big schools of the state, University of Georgia and Georgia Tech, had the best teams in their history and could be rated as the best in the entire South. Georgia Tech defeated such good teams as Vanderbilt, Centre College, Georgetown University and Auburn, and lost only one game, that to the University of Pittsburgh, by the close score of 10-3. The University of Georgia did not lose a game, defeating Auburn, Alabama, University of South Carolina and Clemson. The University of Virginia did manage to hold Georgia to a tie game, after the latter had played two hard games and at the close of three hard road trips.

Mercer University and Oglethorpe University put excellent teams in the field in spite of the handicap of small student bodies and limited experience at the game. Coach Elcock at Oglethorpe and Cody at Mercer are to be congratulated on their good work.

Gordon Institute at Barnesville won the undisputed title of northern Georgia and the Agricultural School at Douglas won the southern Georgia title, but these teams did not meet to settle state supremacy. Other good prep teams were Tech High School and Georgia Military Academy at Atlanta, Munroe A. and M., Dublin High School and Riverside Military Academy at Gainesville.

The whole state is proud of W. E. Fincher, left tackle of the Georgia Tech eleven, who was placed on the All-America team by Walter Camp. Other prominent players who received favorable mention by the experts were Flowers, Barron, Harlan and John Staton of Georgia Tech; Pew, Reynolds and Day of the University, and Knox of Oglethorpe.

Georgia will follow the fortunes of her foot ball sons with particular interest in 1921, as her schools are engaged in three big intersectional contests. Tech takes on Notre Dame in Atlanta and Penn State in New York, while the University hits the trail to Cambridge to try her fortunes with Fair Harvard. These games will be of particular interest, due to the fact that with one exception the players on both Georgia teams are all native born Georgians.

Foot Ball in Tennessee

BY JOHN R. BENDER,

Physical Director University of Tennessee.

All States are beginning to realize the importance of confining their foot ball games within their own borders. This applies to the colleges as well as to normal and prep schools. The games within the State have all the frills and thrills necessary to provide opportunity for the fans to vent their ardor, and supply local interest that many schools from without cannot furnish. Tennessee is especially well situated in this respect, as she has four large schools that are members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association, all of which, with the exception of Chattanooga, play each other and thus settle State supremacy in a definite manner. In fact, winning the State title has overshadowed winning the Southern title, which, after all, covers so much territory that it is almost impossible to decide on a real leader.

Vanderbilt University won the State title last year by defeating both Tennessee and Sewanee in hard fought games. Tennessee defeated Sewanee, thus securing second place, and Sewanee won from Chattanooga University. The "Fighting Volunteers" from Tennessee beat Sewanee, 20—0, and Vanderbilt defeated Sewanee, 20—3; but the defeat of the "Fighting Volunteers" by Vanderbilt settled the issue, giving the latter a clear title.

It has been deemed wise, as a matter of working up State spirit and enthusiasm, to pick an All-State team from the four S.I.A.A. colleges. This assures many good men places on a representative mythical-all team who otherwise might be overlooked when making a selection covering so much territory as does the Southern Conference.

Hendricks (Vanderbilt) and Robison (Tennessee), guards.
Bradford (Tennessee), center.
Campbell (Tennessee), quarter-back.
Coughlan (Sewanee) and Berryhill (Vanderbilt), half-backs.
Blair (Tennessee), full-back.

The smaller colleges in the state all had representative teams and put up a good brand of foot ball. All appeared to be well coached and showed a variety of attack, both in the running and passing game, that kept the spectators on their feet constantly. Maryville College, Carson-Newman, Tusculum and Milligan College all had good teams, with Maryville leading.

Among the normal schools, Middle Tennessee Normal at Murfreesboro had one of the best teams in years and defeated the strong Maryville College team by a big score in their first game. Smith and Overall were the stars for Normal and were responsible for the fine showing of their team.

Johnson City Normal and Memphis Normal both had good teams, although not quite in the class with Middle Tennessee Normal.

Foot Ball in Alabama

By CHARLES A. BERNIER, ATHLETIC DIRECTOR UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA.

Alabama is one state that is making fast strides in foot ball. The great machines of the University of Alabama and Auburn in recent years have caused a big flurry in the North as well as in the South. From these two hotbeds of the gridiron sport go out men who are developing a keener interest in the high schools of Alabama. The University has been slow to send its men in the coaching work, but is now encouraging a steady "Crimson Line" to go out and preach the gospel of America's greatest college game.

The University of Alabama played eleven games, winning ten and losing one to Georgia. In this defeat Georgia scored 21 points from the recovery of fumbles and blocked kicks. Alabama tore through the Georgia line for two touchdowns, which was the first and only time during the season that Georgia's line had been crossed. Following the Georgia game Alabama crushed Mississippi A. and M. in Birmingham, 27-6. Two days following this the Crimson downed Case in Cleveland by the one-sided score of 40-0. Eyes of Cleveland were focused on Stephenson, Alabama's versatile athlete. Much credit is due Xen Scott for the great machine.

Auburn had a good season and at times loomed up as the possible S.I.A.A. champion. Georgia surprised the South when it spoiled Donahue's chance of a championship by flooring the giants from the plains to the tune of 7-0. Coming back with an awful sting, Auburn hit the Generals of Washington and Lee for the worst defeat ever given a team from the Lexington institution. Shirling and the rest of the Auburn cast wallowed through Raftery's eleven until they had piled up the enormous score of 77 points. The comeback of the Plainsmen indicated a hard fight for Tech in Atlanta, but the Golden Tornado wrecked the machine that early in the season looked so formidable. The fast Tech backs made the big linemen of Auburn look slow.

A tilt that drew a big crowd in Birmingham was the Birmingham Southern-Howard affair, the former winning after a hard struggle. The rivalry of these two teams is intense and a rattling good game is in store whenever these elevens meet. The teams are well coached and give their big rivals a hard scrap early in the season. Birmingham Southern had in Lewis and Propst two men who would stand out on any gridiron. Both are splendid foot ball players and deserve much credit. Howard College tackled a schedule which was too hard and it nearly disrupted the team. Coach Marshall made a great showing with the material at hand. Spring Hill College of Mobile had some outstanding stars and at times displayed an attack that was hard to stop. Coached by R. J. Ducote of Auburn fame, Spring Hill came through to a successful season.

Marion and Southern Military Academy, although preparatory schools academically, are as strong as the average small college in athletics. Both had big, powerful lines. The battle between the two was a classic and was won by Marion after a hard struggle.

Collegiate Notes

Alabama Polytechnic Institute Auburn—Notwithstanding the defeat of Auburn by the University of Georgia and Georgia Tech the season was regarded as successful. Victories over Vanderbilt and Washington and Lee were pleasing. Shirling, Caton, Shirey and Ollinger played well for Auburn.

Albright College, Myerstown, Pa.—Best season that Albright had in a long period. For the first time in three seasons Gettysburg was scored against on the Gettysburg gridiron. Every man of the eleven played with credit. The season of 1921 promises greatest success.

Alfred (N. Y.) University—The most important games were those with Hamilton and the University of Buffalo. Team-work in general was exceptionally good. Witter, E. Campbell, R. Campbell and Ahern were fine backs. Swanson, Jumph, Ferry, Childs and Stryker played well.

Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa.—The game with Colgate was the best. That with Dickinson was the important home game, Dickinson scoring the only touchdown by a visiting eleven on the home field during the year. Plumb and A. F. Miller were outstanding stars.

Amherst (Mass.) College—With a very successful season the most important result was the victory over Williams College. Captain Card, leading player, was ably assisted by Brisk and Wing.

Bates College, Lewiston, Me.—The team made a creditable showing, considering the weight and limited experience of players. Bowdoin, undefeated in the state series, was held to a scoreless tie. Wiggin, Kelley, Davis, Stonier, Scott and Guiney did well.

Bethany (W. Va.) College—Bethany inaugurated its new athletic system with a successful season. The first three games were lost before Coach Buland began to get results, and the team won four of the remaining six contests. Victories over the University of Detroit and Carnegie Tech featured the season's work. The last two contests were lost, the first to West Virginia and the second to Georgetown. The latter was a post-season game played at Washington, December 4. The playing of Kelly, Captain Hughes, Latto and Captain-elect Dunn was exceptionally good.

Birmingham (Ala.) Southern College—Excellent foot ball was played throughout the season. In three of the periods in the game with Auburn the latter was held to two touchdowns. Lewis, captain, was a clever punter. Propst was given much praise for his work at center.

Boston (Mass.) College—Boston College won every game that it played, which was a fine distinction, as it was the only Eastern college to do so. For the second year in succession it defeated Yale. It was commended generally for its fine team work. Urban, captain, and Heaphy were given much praise for the excellence of their defense throughout the season. Boston's strength was in its quickness to take advantage of an opening for a score.

Boston (Mass.) University—Very successful season from our point of view. Williamson, Jacobs, O'Hare, King, Crowley and Wheeler did commendably.

Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me.—Team was light and inexperienced. Dudgeon, Turner, Morrell and Gibbons were named on the All-Maine.

Brown University, Providence, R. I.—The presence of veterans helped to give Brown a good start, but as the season advanced and the opponents became stronger, Brown was not quite so successful. The contests with Yale, Harvard and Dartmouth were specially interesting and hard fought. Oden, Albright, Williams, Shurtleff, Armstrong, Gulian and Johnston played admirably.

Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa.—Early expectations of success were fully realized. The team scored 244 points to 37. Both totals were records for the University. Bowser was the outstanding player. His individual score was 111 points. He was suggested for the All-Pennsylvania and also for the All-Eastern. Bihl, McDermott, Julian and Wilsbach were recognized as players above the ordinary.

Canisius College, Buffalo, N. Y.—Team gained strength steadily and was in its best form in midseason. The defeat over St. Lawrence was the first in three years. The season closed with a scoreless tie with Niagara.

Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pa.—In the early part of the season Carnegie was handicapped by inexperienced players, but the play improved and the good work of the men culminated in the defeat of Washington and Jefferson by the score of 6 to 0. Wiernan was a splendid runner with the ball. Twice he carried it 70 yards or more from scrimmage for a touchdown. McClean was expert in recovering blocked kicks, two of which netted him a touchdown. Pittman and Robertson were good ground gainers and Irwin was a fine center.

Catholic University, Washington, D. C.—In-and-out foot ball was played, but the fine showing in the game against University of Maryland and the defeat of George Washington overshadowed all other events. Lynch, Denault, Dunn, Corwin and Currin deserve mention.

Centre College, Danville, Ky.—The defeat by Harvard in the stadium and the loss to Georgia Tech were the only setbacks sustained by Centre in four years. McMillin's play at quarter-back was inspiring to the team and highly commended by the critics. As a tribute to his fine work for his alma mater, he was chosen to be crowned king of the Centre College athletic carnival, held early in June. Whitnell played a splendid half, running forward passes with great speed. He is almost a "10 3-5 man" in foot ball wear. James and Robb were strong on defense and aggressive in attack. Weaver kicked ninety successive goals from touchdown. McMillin's record at forward passing was especially fine. He completed 119 out of 170 attempts.

Citadel (The), Charleston, S. C.—A none too good start affected the work of the team throughout the season. Captain Heinsohn, Gramling, Jarvis and Frost were prominent players.

Clarkson College, Potsdam, N. Y.—With a weak scoring team Clarkson was able to win but one game and that was from St. Michael's.

Colby College, Waterville, Me.—The team was wholly untried and after two victories failed to win again, although it tied with New Hampshire State. A fine start was made for 1921. Only two players will be lost by graduation. Captain Pulsifer and Esholm were unanimous All-Maine choices.

Colgate University, Hamilton, N. Y.—Colgate had the poorest season in years, but the team played brilliantly against Syracuse. The latter was never inside Colgate's 25-yard line except on the two touchdowns, when long runs featured. Webster's broken field running featured every game in which he participated and he was highly commended as one of the best running backs of the year. Wooster, Mason, Traynor, Drowne and Welsh were leading men.

Columbia University, New York—In the first year of Columbia's new athletic policy the eleven did not forge into the front row of American foot ball, but it was accounted a successful season, as an even break was had against teams which were stronger than had been met since Columbia emerged from the foot ball ban. Victories over New York University and Williams were outstanding features. Harris, Canapary, Moszczanski, Thornton, Appelbaum, Johnstone and Eccles were leading players.

Connecticut State College, Storrs—Quality of foot ball was varied. Against the stronger elevens Connecticut did not make much headway. The season finished with a scoreless tie with Rhode Island State.

Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.—In the early season games Cornell met with success defeating both Colgate and Rutgers, and Columbia was beaten later in the season. The Dartmouth and Penn games, however, both resulted in defeats for the Ithacans. Mayer and Dodge played most consistently for Cornell.

Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H.—Toward the close of the season Dartmouth had developed an excellent overhead game, both offensive and defensive, a branch in which it has been somewhat weak. The team followed up a very good year in the East by crossing the continent to play Washington University at Seattle. Dartmouth won the game after an enthusiastic reception by the Westerners. Captain Robertson, Sonnenberg, Jordan, Cunningham, Burke and Shelburne were players who shone by work in the games in which they took part.

Davidson (N. C.) College—The best games were those with Washington and Lee, South Carolina University, North Carolina University and Wake Forest. Captain Hammett was mentioned for All-State and All-Southern. Douglas was named for All-State. Brady, Douglas and Cassell were players of prominence. Four of the team were named for the second All-State.

Davis and Elkins College, Elkins, W. Va.—Best team since 1917. Marshall, Phares, Newcome and Landin were players who deserve commendation.

Delaware College, Newark, Del.—After a fair start the team slumped. A good finish was made by a scoreless tie with Pennsylvania Military College. Principal players were Captain McCaughan, Holton, McDonald and Elliott.

WEAVER COLLEGE, WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.—Fine plays were made by Templin, Pipa, Captain Wertacnik, Riordan and Blumenthal. The season had its share of successes.

Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, Pa.—Lack of material was a handicap and the team did not win a game. The spirit of the players was admirable. All the 1920 squad will return and a better season is predicted for 1921.

Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, Pa.—First season of foot ball after a respite of six years was successful. Better results are promised for 1921 with practically all the players back. The eleven broke even on the year in defeats and victories. Captain Shortley, Verblunas, Klinking and McNamara were star players.

Elon College, Elon College, S. C.—Forth the most part a season of development. The material was practically green. Games with Wake Forest, Guilford and Trinity were hard fought. The individual work of Brown, Smith, Captain Johnson and Newman was high class.

Emory and Henry College, Emory, Va.—Team was considered by its closest followers to have done remarkably well. Weaver, Dickinson and Caldwell played capitally. Two letter men are all that are lost and better work is expected in 1921.

Erskine College, Due West, S. C.—Improvement for the better marked the play. The team worked hard and faithfully. Phillips, star full-back, made many gains. Young and Agnew played well.

Fordham University, New York—Principal games of the year were those with Boston College, Georgetown and the University of Detroit. Boston College and University of Detroit were the only elevens during the year whose goal lines were not crossed.

Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa.—Consistent team-work and keen rivalry on the part of the members of the squad to make the eleven characterized the foot ball year. Captain Truxal, Weaver, Heller and Kurtz were dependable players. The important games were with Swarthmore and Pennsylvania Military College, both resulting in scoreless ties.

Furman University, Greenville, S. C.—A fast team and probably the youngest varsity and lightest in the South. In the Clemson-Furman game Furman ran 90 plays from scrimmage and Clemson 70, an extraordinary exhibition of speed.

Gallaudet College, Washington D. C.—With a team which was lighter than usual the attack of the deaf boys was up to their average. They were stronger than customarily in defense. Captain Bouchard was a consistent ground gainer.

Geneva College, Beaver Falls, Pa.—One of the most successful seasons that Geneva ever enjoyed, with a team of good defense. Except in the W. and J. and Pittsburgh games opponents had the ball within Geneva's 40 yard line but four times during the season. Patterson, Captain Loedler, Schachern and Tippin were stars. All were given mention for the All-Western Pennsylvania.

Georgetown University, Washington, D. C.—Georgetown made a brilliant start with five victories in succession, but against Georgia Tech and Boston College the eleven was not so successful, although it played well. Lack of capable substitutes was the most noticeable drawback.

George Washington University, Washington, D. C.—With green material foot ball began after a lapse of four years. Nearly all the players were freshmen. Prospects for 1921 are bright as fifteen letter men return to college.

Georgia School of Technology, Atlanta, Ga.—Georgia Tech played with the same excellent results which had been achieved in the last few years. Pittsburgh was the only team to defeat the Georgians. The team was commended highly for its smoothness in work. Barron, Flowers, Fincher and Staton were players whose performances were so good that they earned commendation from foot ball critics everywhere.

Gettysburg (Pa.) College—One of Gettysburg's best seasons. Forward passing was a feature of the team's play. End runs were well executed.

Grove City (Pa.) College—Most important game was against Westminster, which was won. Jones played well for the team.

Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y.—With a winning start in which the first three games fell to Hamilton, the season ended with successive defeats, although the team scored in all games of the last four, except that against Rochester.

Hampden-Sidney (Va.) College—Although beginning badly the team braced splendidly and made good progress. Green players were developed into a fast eleven. The final struggle against William and Mary was a well-earned victory. Captain Adams, Sands, Brittain, Brennaman, Day and Smith were outstanding players. Ben Smith did everything well.

WESTMINSTER COLLEGE, NEW WILMINGTON, PA.

Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.—Harvard was not defeated during the season, although scored on by two opponents. As was the case in 1919, a tie score was the result of the Princeton game, the teams battling to a 14-14 draw. Centre was the other team to score upon the Crimson. The Yale game was won by three field goals. Thorough work by the line and steadiness in the backfield were features of the work of the team.

Haverford (Pa.) College—Haverford struggled every inch of the way in the principal game against Swarthmore. Brown, Caskey and Sangrez starred.

Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y.—Beginning well the team slumped but followed with a victory over University of Buffalo. Rochester was played to a 14-14 tie, the significant part of which was that Hobart made 33 downs in the game to seven for Rochester. Leading players were Loughry, Hogan, Gasper, Moran and Vogt.

Holy Cross College, Worcester, Mass.—Best game of midseason was that with Syracuse, won 3 to 0 by Smith's 40-yard drop-kick. Big game of the year was with Boston College, ending in defeat for Holy Cross, 14-0. Players who did well were Captain Conway, Gagnon, Simondinger, Gildea and Flynn.

Indiana University, Bloomington, Ind.—Indiana won three out of four of its Big Ten Conference games. One of the hardest played contests of the year was that against Notre Dame. Indiana led for three periods, but lost the game in the final quarter. Risley was efficient in kicking field goals.

Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md.—Too many hard games early in the year made it difficult to get a winning start. The team was much better toward the close of the season. Wood, Jones, Landy and Totterdale were mentioned for the All-Maryland. Cashell was a star player.

Juniata College, Huntingdon, Pa.—It was Juniata's first year in foot ball, with a light team which had little opportunity for practice before the season began. Donelson, Engle, Wolfgang and Snyder did well.

Lafayette College, Easton, Pa.—Lafayette College played an unusually hard schedule, losing to Navy and Pennsylvania by fumbling in the backfield after distinctly outplaying both opponents. The same defect marred the team's play against Pittsburgh, but to a lesser extent. The most important victories were over Bucknell and Lehigh, both on the home field. Budd, Brown, Schwab and Deibel in the line, and Lebecka, Seasholtz and Gazella back of the line, constituted the backbone of the eleven.

Lebanon Valley College, Annville, Pa.—High scores were made against the college because of a hard schedule. Only one game was lost to teams within their class.

Lehigh University, South Bethlehem, Pa.—Back field was light and fast. The line was almost invincible under its own goal posts. Players who received their "L" were Larkin, Cusick, Maginnes, Goldman, Springsteen, McCarthy, Good, Gulick, Douglas, Henzelman, Rote, Herrington, Frain, Wilson and Saveria. Maginnes kicked goal after each of the 24 touchdowns.

Massachusetts Agricultural College, Amherst, Mass.—Season was successful. Five victories, one tie, and two defeats was the record. King, Grayson, Lent and Poole were players of capital achievement. Poole kicked 17 consecutive goals from touchdown. His individual point scoring totaled 65.

Middlebury (Vt.) College—Most notable achievements of the team were the scoreless games against Springfield and Stevens. Ashley, Brigham, Moynihan, Gollnick, Leonard and Quackenbush were conspicuous in play.

Morris Harvey College, Barboursville, W. Va.—Morris Harvey was very successful against the secondary colleges in its vicinity, but was outclassed by Centre College and West Virginia Wesleyan. On the whole, the team lived up to the expectations of its supporters.

Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, Md.—Although Gettysburg did win from Mt. St. Mary's the season was considered to be successful. Coach Dickerman brought out a well balanced combination. Captain Chapman was mentioned for the All-Maryland.

Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pa.—With a good beginning, team-work fell off. Captain Feldman, Anderson, Freitag and Wills were stars.

New Hampshire State College, Durham—Despite the loss of two games the season was regarded as one of the college's most successful. Players of skill were Connors, Butler, Harvell, Gadbois, Graham and Bell.

New York University, New York City—Starting with bright prospects the team seemed unable to find itself. Fumbles were the direct cause of four of the five defeats. Captain Weinheimer, Ferguson and Horrigan were best in attack and defense.

WILLIAMS COLLEGE, WILLIAMSTOWN, MASS.

Niagara University, Niagara Falls, N. Y.—Beginning with a defeat the university finished the season with a tie game with Canisius.

North Carolina State, West Raleigh—Team was considered to be the best turned out since 1913 and compared favorably with other fine Red and White elevens of the past. Important games were the defeat of the Navy and of North Carolina University. The latter was the first victory for North Carolina State in the history of the Institutions. Virginia Poly was defeated for the second time in succession. Players of the stronger type were Captain Weathers, Ripple, Floyd, Kirkpatrick, Faucette, Johnson and Gurley.

Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.—The season was a severe tax upon Northwestern, as the eleven was scheduled to meet some of the strongest of the Western teams. It began well with the defeat of Knox and Minnesota and then met reverses until it played Purdue, from which it won. Players who were always at the top of their game and did well were Penfield, captain; Lane, who punted capitably; Palmer, Grausnick, Paterson, Carney, Ewing, Turner and Szold.

Norwich University, Northfield, Vt.—Following the defeat by Dartmouth in the first game Norwich developed excellently, winning four of the six remaining contests. Prominent players were Hyland, Maher and Smith.

Oglethorpe University, Oglethorpe University, Ga.—Most important game of the season was that with the University of the South. Captain Knox was a star player and an excellent runner, making brilliant plays in nearly every game. Varnadoe and Nicholes deserve special mention.

Ohio State University, Columbus—Ohio State finished at the top of the Western Conference by winning all its Conference games. The players journeyed to California on invitation of the Tournament of Roses Committee to play the University of California at Pasadena on New Year's Day, and were defeated, 28 to 0. Stinchcomb, H. Workman, Huffman, captain, and Myers, were players whose skill commanded national recognition.

Pennsylvania Military College, Chester, Pa.—Good foot ball was played in a successful season which ended with a scoreless tie with Delaware.

Pennsylvania State College, State College, Pa.—Penn State was undefeated in 1920, but played in two tie games. Dartmouth was beaten in an early season contest and victories were recorded over Pennsylvania and the University of Nebraska. The annual fixture with the University of Pittsburgh on Thanksgiving Day was a scoreless tie. State was at its best against Dartmouth and Nebraska. Griffiths and Peck were splendid linemen and Way and Haines were two of the best half-backs of the season.

Phillips Andover Academy, Andover, Mass.—Phillips Andover defeated Exeter in the most important game to Andover and by that victory considered the season a success. Captain Wingate starred in all games. Ellis, a leading player, was unable to play in the final contest.

Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H.—A fairly successful season, featured by a 7-6 victory over Worcester Academy. Annual contest with Andover was lost, 6-3. Captain Barry, Lovejoy, Noring, Bench and McGlone were leading players.

Presbyterian College, Clinton, S. C.—Excellent team-work and fighting spirit were manifest in a light team which tackled well. For All-State, McMillan, Eichelberger, Durant and Kirven were mentioned. Only in the Clemson and University of South Carolina games were the Presbyterians seriously threatened.

Princeton (N. J.) University—Princeton was not defeated during the season, but was unable to win from Harvard, the contest resulting in a tie as had been the case in 1919. The Tigers were accorded first place among Eastern teams by most critics. Lonrie, Keck, Callahan, captain, Garrity, Gilroy, Scherrer and Legendre were prominent in play.

Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind.—With a light team which had to be taught the fundamentals, Purdue failed to show much strength, although improvement was noticeable as the season progressed.

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y.—Most of the season was unsuccessful so far as winning from opponents was concerned. The last three games were the best played, the final contest being gained from Hobart College.

Rhode Island State, Kingston, R. I.—Beginning with defeats by Brown and Wesleyan there was improvement in play which made every game a comparatively close one to the finish. A feature of the season was that three times Rhode Island played a 7-7 tie with an opponent. The first was with Maine, then with Union and the third with the Massachusetts Aggies. The final game was a scoreless tie with Connecticut State.

Roanoke College, Salem, Va.—Varied foot ball throughout the year. Losing the first game to Virginia Military Institute by a large score the team played with partial success until the last two games, which were tied, 7-7 each, with Emory and Henry and Lynchburg.

Rollins College, Winter Park, Fla.—For the first time since the war Rollins played foot ball. The team was composed of inexperienced men. The season was considered good preparation for 1921, which promises well. Boyle was a star.

Rutgers College, New Brunswick, N. J.—Rutgers found it difficult to maintain the standard of play achieved in preceding years and the team had an unsatisfactory season.

St. Bonaventure College, Allegany, N. Y.—As all games were played away from home the eleven might be called a "road team." Captain Kelly and Morris were conspicuous players.

St. John's College, Annapolis, Md.—Team was unable at any time to present its real strength, although in the game against Pennsylvania Military College the eleven did well.

St. Lawrence University, Canton, N. Y.—Excellent season throughout. Two defeats were sustained, the first from Vermont and the second from Canisius. Sheard ranked high as a broken field runner and passer. Commendation was given to Captain Tillinghast, Atwood and Roode.

Springfield (Mass.) College—The team did not acquire its best speed until two-thirds of the schedule had been played. A change in the backfield, after much experiment, proved to be beneficial and the eleven played better from that time. The final game of the year, which resulted in a victory over the University of Detroit, amply rewarded coaches and players for their good work. Civiletti was a splendid exponent of the forward pass and Adam, at tackle, did well. Watters was a strong end and played in every game of the season.

Spring Hill (Ala.) College.—The season at Spring Hill terminated with the Mississippi College game, which was one of the best of the year in the South. Spring Hill won, 21 to 20. Winling, captain; Walet, Tuminello, and Murray were the leading players for Spring Hill, and Moulton was the best punter and goal kicker.

Stevens Tech, Hoboken, N. J.—Third consecutive season without a defeat, Swarthmore being vanquished among others. Good fighting spirit which was conspicuous several times inside the five-yard line and prevented touchdowns by rivals. Passing was improved toward the end of the season. Players who excelled were Goodale, Busch and Egger.

Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, Pa.—A start was made with a new coach and few letter players. As the season progressed the squad rounded into a smoothly working machine. High points of the year were a scoreless tie with Colgate and victory over the Pennsylvania Military College. Sweetley scored 47 points individually and was a good all-around worker. Captain Baker and Sweeney were players of force.

Swarthmore (Pa.) College—Events of great interest to Swarthmore were the defeat of Columbia and the fact that Swarthmore was the first eleven to score against Princeton. Players of much value were Captain Larkin, White, Yarnall, Cornell and Asplundh. The last named was one of the great punters of the year.

Syracuse (N. Y.) University—The season was one of great interest and unexpected defeats. The team did not play consistently to form. After scoring three overwhelming victories, Syracuse played Pittsburgh to a 7-7 tie and followed this game with a fine victory over Dartmouth. The unexpected came when Holy Cross defeated Syracuse in a closely contested game, 3 to 0, and the defeat by Maryland.

Talladega (Ala.) College—Excellent coached by J. B. Bragg, it was the sentiment of the students that no better eleven had been prepared to defend the Crimson and Blue. The victory over Tuskegee on Thanksgiving Day was most gratifying to Talladega. Players on the eleven who were foremost in making it successful were Cox, Gordon, Rivers, Edwards, Coles, Childs and White. The team was particularly successful with the forward pass.

Thiel College, Greenville, Pa.—Fairly successful season, the team playing better foot ball as the schedule progressed. The first game with Allegheny was a scoreless tie, and a 6-6 tie was played with Westminster, while Alfred was defeated 6-0.

Trinity College, Durham, N. C.—Of the five games scheduled for the season, Trinity lost four and played a scoreless tie with Wofford to finish the year.

Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.—Eight games were played, of which Trinity won the first from Connecticut State. Good foot ball by a light eleven characterized the general work. The team made high score against New York University, but lost the game.

Tufts College, Medford, Mass.—With an eleven which averaged 165 pounds per player, Tufts was outweighed in its games. A newly adopted freshman rule made it imperative to use inexperienced men. Most of the players will return in 1921 and a better season is anticipated. Macchia made all scores for the team. Russo was the best defensive player.

Tulane University, New Orleans, La.—Tulane was not scored upon by any Southern team. The eleven lost to Michigan at Ann Arbor and Detroit was fortunate to score in first four minutes of play. Payne, Brown and Wight, captain, were best players. Tulane also played the University of Florida at Tampa, thus making two long trips of all-around profit.

Union College, Schenectady, N. Y.—Facing superior teams early in the schedule the start was poor. The eleven came through at the finish, winning the last three games, which included that with Hamilton, Union's old rival.

United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y.—The Army eleven was made up of players younger than the average of former years. The team showed flashes of great strength throughout the season, especially against the Navy. The team remains intact for 1921, as not one of its members graduated. Players who were conspicuously good for the Army were Wilhide, captain; French, Greene, captain-elect; Breidster and Davidson. French scored 93 points in the seven games in which he played.

United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.—On the whole, the Navy season was one of success, and its finish was one of rejoicing when the Army was defeated in a hard fought battle on the Polo Grounds, New York. Princeton won from the Navy, but the eleven gave the Tigers a stiff fight before they yielded. Ewen, captain of the team, was also captain in 1919, and enjoyed the unusual honor of leading two Navy teams that defeated the Army in successive years.

University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa—Alabama had the strongest team in its history. Only one game was lost, and that to the University of Georgia. A fumble by Lenoir of Alabama and a block of a kick by Stephenson gave Georgia two of its touchdowns in the first three minutes of play. Clements ran 86 yards against Georgia for a touchdown after catching a forward pass. Lenoir scored 24 touchdowns during the season. Stephenson was unanimously named for All-Southern full-back.

University of Buffalo, Buffalo, N. Y.—After four successive defeats Buffalo won from Canisius in the fifth and final game of the year, 12-0.

University of California, Berkeley—A powerful high scoring machine was developed which ran up 512 points against opponents' 14. The season ended with victories over Washington State and Stanford, followed by the defeat of Ohio State in the post-season invitation game which was played at the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena. Players who excelled in their positions were McMillan, Muller, Erb, Sprott and Morrison. California won the Pacific Coast Conference championship.

University of Chattanooga, Chattanooga, Tenn.—The team of 1920 was very light, the players averaging but 146 pounds when the heaviest combination was on the field. The eleven made a fine reputation for its aggressiveness against heavier teams.

University of Chicago—The feature of Chicago's season was its fine defensive work, which prevented both Wisconsin and Illinois from crossing its goal line. Wisconsin won in the last three minutes of play by a field goal kick. Jackson, captain, Hartong and McGuire were the bulwarks in this defensive strength.

University of Detroit, Detroit, Mich.—Detroit had a fine season. Only two defeats were scored against the eleven. The first was received at Springfield Y. M. C. A. College in a close contest, while Bethany, W. Va., won the last game of the season by the score of 9 to 6. Voss, Ellis and McCormick played best for Detroit and mention was freely made of their good work by the foot ball critics.

University of Florida, Gainesville—Many new men were members of the foot ball squad for 1920, and considering that fact the eleven did well. The team was victorious up to the time that it played Tulane, losing to the New Orleans eleven by 14 to 0. The University of Georgia proved too powerful. Players who excelled in their positions were Perry, Baker, Merrin and Hoyt.

University of Georgia, Athens—With the exception of the game with the University of Virginia, which resulted in a scoreless tie, Georgia won against all opponents. Georgia was very strong on defense, only two touchdowns and one field goal being scored against the eleven during the season. Captain Day, Pew and Captain-elect Reynolds excelled on defense and Cheves, Collings, Hartly and Pitts were backs of skill and speed. Wheelchel made the fine record of blocking six punts during the season.

University of Illinois, Urbana—The offensive work of Illinois was featured by the terrific plunging of Crangle and the good kicking of Ralph Fletcher, while Carney and Walquist were adept with the forward pass. On defense Crangle was everywhere back of the line and his hard tackles brought many opposing backs down for big losses. The game with Ohio State will always be regarded as one of the great contests in which Illinois took part.

University of Iowa, Iowa City—Iowa began the season well by defeating the strong Indiana eleven at Bloomington. The only team which clearly outclassed Iowa was that of Illinois, although the game was much closer than the score would indicate. Chicago won from Iowa in a game that was lost by fumbling. Devine, quarter-back, excelled in his position and Iowa considers him to be one of the finest players ever developed at the University.

University of Maine, Orono—It was necessary to build practically a new team, as few of the veterans of 1919 reported. Hussey, at guard, was an inspiration to the eleven; Foster and Small ran well, and Smith and Ginsberg also deserve commendation.

University of Maryland, College Park—After early defeats by Rutgers and Princeton the team came on finely and did not lose another game. Its victory over Syracuse was the season's feature. Johns Hopkins scored the first touchdown against Maryland since 1911 in the Thanksgiving Day game. Leading players were Brewer, Mockert, Clarke, Nishet and Moore.

University of Michigan, Ann Arbor—The season was considered successful at Ann Arbor, even though the eleven lost to Illinois and Ohio State. Victories over Chicago and Minnesota offset those defeats to some extent. The game with Tulane University was an experiment which met with success.

University of Minnesota, Minneapolis—Minnesota had an off year, one of those seasons which is bound to befall almost any institution at some time or another. The eleven scored on Indiana, Illinois and Iowa.

University of Nebraska, Lincoln—Included in the season of the University of Nebraska was a trip to the East in which the team played against Rutgers in New York City and Penn State at State College. Nebraska defeated Rutgers handily, but the game with Penn State was lost. Against Notre Dame the Cornhuskers waged a splendid battle, but the former won, 16-9. In the last game of the season Washington State College defeated Nebraska at Lincoln, gaining the decision by a single point.

University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill—From the standpoint of victories the record for 1920 was the poorest since 1912. The university lost to State College for the first time since foot ball relations were established between these two schools, and then suffered four additional defeats. Lack of material made it hard to keep the team up. Lowe was suggested for several All-South Atlantic teams. Jacobi and Harrell were named for the All-State.

University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Ind.—The eleven went through the season without defeat. The schedule was unusually hard, but the team was well prepared for it. The Army was defeated at West Point by a varied and fast attack. Indiana gave Notre Dame a hard battle and was beaten only in the last minutes of play. Glpp, All-America half-back; Brandy, Smith, Coughlin, Anderson, Barry and Shaw were players who excelled in all games.

University of Omaha, Omaha, Neb.—Part of the season was very successful, Omaha winning from its rivals by large scores. Two games were forfeited to the team. In the last contest of the year it lost to Tarkio, 20-7.

University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia—On the whole the season was satisfactory to Pennsylvania. The schedule was hard and the material almost wholly new, and Coach Heisman's system was in its first year of trial. Six games out of ten were won, and in the seventh game Penn scored three times against the University of Pittsburgh, the only eleven to accomplish that feat. The close of the season was especially gratifying, as Penn defeated Columbia in New York and followed with a victory over Cornell in the Thanksgiving Day fixture. Wray, Straus, Grave and Ward were the outstanding players.

University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pa.—The Panthers had a very successful season and were not defeated, although tie games were played with Syracuse and Penn State. One of the most notable achievements was the 10-3 victory over Georgia Tech. The annual game with Washington and Jefferson was won, making it the sixth successive year that Pitt has defeated its western Pennsylvania rivals. Stein and Davies were the two outstanding players of the team. Stein was named for All-America center and Davies was chosen for the second All-America team as half-back.

University of Richmond, Richmond, Va.—Most successful season in Richmond's history. It was Richmond's first year in foot ball following its withdrawal from the Eastern Virginia Intercollegiate Association. All teams of the Association were defeated. Best line work was that of Carter and Bethel. Carter was mentioned for All-South Atlantic tackle. Jones, Snead and Ziegler were fine backs.

University of Rochester, Rochester, N. Y.—With the hardest schedule in Rochester's history, results were generally satisfactory. The principal games were against Cornell and Colgate, Rochester losing the former, 13-6, and winning from Colgate, 21-14. Captain Harris was a defensive mainstay. Hummel, Sullivan, Campbell and Wallace played finely.

University of South Carolina, Columbia—Coach Sol Metzger developed a team from green material which averaged 152 pounds per player into the most successful combination that South Carolina had known since 1912.

University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn.—After being defeated in every major game, Sewanee on Thanksgiving Day scored three points and held Vanderbilt to nothing in the first half, but could not maintain its advantage as the odds proved too great. In spite of its reverses the eleven never lost spirit and gave the best that it had in every contest. Coughlan received favorable mention by Southern critics, and Conway, by his splendid work at end, was elected captain of the 1921 team.

University of Tennessee, Knoxville—The eleven of 1920 was the best in years. It was a fine defensive team and well grounded in the fundamentals, especially in tackling. The score against Sewanee was the largest made by Tennessee in the dual meets between these rivals. The place-kicking of Hatcher, captain, was accurate; one of his placement kicks being for 52 yards against Sewanee. Vanderbilt and Mississippi Aggies were the only teams to defeat Tennessee.

University of Vermont, Burlington—Only an ordinary year for Vermont. Its victories were over St. Lawrence, Tufts and New Hampshire State.

University of Virginia, Charlottesville—In spite of an early defeat by the strong Virginia Military Institute team and a tie game with Vanderbilt, the season was considered to be successful by Virginia. The team was strong on the defense and frequently showed a good attack. Lack of weight in both the line and backfield was a handicap. Michie, Newman, Hall, Rinehart and Zundie played spirited foot ball all season.

University of Wisconsin, Madison—Only one defeat fell to the lot of the University throughout the season. This was administered by Ohio State, which played so successfully against other elevens of the Conference. In both the Minnesota and the Chicago games the winning drop-kick was made by Davey, quarter-back for Wisconsin. Scott, Weston, captain, Elliott, Sundt and Brader were players who worked brilliantly throughout the season.

Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa.—With a long schedule of nine games Ursinus was not over successful in victories, but good foot ball was played even when the eleven was defeated. The two closest games of the year were those with Dickinson and Haverford, both of which were won.

Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn.—Three victories were won by rousing scores at the beginning of the season and then Vanderbilt was overwhelmed by Georgia Tech by a 44 to 0 score. Next came the contest with Alabama Poly, in which Auburn ran up a higher total against Vanderbilt than the Georgians, but Vanderbilt did manage to score. The games which followed were more closely fought and the season finished with a welcome victory over the University of the South.

Villanova (Pa.) College—Villanova's best ground gainer and point scorer was Cronin. Captain Hutzler, McGrady and Blanchfield starred in their positions throughout the year.

Virginia Military Institute, Lexington—The foot ball team of the Institute was called the "Flying Squadron." It was not defeated in 1920. In the early games the eleven rolled up huge scores and in every game that it played it scored in double figures. Against Hampden-Sidney it made a total of 136 points. Leech, captain, was the leading player. He excelled in kicking as well as in running with the ball. Other players who did well were Summers, Stuart, Bunting, Drewry and Mason.

Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg—A team of new and inexperienced players, many of whom were in foot ball for the first time. Coaches were satisfied with the showing of the players. Those of the eleven who worked well were Parrish, Crisp, Sutton, Tilson and Carpenter.

Wake Forest (N. C.) College—Not so successful as in former years. Schedule was long and hard. The best resistance was made against Georgia Tech and University of North Carolina, although both games were lost. A better season is looked for in 1921.

Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pa.—Washington and Jefferson had a varied season. Beginning with a fine victory over Bethany the eleven then tied with West Virginia Wesleyan and won its next four games. Syracuse, Pittsburgh and Carnegie Tech then won from W. and J. in hard fought battles, but the team found some solace for these defeats by a fine victory over West Virginia at the end of the year. Stein, Carroll, Loucks, Brenkert, Erickson and Eilson were the leading players.

Washington and Lee University, Lexington Va.—A successful season fell to the lot of Washington and Lee. The two principal rivals of the college, Virginia Polytechnic and Georgetown, were both forfeited. Against Princeton the W. and L. players performed creditably. Moore, Silverstein and Tucker were the outstanding stars.

Washington College, Chestertown, Md.—With a light line the team did not win frequently, but played with dash. The backfield was very fast. Healy played the same steady game at tackle as the year before. Seigenfuss punted well and ran finely in a broken field. Captain Robbins and Bowes were worthy of commendation.

Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn.—Team-work accounted in large measure for the success of the eleven. The average weight of the players was 159 pounds. Captain Berlew played a strong defensive game at center. Peck was the leader at drop-kicking with five field goals. Newhall was a good ground gainer.

Western Maryland College, Westminster—The large scores against the team were due, in part, to the strong elevens which had been scheduled. Games were won from Drexel, St. John's College and Washington College.

Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa.—No games were won, but the eleven played well toward the close of the season and tied with Allegheny in a scoreless game and with Thiel, 6-6.

West Virginia University, Morgantown—In many respects the season was a disappointment. Eight of the regulars of the 1919 eleven had been lost and the new material was not of the high quality that had made possible the success of the preceding year. The victories over West Virginia Wesleyan, Washington and Lee, Rutgers and Bethany ordinarily would have indicated a successful season, but the results, as a whole, were not quite up to expectations. Kay, Beck and Martin were excellent performers.

West Virginia Wesleyan, Buckhannon—Most important of the games were those with West Virginia University and Washington and Jefferson. The former was lost, but W. and J. was held to a 7-7 tie. Principal players were Captain Snedegar, Krushank and Hill.

William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va.—Season was one of the best in years, more points being scored than ever before. Jones and White being declared ineligible for the championship series were a big loss.

Williams College, Williamstown, Mass.—Although three games were lost, Williams had a great scoring machine. Captain B. L. Boynton, mentioned for All-America quarter, was the leading player of the eleven and the high individual point scorer.

Worcester (Mass.) Polytechnic Institute—Results were the best achieved in the last seven years. Clough developed into a clever drop-kicker. Colesworth excelled at end.

Yale University, New Haven, Conn.—It was a disappointing season at Yale, as both the Princeton and Harvard games were lost. At times the eleven would show brilliancy, but could not hold consistently to their best efforts. Players who specially distinguished themselves were Callahan, captain; Kelly, Kempton, Aldrich, Dickens, Cross, Cutler and Acosta.

PART II—SCHOLASTIC REVIEWS

Scholastic Foot Ball in Greater Boston and New England

BY JOHN J. HALLAHAN, BOSTON, MASS.

Although there was no competitive way of determining the championship of New England schools for 1920, Haverhill High School of Haverhill, Mass., was generally accepted as the best of the high school elevens. As the result of a victory over Newton High School, champion of the Suburban Interscholastic League of Greater Boston, the team was sent to Jacksonville, Fla., and defeated Duval High, 27—0, bringing the season to a close.

In Boston a new plan of staging double-headers between schools was tried. It proved a big success, as it enabled the followers of a particular school to compare the ability of their team with others which might not have been included on their team's schedule. Dorchester High, represented by a worthwhile team—in fact, the best it has had in many years—captured the city title, defeating such schools as English High, Boston Latin and High School of Commerce, which hitherto had been the strongest. Dorchester clinched the championship on Thanksgiving Day by defeating Commerce, the other game of the double-header resulting in English High beating Boston Latin, 7—6. Brighton High and East Boston High were the leaders in the Boston District League, the former having one defeat, while East Boston did not lose a game but figured in three ties. Cambridge High and Latin again proved superior to Rindge Technical in the race for honors in Cambridge. Watertown High was the champion of the Mystic Valley League, Lynn Classical led in the North Shore division, and Whitman High, for the second year, was the best in the Old Colony League.

Roxbury Latin School led among the day private schools, and Groton School, by its victories over St. Mark's, 27—0, and St. Paul's School of Concord, N. H., 7—0, was the best of the boarding private schools. Andover, which had beaten Exeter for the first time in seven years in 1919, again won from its great rival, the score being 6—3. There were many inter-sectional games, Portland (Me.) High beating Waltham (Mass.) High, 19—6; Bridgeport (Conn.) High winning, 7—0, from Everett (Mass.) High, and West Technical High of Cleveland triumphing over Fitchburg High, 21—0. St. James High of Haverhill, Mass., won from DePaul Academy of Chicago, 21—0, and Stamford (Conn.) High scored a 7—0 win over Elgin (Ill.) High School. The following players chosen from the high schools of Greater Boston are selected for the all-star eleven of the Hub:

ALL-GREATER BOSTON HIGH SCHOOL ELEVEN.

Prior (Medford High) and Osborne (Newton High), ends.
 Gullian (Newton High) and Coady (Newton High), tackles.
 Bennett (Quincy High) and Forrest (Rindge Technical), guards.
 Budd (Malden High), center.
 Safford (Newton High), quarter-back.
 Fallon (Waltham High) and Garrity (Newton High), half-backs.
 Doherty (Boston Latin), full-back.

WESTERN MASSACHUSETTS.

North High won the championship of the Worcester high schools, the feature of the season's work being a drop-kick for a goal from the 55-yard line by Russell Fox, the star half-back of the team, against Clinton High. Central High was the best of the three Springfield high schools. Worcester Academy was the best of the private schools, defeating Williston, 13—0. The latter tied Cushing Academy, which in turn tied Worcester Academy.

RHODE ISLAND.

The situation at the close of the season in Rhode Island resulted in Rogers High of Newport and Woonsocket High playing for the state championship. In this struggle the Newport boys were victorious, 6—0. Having run up 290 points against 27 in ten games, the Chamber of Commerce of Newport recognized the valiant work of Rogers High and presented a silver loving cup to the eleven. Moses Brown School of Providence laid claim to the private school championship by defeating St. George's School, 7—0. Brown lost two games, the 14—7 defeat by Hope Street High being the only smirch received from a state school.

CONNECTICUT.

Reviewing the season in Connecticut, the same conditions prevailed as in 1919. There is no way of deciding the state high school championship because of the strained relationship as regards foot ball. Stamford High, Bridgeport High and Hartford High stood foremost in the ranking. Stamford confines most of its competition to Greater New York schools, and had the honor of running up the largest score of any of the New England schools, defeating St. Francis Prep, 102—0. The team played eleven games, being scored on only once by Concordia Prep of New York in a 28—6 finale. The school has been beaten only four times in ten years. Bridgeport High lost to St. John's Prep of Danvers, Mass., and for the second year it defeated a college freshman eleven by triumphing over New York University Freshmen, 19—13. Hartford High won the championship of the Triangular League, comprising Hartford, New Haven and New Britain high schools, and also defeated East Hartford High, which claimed the championship of Farmington Valley. Bulkeley School of New London gained the championship of eastern Connecticut for the second consecutive year. Stamford High was the only team to defeat Bulkeley. New Haven High defeated New Britain High and had as other victims Hopkins, Ansonia and Commercial.

Standing out as one of the best prep school teams in the East, Hotchkiss School of Lakeville won all its games with the exception of the opening game of the season against Yale Freshmen. This school, which has the unique distinction of being the only New England school competing against a high-class Middle States school, had an otherwise victorious career. The biggest achievement was gained over Hill School of Pottstown, Pa., which had previously held Lawrenceville to a tie. Hotchkiss won, 34—7, Coach O. F. Monahan showing a well-drilled machine with a star in Pond, one of the greatest players ever developed at the school. Kent School had only to look upon defeats by Hotchkiss and the New Haven Boys' Club. Suffield School had a good team, winning the Connecticut Valley championship. Choate School suffered a disastrous season, and Pomfret found it pleasant to look back on victories over Choate and Milton Academy and a no-score tie with Taft School. The latter also defeated Choate.

MAINE.

Portland High again had a strong team, and although beaten, 13—7, by Westbrook Seminary, had the best high school eleven in the state. It was regretted that an opportunity was not afforded the team to play for the championship of New England. Victories were scored over Bangor High, which in 1919 had what was considered the champion eleven; Thornton Academy, 13—7, Lewiston High, 27—0, besides defeating Waltham (Mass.) High, 19—6, and Manchester (N. H.) High, 19—13. Coburn Classical Institute of Waterville was forced to play the second teams of all four Maine colleges, all of which resulted in victories. Old Town High School of Auburn and Dean Academy were the only school teams played, the first being beaten easily, while the conflict with Dean was a 6—6 tie. Hebron Academy played seven games, being beaten only by Exeter, which made its followers feel that it had an equal claim to the prep school championship along with Coburn Institute.

Houlton High won the championship of Aroostook County, and Deering High, after holding Portland to a no-score tie, found the path anything but rosy, losing to Gardiner High and Waterville High and tying Lewiston High, the worst defeat being administered by Haverhill High, 41—7. Lewiston High won the intercity championship of the twin cities, Lewiston and Auburn, by twice defeating Edward Little High of Auburn. Gardiner High, Morse High of Bath, Westbrook Seminary and Kent's High helped to maintain a high standard among the schools throughout the season.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Concord High and Keene High laid claim to the championship of the New Hampshire high schools. Colby Academy was among the undefeated teams. Stevens High of Claremont played erratically, but although it lost several games by haphazard playing, it won its most important game of the season by defeating Richards High, 33—0. Manchester High was not as strong as in other years and suffered a setback in its game with Concord High. Kimball Union Academy lost more games than it won.

VERMONT.

Rutland High, Brattleboro High and Spaulding High School of Barre ranked high among the school teams of Vermont, with Rutland High, because of its victories over Spaulding, 3—0, and Brattleboro High, 34—0, having the best claim to the championship. Rutland has lost one game during the past five years, and that to Brattleboro in 1917. Brattleboro High had beaten Holyoke High and several other schools in the western part of Massachusetts. Spaulding High, despite its 3—0 defeat by Rutland, believed it had the best team in the state, with victories over St. Johnsbury Academy, Montpelier High, Burlington High and Lyndon Institute. Goddard Seminary of Barre played seven games, winning five and losing two.

Metropolitan District Scholastic Foot Ball

BY EDWARD B. MOSS.

Scholastic foot ball in Greater New York and vicinity during the season of 1920 was productive of several teams of more than ordinary caliber. De Witt Clinton High School had the best eleven in the Manhattan-Bronx division of the city, while the Commercial High School team held a somewhat similar position in the Brooklyn-Queens section.

The De Witt Clinton combination was generally accorded the New York City championship and first honors in the Public Schools Athletic League foot ball circles. The final victory was a 21—0 defeat of Commerce, which had previously won from the Commercial High School, 9—6, thus eliminating the Brooklyn school in the race for first place honors.

Second place in the Manhattan-Bronx division went to High School of Commerce, which lost one game and tied a second out of six played. Across the East River the Manual Training High School was a close second to Commercial, with a similar total in games won, lost and tied. Manual was the better scoring machine.

In the Long Island district outside of the Greater City, St. Paul's School won three out of five games played; Freeport High School won four out of seven games, and the Glen Cove High School ran up a record of 272 points in eight games, winning all but one with double figure scores. Poly Prep was the only team to cross Glen Cove's goal line and the former school won, 40—0.

The final standing of the Public Schools Athletic League teams of Greater New York follows:

Scholastic Foot Ball in the Hudson River Valley

By P. J. BEICKERT, KINGSTON, N. Y.

Never has interest in scholastic foot ball reached such great heights in the Hudson River Valley section of New York as was in evidence during the past season. Kingston, Poughkeepsie and Newburgh all had representative high school elevens that played high-grade foot ball, due undoubtedly to the excellent coaching systems at those institutions. An immense crowd witnessed the Poughkeepsie High-Kingston High game at Poughkeepsie for the Valley championship.

Poughkeepsie clinched the title in this game by winning decisively, 21—0. The victorious eleven stood out as the best team in the Valley, having sustained but one defeat, that at the hands of Kingston, 6—3. Coach J. Gordon Flannery had the squad well-drilled in fundamentals, and with the advantage in weight, the team swept aside all opposition.

Kingston was the runner-up. The Maroon and White defeated both Poughkeepsie and Newburgh on the Kingston gridiron, but lost at Poughkeepsie and Newburgh. The Newburgh-Kingston game at Newburgh came to an unsatisfactory end in the second half when Coach Hall took his Kingston charges off the field. Hudson High started the season with a team, but after sustaining crushing defeats at the hands of Newburgh and Poughkeepsie, Hudson cancelled the remainder of its schedule.

The style of play of the three leading teams was at great variance. Poughkeepsie used a straight running attack as its principal weapon of offense; Kingston's main attack relied in its ability in a well-grounded aerial attack, while Newburgh used a combination, with the forward pass as the threat.

Besides the series of games between themselves, the three leading teams engaged in other contests. Poughkeepsie defeated Yonkers High, Peekskill Military Academy and Middletown. Newburgh won the championship of Orange County by winning from both Middletown and Port Jervis, and also registered a win over Cornwall High. Kingston opened its season by holding the strong Albany High team to a scoreless tie, but lost the following week at Albany by the score of 9—3. The Maroon team defeated both Glens Falls and Saratoga Springs High School elevens, both well-rated teams in northeastern New York. On Thanksgiving Day they held the more experienced Brooklyn Evening High School eleven to a scoreless tie.

Scholastic Foot Ball in Central New York

By CHESTER B. BAHN, SYRACUSE.

Syracuse North won permanent possession of the Colgate Cup, emblematic of the city title, and was conceded in practically every quarter as the winner of the mythical central New York title. The sole protest came from Binghamton Central High School, which suffered but one defeat, and that at the hands of its own Alumni.

Syracuse Central was rated third in the public school class, Union-Endicott High School was in fourth place and Sherrill High in fifth. Geneva High School also produced a strong team. Utica and Rome Free Academies, Oneida High, Hamilton High, Auburn High and Elmira Free tagged along behind the schools mentioned.

In the prep school division, St. John's of Manlius had things its own way, and won the Eastern U. S. military school title by defeating Allen Military School of West Newton, Mass.

The Northern New York Scholastic League title went to Massena High School, while the independent scholastic pennant went to Watertown High.

Conditions in the high school gridiron sport still do not approach the ideal. Perhaps the greatest evil in central New York is the absence of some controlling medium. The athletic association fostered by Syracuse University a few years ago, which died almost before it was out of its swaddling clothes, should be revived and assume control over the gridiron game. It would prevent schedule and titular controversies, now prevalent, and settle eligibility disputes.

Scholastic Foot Ball in Northeastern New York

BY JULIUS J. HELLER, ALBANY.

Because of the short schedules and few intersectional games, the question of superiority on the gridiron in northeastern New York last year remains unanswered. The big teams last year included Albany, Glens Falls, Kingston and Gloversville High Schools.

Glens Falls, with its 180-pound backfield, proved a veritable steam roller combination, going through a remarkable season. Albany High, starting out with but four veterans, developed into a fairly strong team, at least powerful enough to go down to Binghamton and hold Union-Endicott High to a lone touchdown in one of the hardest fought games ever played on the Shoe City gridiron.

The failure of Gloversville High to play Albany and Kingston High practically wrecked the Glove City team's hopes for the sectional championship. The Gloversville eleven was a speedy, smooth-working combination, which undoubtedly would have given either Albany or Kingston a hard fight.

The Albany Academy and Whitehall High elevens came into the lime-light by their spectacular showing last season. Albany Academy, by holding Albany High to a scoreless tie in an Election Day game, displayed championship qualities. The Cadets boasted of one of the best quarter-backs in the section. Kingston High also played good foot ball all season, but met its Waterloo at Albany, succumbing to the Capitol City team's forward passing game. The Utica Free Academy team, which presented a championship eleven the previous year, went out of its stride in midseason, losing to Albany by 33—0 and to Binghamton Central High by 34—0.

Troy, Watervliet and Hoosick Falls High Schools seem to have lost their former prestige on the gridiron, being represented by rather weak teams last season. Foot ball was not taken up at Troy until almost midseason. Several games were played, but the eleven did not show any resemblance of the power possessed by former Troy grid teams. Cathedral Academy of Albany, in its first attempt at foot ball, did not come up to expectations, due chiefly to the lack of experienced material. However, the team shows promise for the 1921 season. Cambridge High, despite the lack of material, was represented by a fairly good eleven.

Foot Ball in New Jersey Schools

By G. A. FALZER, NEWARK.

G. A. Falzer

Out of the pile-up of more than a hundred foot ball teams which clawed up the gridiron in New Jersey last season, two new schools—that is, new to foot ball's hall of fame—emerged with state championships, the high school title being won by Asbury Park and the prep school crown by Blair Academy. There was no questioning their right to the championship trophies, for besides being judged officially as best in their respective fields by the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association, to the eye of the foot ball critic and in point of record they were clearly the peers of the state.

Asbury Park's mighty eleven, coached by Albert Allen Witson, plowed through a schedule which brought the Shore team into contact with some of the strongest school elevens in New Jersey, was undefeated in its nine games, ran up a total of 354 points and on two occasions crossed the century mark in single games. The champions' triumphs included victories over Chattle, their most formidable competitor in the Shore district; East Orange, one of the classy schools of North Jersey; Atlantic City, the best eleven in South Jersey, and Trenton, a team whose line was not crossed for a goal or touchdown by any other opponent.

As for Blair Academy, coached by Mario de Vitalis of Brown foot ball fame, the Blue and White of Blairstown swept aside all Jersey opposition and clinched the prep championship by conquering Peddie Institute, which had monopolized the prep title in the four preceding years. In mastering Peddie on this occasion, Blair came from behind after the Hightstown team had built up a 3—0 lead and sent over a lone touchdown in the second half, winning, 7—3. Prior to that the new champions had vanquished Phillipsburg, Allentown, Pennington, Princeton Prep, Stroudsburg and Bethlehem, losing only to Wyoming, the latter a Pennsylvania team.

In the struggle for sectional championships in New Jersey, dealing with Class A teams which represent schools having a male enrollment of 300 or more, the undefeated Rutherford team was accorded the title in North Jersey, Asbury Park in Central Jersey, and Atlantic City in South Jersey. Among the class B elevens Bloomfield was judged best in North Jersey, Freehold in Central Jersey, and Collingswood in South Jersey. Irrespective as to classification but judged solely on the merits of the teams and the schedules played, the leading thirty high school teams of New Jersey were rated officially in the following order:

- 1, Asbury Park; 2, Trenton; 3, Chattle (Long Branch); 4, Rutherford;
- 5, Battin (Elizabeth); 6, Atlantic City; 7, Phillipsburg; 8, Central (New-

Scholastic foot ball in New Jersey being conducted on an entirely organized basis with state championships clearly decided, the victorious schools are now looking about for new worlds to conquer, and in the future may figure in intersectional competition with the national championship as the goal. A plan is now being considered whereby the team winning the high school championship of New Jersey may play a post-season game for the national or at least an intersectional championship each year.

Getting down to bestowing individual honors, the following players were chosen for the All-State teams, embracing the pick of the high and prep schools in New Jersey:

Intersectional Scholastic Foot Ball in 1920

BY EDWARD B. MOSS.

The intersectional season was naturally confined to a short period following the closing of regular schedules. On December 4 Oak Park High School of Chicago defeated Steele High School of Dayton, Ohio, 19—6, in a contest played at Dayton for the interscholastic championship of the Middle West. On the same day the West Technical High School of Cleveland, Ohio, journeyed to Fitchburg, Mass., and won a game from the high school eleven of that city, 21—0.

Other games played on December 4 included an intersectional contest at Haverhill, Mass., in which St. James High School of Haverhill defeated the DePaul Academy eleven of Chicago, 21—10. Stamford High School also won a closely contested gridiron battle from the Elgin, Illinois, High School players by 7—0 at Stamford, Conn.

On December 11 Haverhill was represented by a second winning team when the Haverhill, Mass., High School combination made the long trip to Jacksonville, Fla., and won from Duval High School of the Florida metropolis, 27—0. Another game which entailed a long trip across the continent closed the season, so far as important intersectional schoolboy foot ball was concerned, when the Everett, Wash., High School team won a New Year's Day game from the East Technical High School of Cleveland, Ohio, 17—6. The game was played at Everett, and the Pacific Coast and the Middle West elevens represented two of the best elevens of their respective sections.

High School Foot Ball in West Virginia

By H. A. STANSBURY,

Athletic Director, West Virginia University.

That gradual development that has been evident in all phases of West Virginia foot ball during the past ten years was again apparent in the ranks of the high school teams during the 1920 season, and some elevens that would compare most favorably with the best scholastic teams produced in neighboring states were turned out.

Charleston High School, with an eleven of near-college caliber and a line which averaged 185 pounds in weight, led the Mountain State procession. The Capital City team scored 379 points and scarcely had its goal line threatened during the entire season. The West Virginia University championship trophy was awarded to Charleston. Wheeling was able to tie Charleston in their annual game, but at no other point did the Wheeling record compare favorably with that of Charleston; besides, Wheeling's schedule was only half filled with West Virginia teams, making it difficult to give its team a proper rating. Following this pair of leaders in order came Parkersburg, Clarksburg, Huntington, New Martinsville, Cameron, Morgantown, Mannington, Fairmont, Buckhannon, Elkins, Grafton, Weston, Moundsville and the rest.

The All-State eleven selected for 1920 is the strongest by far that the writer has chosen in the nine years that he has selected an All-West Virginia high school team. Captain Byer and Garred are two of the most aggressive ends that this state has produced, while the whole center of the line is made up of 180-pounders and the backfield of lighter but faster and more experienced players.

Virginia Secondary Schools

BY J. S. COUNSELMAN,
College of William and Mary.

The foot ball season of 1919 was aptly characterized as a season of weird upsets and tremendous reversals of form. The past season was a marked contrast to this, for not since the advent of the forward pass did most teams play truer to form.

The records of the secondary schools in Virginia were, on the whole, no exception to this general rule. Episcopal High School, Woodberry Forest School and the Fishburne, Augusta, Fork Union, Shenandoah Valley and Massanutten Military Academies all turned out teams of high grade. It would be difficult to determine which school of the first two named should have first place in this group, for although Episcopal High School got a close decision over Woodberry Forest, the latter defeated Augusta, which, in turn, tied E.H.S.

Staunton Military Academy did not play a sufficient number of the above teams to be listed with them, although they had little trouble in defeating two or three of them. The Virginia Episcopal School, both Randolph-Macon Academies, Chatham, Training School and Blackstone and Danville Military Academies turned out creditable teams.

Never before in the history of foot ball in the high schools of Virginia was the interest so intense. Nor were there ever so many first-class teams produced. Among these should be mentioned the high school teams of Roanoke, Salem, Charlottesville, Danville and Lynchburg, as all of these teams tried for the Western Division championship. In the Eastern Division, Newport News, Courtland, Maury, John Marshall, Portsmouth, Petersburg, Hampton and Suffolk played a strenuous schedule. Their relative ranking would be difficult to determine, but none of these teams would dispute the fact that Newport News won first place.

The season for high schools had a fitting climax in a post-season game between Newport News and Roanoke. When these two teams met, Newport News, under the skillful tutelage of Coach Nat J. Webb, had won all games scheduled and had scored 256 points to opponents' 7, while Roanoke, in disposing of all opponents, had scored 269 points to 40. In their final post-season contest, Newport News secured one touchdown by blocking a punt. After Roanoke had advanced the ball to their opponents' 25-yard line, the champions, by a brilliant exhibition of open field running and forward passing, carried the ball to Roanoke's 20-yard line. At this point one of Heisman's famous trick plays was executed with great skill, enabling Newport News to score the winning touchdown, the final score being Newport News 14, Roanoke 7. It was a great game and drew out the largest crowd that ever witnessed a foot ball contest in Newport News.

Scholastic Notes

Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn, N. Y.—Team showed its best possibilities toward the end of the season. Only four players are lost for 1921. LeVin, Williams, Maisel, Hamburger, Dangler and Captain Davey showed fine spirit.

Albany (N. Y.) Academy—Possibly the hardest contest was that with Albany High, which resulted in a scoreless tie. It was a successful season in which the play of Captain Ives was the feature of every game.

Allegheny H. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.—Peabody and Fifth Avenue High School were played to scoreless ties, the latter winning the city championship. Captain McMillan, P. Papapanu and Moffatt starred in a successful season.

Allen Military School, West Newton, Mass.—The fine success achieved at the start was not maintained because of changing conditions. St. John's Manlius was played at Syracuse, N. Y., on Thanksgiving Day for the Eastern military school supremacy and Allen lost, 14—0. Team had a capital backfield, made up of Powell, Patten, Colson and Jackson.

Allentown (Pa.) High School—For the first time in twenty years a decisive victory was gained over Easton. Consistent players were Captain Maury, Brown, Stewart and Osment.

Altoona (Pa.) High School—Three games were played at home and five on foreign fields. That with Johnstown was the hardest and best. Davis, Fasis and Ullery were leading players.

Asbury Park (N. J.) High School—Coach Witson deserves much credit for the fine eleven developed at Asbury Park. Homer Metzger and Schwarz were picked for All-State team; Sam Metzger, Hopkins, Jeffries, Wertz, and the two previously mentioned were selected for the East Jersey eleven. Nine letter men lost by graduation.

Asheville (N. C.) High School—Considering green material the season was successful. Simpson and Smith made the best showing for the team.

Atlantic City (N. J.) High School—Principal games were those against Trenton, Camden and Asbury Park, of which the latter was the hardest. Excellent backfield. Leading players were G. Whelan, J. Whelan, DaGrosa, Allen Birdsell and Martino.

Avalon (Pa.) High School—Although the coach was absent in the early part of the year and there were but five experienced players of the seventeen men in the squad, the team progressed rapidly. Smith and Mayer were sterling players.

Barnard School, New York City—Because of cancellations the schedule was reduced to four games. Many of the players were inexperienced. Tripp, Squier and Farrell were the best. Tripp lost by graduation.

Barringer H. S., Newark, N. J.—With all new material except one player, Coach Pritchard developed a team which lost only one game of the ten played. One was at 6—6 tie with Phillipsburg. Captain Poland was chosen for the All-State. Van Poznals was a clever quarter-back.

Battin H. S., Elizabeth, N. J.—Excellent showing was made by Battin. Won the North Jersey championship and that of Union County, and was placed fifth in the state rating. Simon was a capital line plunger.

Beaver Falls (Pa.) High School—Leading players were Hamilton, fine open field runner, and Dershimer. Splendid season, with two defeats in nine games.

Bellefonte (Pa.) Academy—Possibly the heaviest team among schools. Rush line averaged 204 pounds and backfield 180 pounds. Game at Mansfield was said to be the best ever seen there. Most important contest was that with Penn State Freshmen, who were held to a 7—7 tie until the last three minutes of play.

Bellevue (Pa.) High School—Best foot ball year in the history of the school. Greensburg was held to its lowest score of the year on its own field. Dependable players were Captain Snyder, Eaton, McKissock, Bruckman and Parker.

Ben Avon (Pa.) High School—Coach Johnstone assisted the school to the most successful season since 1914. Only one game of nine was lost. Backfield was one of the best in the Pittsburgh district. Captain Mourer, Erbe and Johnstone were excellent players. Avalon, an old rival, was defeated in the last game.

Bethlehem (Pa.) Preparatory School—New coach and few veteran players. Working together well the team won four of seven games played, finishing the season by defeating Perkiomen School.

Bloomfield (N. J.) High School—New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association awarded Bloomfield the Class B championship for Northern New Jersey. Two of the three defeats were games which were lost in the last minute of play, and all three were played on opponents' fields.

Bordentown (N. J.) Military Institute—Good uphill fight was made all season. Only two old players were back. New material and short time for practise were main drawbacks.

Boys' H. S., Atlanta, Ga.—Difficult schedule and green material. However, improvement was manifest as the season progressed, culminating in a good showing against Technical High, in which the fighting spirit of the players was favorably commented upon.

Boys' H. S., Brooklyn, N. Y.—League games were hard fought and lost by close scores in the last few minutes of play by the lightest team in years. Schaap and Lunn were given places on the All-Brooklyn.

Bridgeport (Conn.) High School—Total of 228 points to 44 by opponents, and only one game lost of the nine played. Return game with Everett, Mass., resulted in a victory for Bridgeport. Players of excellence were Whalen, Maher, Galbiati, Saur and Berkwit.

Brighton H. S., Boston, Mass.—Brighton won the championship in the Boston District High School League. Leading players of the team were Lydon, Quinlan, Concanon, Harrington and McKenney.

Bristol (Pa.) High School—Season was not successful with a light team. Hibbs and Kring were two players of ability.

Brooklyn (N. Y.) Preparatory—Season was one of experiments. A solitary veteran was left from 1920. Principal game was with St. John's. Mattimore, Captain Harrison and Brennan were all-scholastic selections.

Bryn Athyn (Pa.) Academy—Principal game with Radnor was lost, but players worked hard and were generally successful. Credit for good work should be given to Captain Acton, E. Acton, Heinrichs and Doering.

Burlington (N. J.) High School—Season was very successful. McGinley, Gratz and Adams were the outstanding players, and with Linderman, Doyle, Green, Ross, Lukens, Boyle, Severns and Mulford received gold foot balls.

Cameron (W. Va.) High School—Team was well balanced. Difficult to pick individual stars, but Simms, Rutan, Ross, Hodson, Ward and Macky deserve mention.

Carlton Academy, Summit, N. J.—From a small squad Coach Donahue perfected a fine team. Four cancellations made it necessary for Carlton to go out of its class for games. Etzel, Kelly, de Raismes and Braga were players of merit.

Carteret Academy, Orange, N. J.—With a light, inexperienced team, Carteret made a creditable showing against heavier opponents. Captain Finlay played well at end.

Central H. S., Binghamton, N. Y.—Much credit is due Vanatta, Vosburg, Kelley, Rieg, Smith and Swingle for good work. Season was very successful, opponents being defeated by large scores in almost every instance.

St. Francis Preparatory School, Brooklyn, N. Y.—Unavoidable loss of the coach in midseason was a great handicap. The players gamely completed their season, although hopelessly outclassed by rivals.

St. James (Md.) School—With a squad of only nineteen boys, St. James had a poor season for victories but a good one for the development of players. Those who excelled were Requardt, Cotton, Carruthers and Gaines. Seven players were lost by graduation. Thirteen players won the "S.J." and two won the "S.J.A.A."

St. James H. S., Haverhill, Mass.—Most important game was that with DePaul Academy of Chicago, which was won. The eleven was fast and made up of lightweights. Moynihan, Minchan and Ryan were players deserving commendation.

St. John's Preparatory School, Brooklyn, N. Y.—The most important game of the schedule was lost, but the season was considered successful. Three players, Kubat, Pollack and Captain Longua were mentioned for all-scholastic berths.

St. John's School, Manlius, N. Y.—Very successful season, all games won except tie with Colgate Freshmen. For the first time in three years Masten Park was defeated. Allen Military School of West Newton, Mass., was beaten in the final game. Individual stars for St. John's were Captain Salzman, Lawyer, Donaldson, Hatfield and Pierce.

St. Joseph's Preparatory School, Philadelphia, Pa.—With the best team that ever represented the school, the Catholic championship of Philadelphia was won and also the Philopatrian Institute Cup. The team was not scored upon in any league game and only 20 points were made against the eleven by outside teams. Brooklyn Prep was defeated, 19—13. Breslin was the leading player.

St. Luke's School, Wayne, Pa.—Undoubtedly a successful season continuing the good work which has resulted in only two games being lost in three years. The principal game with Chestnut Hill Academy was won for the fourth year in succession. Players deserving praise are Martinez, Stewart, Brown, Stillman and Murdoch.

St. Peter's Preparatory School, Jersey City, N. J.—Good work by Coach Doherty and the excellent playing of Slane helped to make the season successful. The latter was mentioned on several mythical elevens. Other good players were Simms, Brogan, Regan and Murtagh. Fordham Prep and Brooklyn Prep were defeated.

Severn School, Boone, Md.—With only three players from the squad of the previous year, a strong team was put together which won five out of eight games. Bell's punting, Barnard's passing and the work of Turner, Hunert, Jones and Landers were features of the season.

Sewickley (Pa.) High School—A well balanced aggregation which was scored upon but once, and that by the team to which Sewickley lost. Deserving of mention are Anderson, Altaffer, Captain Challis and Rice.

Shady Side Academy, Pittsburgh, Pa.—With a hard schedule the championship of Pittsburgh private schools was won. The final game with Nichols School at Buffalo, N. Y., was lost after a keenly played contest which demonstrated the mettle of both elevens. Players who led in good work were Captain Lent, White, Mahaffey, Benney, Lindsay, Mendlow and Pettes.

Sherrill (N. Y.) High School—Excellent coaching by Willard Askley produced good results. The team played through a hard schedule, winning six games and tying one. The most important contest was that with Oneida, which resulted in a 14-14 tie. Captain Morgan Ackley and Lamb were star players.

South Hills H. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.—Steele was the only player who returned from the squad of the previous season and he earned a place on the all-scholastic. Without previous experience the other players of the squad did better than was expected. Credit must be given to Eichleay, Coyne, Hill, DePiene, Peterson, Davies and Brooks.

South Norfolk (Va.) High School—Lynch was considered the most valuable player on the team. Whitfield, Pigott, Smith, Morgan, Beale, Spencer and Alkire deserve commendation.

Stamford (Conn.) High School—Coach Boyle again turned out an exceptional team. Under his direction Stamford High has lost but four games in ten years. Not a defeat was registered against the eleven in 1920 and only one opponent scored against Stamford, whose total was 316 to 6 by rivals. In the intersectional game with Elgin (Ill.) High, the Stamford boys were victors. Elgin did not carry the ball closer to Stamford's goal than the 30-yard line. Stars of the team were Captain Brennan, Hunt, Williams, Dora, Foley and Schlemhofer.

Stanton (Va.) Military Academy—Facing a stiff schedule Coaches Tarr and Manning developed a team which was capable of playing a hard game against any prep school in the East. Stanton's two rivals, Augusta Military Academy and Fishburne Military Academy were defeated by large scores. Outstanding players were McMahon, Burke, Foreman, Connolly, Malone, Townsends and Stearne.

Stuyvesant High School, New York—Most important game was that with High School of Commerce, which resulted in a scoreless tie. The season was successful as a whole. Stuyvesant players mentioned for the all-scholastic were Captain Steinman, House and Wester.

Susquehanna (Pa.) Schools—At times the center of the line was weak, but the ends and backs played a very strong game. Captain Gill was an admirable player.

Swarthmore (Pa.) Preparatory School—A light, aggressive team which played its best foot ball against Haverford. Leading players were Captain Baehr, Hagopian and Coombs.

Tarentum (Pa.) High School—Team-work very good. The line averaged 153 pounds and was centered around Bartell, who was a good forward passer. Kilnert and Slaughter were fine players. Credit is due Coaches Dinsmore and Fee.

Technical High School, Buffalo, N. Y.—Technical High School tied Masten which won the Harvard Cup. The Teach team was the best in the school's history.

Thayer Academy, South Braintree, Mass.—The objective game was that with Quincy High School, which was won by a single point. Players who were singled out for good work were Harrison, Higgins, Captain Wentworth and J. McLaughlin.

Tome School, Port Deposit, Md.—It was the first time that Tome in one season defeated both Lawrenceville and Hill School. It was the first year for Coach Schmid, who developed a team which was strong in defense and attack.

Tonawanda (N. Y.) High School—Starting with indifferent success the eleven got better as the season progressed. The principal games were those with Lafayette, Erie Central and North Tonawanda. Leading players were Stumpf, Kibler, Grainge, Schnell and Balling.

Trenton (N. J.) High School—Trenton finished second among the high schools of the state, losing but one game to Asbury Park, which was the only eleven to cross Trenton's goal. In total points scored, Trenton made 160 to six for rival teams. Only four players are lost for 1921 and a good eleven is anticipated with Phil Armstrong again in charge of the squad. Captain Walker, McKensie, Slamin, Clarke and Berrein were chosen for positions on the various All-State teams.

Union-Endicott H. S., Endicott, N. Y.—Despite the fact that the squad was practically one of green material, only four touchdowns were scored against U.-E. in eight games in one of the hardest schedules undertaken by any central New York school. The entire team is worthy of commendation for good work. Towne was selected as an All-State.

Union H. S., Turtle Creek, Pa.—Team played good foot ball all season, especially against New Brighton and Tarentum. The best players were Hooven, Cervino, C. Reid, Botti and Captain Kurth.

Vineland (N. J.) High School—Vineland played through the season with good results considering the difficulties encountered. For the first time since 1917 Millville was defeated. Moyer's strong play featured the season; Keene and Wheeler were excellent players.

Wakefield (Mass.) High School—All players except two were inexperienced, but the team-work as a whole was creditable.

Warwood (W. Va.) High School—Coach Tilock developed a splendid foot ball machine. Most of the players were inexperienced and short of stature, but they played foot ball which enabled them to hold their own against heavier teams.

Washington (Pa.) High School—Won the championship of the Western Pennsylvania I.A.A. and in addition to that captured the Syracuse trophy.

Weaver College, Weaverville, N. C.—Specially strong in straight foot ball and passing, and played exceedingly well throughout the season.

West Catholic H. S., Philadelphia, Pa.—In the first complete season of the Catholic High School League the leadership was held until the team was defeated by St. Joseph's Prep. First year that a representative eleven was put out.

West Chester (Pa.) High School—Gradual but steady development tells the story of the season. After several stinging defeats the players gained by experience and won from Glen Mills, Chester and Pottstown. The Powell Cup was won by defeating Berwyn. Good players were Ivins, Hoopes, Cunningham, Bennett, Ray and Lear.

West Chester (Pa.) Normal School—First year at foot ball and the result was satisfactory. Five of the seven games were won. Worst and Von Bulow were the stars.

Westfield (N. J.) High School—One game was lost and the season resulted in a tie with Rahway for Class B championship of Union County. Kjellmark was mentioned for the All-County and with Ten Eyck for All-State.

Westinghouse H. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.—With the lightest team of the city schools, a fine showing was made against all elevens played. The spirit of the players was excellent and improvement was in evidence as the season progressed.

White Plains (N. Y.) High School—For the third consecutive year White Plains claims the championship of Westchester County. In the game against Peekskill Military Academy the unusual total of 118 points were scored. Captain Waite was highly praised by critics.

Wildwood (N. J.) High School—New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Association declared a tie between Pleasantville and Wildwood for the championship of Class C in New Jersey. The excellent showing is due to consistent team-work.

Williamsport (Pa.) High School—Captain Emick, Kopp, Leib and Crawford were leading players in a successful season.

Williston Seminary, Easthampton, Mass.—Two players only returned from the squad of the previous year and new material did not come up to expectations. Best players of 1920 were Captain Sheldon and Smith.

Woburn (Mass.) High School—The team was coached by its captain, John Gon-salves. Best game with Watertown High School, which resulted in a scoreless tie.

Woodberry Forest School, Orange, Va.—Only one letter man of 1919 played with the team. Its record was very commendable. A light and inexperienced eleven that fought gamely. Stars of the squad were Devin, Frye and Thermer.

Worcester (Mass.) Academy—Progress was slow although steady. Only Captain McGillen and Sullivan were back from the squad of the previous year. Coach De-lahanty developed a strong attack and powerful defense. L. Sullivan, Cooleedge and Captain McGillen deserve praise.

Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa.—Two players of the 1919 squad returned and helped to make 1920 a success. Seven players will return in 1921 and good results are expected. Captain Harding, Munne and Boyle were players of merit.

* Won the game. † The ball secretly was slipped beneath the back of Dillon's jersey, which had been specially prepared for the purpose. Harvard did not discover the ruse until Dillon had run past all of their men. ‡ Although classed as a fumble, Poe obtained the ball by wrenching it from the arms of Yale's runner.

Officials' List American Intercollegiate Foot Ball Rules Committee, 1921

The Work of the Central Board on Officials

Few indeed of the spectators who watch a foot ball game realize how much of their satisfaction throughout the season comes from the work started many years ago and carried on under the direction of Dr. James A. Babbitt in the body known as the Central Board on Officials, a sub-committee of the Rules Committee. A foot ball game without clean cut officiating is not only unsatisfactory to the players but entirely disappointing to the spectators. Foot ball rules are a complicated affair necessarily because the game itself is a complicated one. Hundreds of officials must be selected and allotted to the many games, and keenness of perception, accuracy, good judgment and thorough knowledge of the rules is essential.

Dr. Babbitt's Committee, in conference with the various managers of the big teams, lays out annually the appointment of these officials, conducts the various meetings necessary for this work, as well as calling Interpretation Meetings in the preliminary part of the season to reach conclusions on unanimous rulings. This year Dr. Babbitt has arranged for still further assistance, and through the efforts of Major Daly and others this work will be even more highly organized, and there will undoubtedly be conventions held at the end of the season to secure suggestions to the Rules Committee as to possible alterations and interpretations of difficult points which may have arisen throughout the season. This is a part of the machinery that is most vital to the game and has accounted for a great deal of its progress in the past.

WALTER CAMP.

The Central Board on Officials would suggest the following plan for its work:

That the function of the Central Board, appointed by the Rules Committee, should be (a) to advise, rendering assistance as indicated; (b) to assist by public interpretation of the foot ball rules; (c) to maintain a certain control over sectional boards in the management of executive details; (d) to publish lists of accredited officials; (e) to offer recommendations for the conduct of these officials; (f) to arrange meetings for interpretations; (g) to arrange, when advisable, conferences tending to the formation of sectional boards.

The Rules Committee fully endorses the work of its Central Board, and recommends and will use its utmost influence in urging colleges and universities within its central field to accept neutral appointments by the Board, if in general managers' meeting such action be voted favorably, and further requests the managers and coaches to co-operate with the Board in securing stated appointments for major games on or before October 1 of each year.

(Signed) CENTRAL BOARD ON OFFICIALS,

HERBERT W. TAYLOR, Secretary,

1901 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

UNITED STATES NAVAL TRAINING STATION, GREAT LAKES, ILL.

Foot Ball in the Army and Navy

THIRD (MARNE) DIVISION, CAMP PIKE, ARK.

BY CAPT. H. N. GILBERT, 30TH INFANTRY.

During the 1920 season the Third (Marne) Division, Camp Pike, Arkansas, arranged and played the largest and most complete inter-divisional schedule ever attempted in the Army heretofore. It was the first successful attempt to definitely decide the Army championship in the United States.

The Third Division challenged and scheduled games with every other Division in the Army, but two of the Divisions, the First and Fourth, were ordered to a change of station before their games could be played, and their teams were disbanded and withdrawn from the Army contest. The Third Division played each of the remaining Divisions and won the Army championship for the season, it being the only team to play more than one inter-divisional game. The record for the season follows:

81—Headquarters Troop 0	6—Hendrix Coll. 0	2—Seventh Division 7
13—S.W. Teachers Coll. 6	21—Sixth Division 0	35—Fifth Division 0
2—Little Rock Coll. 0	7—Kemper Mil. School 24	7—Second Division 0

The Third Division team was coached by Capt. H. N. Gilbert, 30th Infantry, assisted by Capt. E. H. Brooks, 3d Field Artillery, Brigade Headquarters, and Lieut. Michael Smith, 10th Field Artillery. The personnel of the team consisted mostly of officers, all former university and college players.

The following selection of an All-Army team by Col. H. C. Smither, General Staff, U.S.A., is one of the strides in the rapid progress being made in foot ball in the Regular Army. Col. Smither is an old foot ball man and at one time was head coach at the West Point Military Academy.

ALL-ARMY ELEVEN.

Hays (3d Division) and Wolf (7th Division), ends.
Smith (3d Division) and Van de Graff (2d Division), tackles.
Bartleman (7th Division) and Still (6th Division), guards.
Strickland (3d Division), center.
Gilbert (3d Division), Capt., quarter-back.
Scholtz (7th Division) and Brooks (3d Division), half-backs.
Searles (3d Division), full-back.

GREAT LAKES (ILL.) NAVAL TRAINING STATION.

BY A. S. CARPENDER, LIEUT.-COM., U.S.N.

The policy followed in athletics at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, and which was carried out in foot ball, was inter-regimental competition. The Regimental Foot Ball League for the year of 1920 consisted of five teams from the various regiments of the Station. The league completed its season on October 24 and the regimental teams were not interfered with and no effort made to form a Station team until that date. The Station team was in charge of Ensign J. W. Rodes, U. S. Navy, as coach.

There is an inter-Training Station championship held annually in foot ball, basket ball, base ball and boxing. In foot ball, Hampton Roads won from Newport in the preliminary game and Great Lakes defeated Hampton

The Submarine Flotilla at New London, Conn., developed a foot ball team of considerable power for the 1920 season. A schedule of nine games was played, of which only one was lost. The team representing the Newport Torpedo Station defeated New London in a hard fought battle, and was the only opponent which crossed Flotilla's goal line during the season.

U.S.S. PROTEUS, NORFOLK, VA.

The foot ball team of the U.S.S. Proteus was the first collier of the Navy to win a Train championship. It did this by defeating many of the Navy teams around Newport, R. I. and Norfolk, Va. The deciding game was played with the U.S.S. Prometheus after "five quarters" of hard foot ball. The game for the Fleet championship was lost to the U.S.S. Nevada two days afterwards. Following is a list of the games played and the scores:

38—1st Regt., Newport N.T.S. 0	13—U.S.S. Prometheus 0	7—U.S.S. Nevada 33

MARE ISLAND MARINES, VALLEJO, CAL.

Able coached by Lieut. J. W. Beckett, the Mare Island Marines played a schedule of eleven games and finished the season with seven victories to their credit. An even break with American Legion Posts of San Francisco and Woodland accounted for two of the defeats, the Marines losing the first contest of a two-game series with each Post. The defeat by the Mare Island Sailors was a hard game to lose, as a single point decided the issue in favor of the Sailors. The University of California Freshmen piled up the greatest number of points scored against Mare Island during the season. The record of the Marines follows:

PACIFIC FLEET.

The Pacific Fleet had a strong foot ball aggregation during the 1920 season, and will have added competition from the Army this fall, as Camp Lewis, located near Tacoma, Wash., plans to organize a team to represent the Ninth Army Division. Colonel William Jordan, formerly with the Multnomah Club, will be in charge of the soldier team. Lieut. Ingram, formerly at Annapolis, is expected to again handle the sailors.

American Forces in Germany

BY LEW RIESS,

Associate Athletic Director, Y.M.C.A., A.F. in G.

The race for the gridiron championship of the American Forces in Germany, although an abbreviated one, was a thriller. Out of the fourteen games played there were but three contests where the victors won by a margin greater than one touchdown. These games were the 8th Infantry-Quartermaster game, which the former won, 45-0; the Machine Gunners-Guards contest, which the Browning handlers won, 13-0; and the 8th Infantry-Machine Gunners game, which the Infantry won, 14-0.

With the exception of the 8th and 50th Infantry elevens, the teams had to select their men from a unit corresponding to a battalion, but the organizations were so evenly matched that there was not much difference so far as numbers were concerned. In the three seasons of foot ball in the Rhineland this past season probably was the most interesting from every angle.

The first call for candidates took place in mid-September, and with but two weeks for practise the official season opened on October 2. Nine teams entered: 8th Infantry, 50th Infantry, 6th Field Artillery, 7th Machine Gun Battalion, Provincial Guard Battalion, First Engineers, Quartermasters Corps, Ordnance Depot and the Provost Marshal's Department. The last two teams dropped out owing to military duties and lack of time for practise. The Cavalry, which had put up such a fine showing the previous season, was unable to enter a team. The 5th Infantry, newcomers since the 1919 season, were busy with school and maneuvers and could not enter an eleven. Had these two entered the league, practically all branches of the A.F. in G. would have been represented, but despite their absence a better season could not have been asked for.

Unlike the old A.E.F. teams, which were based on the Divisions and consisted in the main of former college stars, the A.F. in G. elevens of the past season were made up of younger and more inexperienced players, each with a sprinkling of stars to balance the make-up of the team. The 8th Infantry was fortunate in having most of their previous year's squad back and therefore had an edge on the others, but in spite of this advantage they had a big task on their hands to defeat the 50th Infantry by one touchdown and the Machine Gunners by two. Their contest with the Quartermasters resulted in a one-sided victory.

The season was brought to a sudden and premature end when Lieut. John L. Weeks, coach and star quarter-back on the 7th Machine Gun Battalion eleven, was seriously hurt in the game against the 8th Infantry on October 31. This injury resulted in his death on Election Day at the Station Hospital. It was the first death caused by foot ball in three seasons of gridiron sport in the Rhineland. Out of respect for the popular sportsman and officer the 8th Infantry, which had played against the 7th

Y.M.C.A. ATHLETIC DIRECTORS.

Machine Gun Battalion when the accident happened, withdrew its team. Others followed, and it was unanimously decided to call the season at an end.

The 8th Infantry won the championship for the second successive year. This was due no doubt to the few changes they had to make in their line-up when starting the season, as with but three exceptions the team was composed of the same men who brought home the honors in 1919.

The men in charge of foot ball the past season were Capt. A. P. Withers, Chief Athletic Officer A.F. in G.; Lieut. E. M. S. Steward, Athletic Officer 2d Brigade; Lieut. Winstead and Lieut. Watson, 50th Infantry, and E. W. Brannon, Chief Athletic Director; L. W. Riess, Associate Athletic Director; W. H. Hefelfinger, 50th Infantry; R. D. Baker, 5th Infantry; C. H. Tooze, Director of Mass Games, and F. P. Barrett, Director of Formal Sports, all of the Y.M.C.A.

The officers in charge of the teams were Lieut. John Weeks, 7th Machine Gun Battalion; Lieut. John Stokes and Lieut. Walter Mack, 8th Infantry; Lieut. Francis March, 6th Field Artillery; Lieut. Morrison, Provisional Guards; Lieut. Timberlake, Quartermasters; Capt. Casey and Lieut. McGrath, Engineers, and Lieut. Winstead, 50th Infantry.

The mythical All-A.F. in G. elevens were selected from the votes of eight team captains and coaches as well as those of two officials who worked in most of the important games. The men receiving the greatest number of votes were chosen for the first team, of course.

The style of backfield play used in the A.F. of G. last season called for men of all-around ability, and the old titles of quarter-back, etc., were disregarded for the simple reason that present day foot ball practically eliminates them. Aside from the man who directs the team's play, a half-back is no different from a full-back or a quarter-back. It is the backfield with all-around ability and with power to push the ball over which counts. The slow heavy man who formerly occupied the full-back position now gives way to the man with speed and brains. Only in one case was a player named for the second team who had secured more votes for a certain position than the man who was chosen for the first eleven. This was the case of Alberts. He received eight votes for full-back. Charlesworth got seven for full and two for half, giving him the fourth position on the first eleven backs by one vote.

In commenting on the relative worth of the two selections it would be safe to say that the first eleven has the edge on the second. They have men with more experience and in some departments are much stronger. The two lines are about evenly balanced, but the first backfield has the edge. With such men as Weeks, Mack, March and Charlesworth, it presents a quartette that lacks nothing. It has the end runners in the first three men, and a strong plunger in Charlesworth, who, by the way, is not to be ignored when it comes to running the wings. This quartette has three directing generals, all of whom guided their teams last season—Weeks, Mack and March. They have a kicker in Weeks who can boot the ball with equal dexterity from punt formation, drop-kick formation, and after touchdowns. Mack could take his place if occasion demanded. In the handling of the aerial attack they present a quartette which is hard to surpass. They can get 'em in any manner, going or coming. In defensive ability, with Weeks at safety, they present a combination which would loom up like Gibraltar in strength.

The second eleven is not so fortunate in having the same directing power as the first. With the exception of Stoll, none of the four have had experience at the job, so this is one department in which they fail to match the first eleven. In Paul they have an end runner who is one of the best in the league, but not so good as Mack or March in hitting the center sector of the opposing line. However, with Walker, Stoll and Alberts to take care of this end of the attack, they would present considerable power. Stoll does not carry much weight, but he has the natural ability to pick the holes and is hard to beat at finding them. In kicking they do not class with the first team backfield, which is a big handicap. In forward passing, the first four have the edge, but Alberts can hold his own with any of them. In defense the lightness of Stoll and Paul might favor the second team, but the margin scarcely would be noticeable.

The linemen of the first team present a powerful array of offensive and defensive men. Possibly one or two of the men could be improved upon, but not to any marked extent.

On the wings, Brunnelle and Mallett surpass Maddox and Beaudoin. The first duo are strong offensively, with the Doughboy stronger than all others. However, all four are good in all-around ability. On the defensive, Brunnelle and Mallett have the edge. They are demons in tackling and hard to get around.

At the tackle positions the two elongated members of the first eleven, White and Timberlake, are the kings of "pep." They fight every minute and are big factors in opening up holes for their backs. On defense, they are as good as any pair in the A.F. in G. Graves and Searby are two men who can hold their own and would be good mates for the first selection.

At guards, Iry and Middleton seemed to be the first choice of the men voting. Although the former played at center, it is the second time in two years that he has been selected for a guard. He is a wonder on defense and is in on the man with the ball like a shot. His experience at center would make him an ideal guard. Middleton is a steady and reliable man and would fit in well with any combination. Massey of the Machine Gunners played a good steady game all season, as did Goodyear of the 50th. This gives a reserve which is strong both on the offense and defense.

At center there is but one choice. Lieut. John Stokes is one of the best that ever appeared in the A.F. in G., and nothing more need be said. However, Allen, the big lad from the Gunners, put up a wonderful game and it is not a discredit to be placed second to the powerful Stokes.

Six men from the previous year's team were chosen for the second consecutive year on the first eleven. They were Brunnelle, White, Iry, Stokes, Mack and March. Nine officers and two enlisted men comprise the first eleven, while the reverse is the case for the second. This simply shows that the officers have had college foot ball training and experience. Charlesworth and Brunnelle were the enlisted men.

Those voting were: Lieut. Andy March, 6th Field Artillery; Lieut. John Stokes, coach, and Lieut. Walter Mack, field captain, 8th Infantry; W. H. Hefelfinger, coach of the 50th Infantry; Lieut. Thos. Hickey, 7th Machine Gun Battalion; Lieut. Morrison, Provisional Guard; Lieut. McGrath, First Engineers; Lieut. Timberlake, Quartermaster Corps; Earl W. Brannon, Chief Athletic Director of the Y.M.C.A., and Lew Riess of the "Y" Athletic Department. The last two men officiated in most of the big contests. Each of the men voting was asked to name four men for every position with the exception of center. The scattering vote was as follows:

ENDS—Ankhorn, 50th Infantry, 2; McAdams, Guards, 1; Smith, Artillery, 1; Goodwill, Engineers, 1; McAlpin, 50th Infantry, 1; Simonds, Q.M.C., 1. HOW TO PLAY FOOT BALL

Spalding's Athletic Library—No. 47R

Edited by Walter Camp, is a newly revised book filled solid with plain and practical advice for foot ball beginners and will be found one of the most valuable handbooks of foot ball information in athletic literature. It contains simple descriptions of standard formations. It is also supplied with diagrams which outline minutely what the player should do to try to advance the ball.

Tom Thorp, former player and now official and coach, writes about the play of the linemen and Eddie Casey, the famous Harvard back, who is also a coach, tells what the backs most need. Glenn Warner, coach of University of Pittsburgh; "Bill" Roper, coach of the team which made Princeton famous in 1920; Major Charles D. Daly, coach of the West Point eleven; "Bob" Folwell, coach of the Navy; "Bob" Fisher, coach of Harvard, and Dr. J. W. Wilce, coach of the Ohio State University team that went to the Coast to play California, have written in detail about essential foot ball plays. Their articles are accompanied by outline diagrams which give the beginner exact information.

The editor outlines the general principles of the game and explains the theories of advancing the ball by carrying it, passing it or kicking it. Price 25 cents.

CHANGES IN THE RULES

The first alteration is in the Note at the end of Rule III, relative to the numbering of players. This read formerly that "The Committee recommends"; but now it has been made still stronger by changing the rule to read, "not only recommends but urges that all players be numbered."

In Rule IV, Sec. 4, it is made clear that the kick only is allowed.

In Rule VI, Sec. 13(c), the words "or illegal" have been added so that the rule covers both the incompleting and the illegal forward pass.

Rule VII, Sec. 1, has been changed to accord with custom, and now reads that the Referee shall toss a coin in the presence of the captains, first designating which captain shall call. It is also provided that the choice shall not be revokable.

In Rule IX, Sec. 5, the penalty has been made to apply from the spot where the ball was put in play.

In Rule XIV, Sec. 7, the words "or before it crosses the goal line" have been added on the third line. In Section 9, the reference in parentheses has been stricken out. In Section 13, the words "or safety" in the first and second lines have been stricken out. A new section has been added to Rule XIV (Sec. 14), reading, "After a safety, the side making the safety shall put the ball in play by a scrimmage from first down anywhere on its own 30-yard line." After a touchback, the ball is still put in play on the 20-yard line.

In Rule XVII, Sec. 3(a), the word "pass" in the last line has been changed to "ball." In the penalty under this section the words "on any down" have been added.

Rule XXIII, Sec. 5, has been subdivided into A and B. Subdivision A provides that the offenses of tripping, tackling out of bounds or throwing the player to the ground after the ball is dead, or any other kind of unnecessary roughness, shall be penalized 15 yards from the spot of the foul. Subdivision B provides that unnecessary running into or diving into or throwing oneself against a player obviously out of the play, either before or after the ball has been declared dead, or unnecessarily roughing a man who has made a forward pass, may be deemed unnecessary roughness, for which the penalty is loss of 15 yards from the spot where the ball was put in play. Section 6 has been stricken out but the note has been left.

Several Approved Rulings have been added and will be found in the proper place.

The Foot Ball Code

Both in play and by tradition foot ball is a distinctively academic game—the game of the schools and the colleges. The friends of the game must accordingly rely on the schools and colleges for the preservation of its past traditions and the maintenance of the high standards of sportsmanship in its play, which are to be expected in a distinctively academic game.

In some sports it is possible to attain reasonably high standards simply by the adoption and enforcement of rules, but this is not true in foot ball. There are so many men engaged in action, the action is so rapid and so constantly shifting, that it is impossible for any official to discover every possible infraction of the rules.

The Committee, in the remodelling of the rules that has gradually taken place, has endeavored to prohibit and suitably penalize all forms of unfair tactics and practices. It has also endeavored, so far as possible, without affecting the integrity of the game itself, to remove special temptation or opportunity for unsportsmanlike play.

So far as the rules themselves are concerned, the Committee feels that it has done about all that it can do, and it has been with continually increasing satisfaction that the members of the Committee, in common with all other lovers of the game, have observed the rapid improvement in the standards of play. Each year there has been less attempt on the part of the players "to beat the rules" and unfair tactics have largely disappeared. The "anything to win" coach is disappearing. Officials are generally more efficient and fearless and their rulings are more and more being accepted without quibbling.

There are, however, still many school teams, and even some college teams, that seem to fail to recognize that the first obligation of every foot ball player is to protect the game itself, its reputation and its good name. He owes this to the game, its friends and its traditions. There can be little excuse for any college player who allows the game to be smirched with unsportsmanlike tactics.

In the case of the players in the school teams, however, the Committee is inclined to believe that unsportsmanlike play is due largely to ignorance of what the proper standards are and what the great host of ex-foot ball players and friends of the game expect from the boys who are just learning it.

For the benefit of those who are just beginning to learn the game, the Rules Committee has decided to publish in the official book of rules the following suggestions:

Holding

Holding is prohibited by the rules because it does not belong in the game of foot ball. It is unfair play. It eliminates skill. The slowest man in the world could make a forty-yard run in every play if the rest of his teammates would hold their opponents long enough. The game is to advance the ball by strategy, skill and speed without holding your opponent.

Perhaps a good game could be invented, the object of which would be to advance the ball as far as possible with the assistance of holding your opponents, but it would not be foot ball. It would probably become a team wrestling match and, unless drastic rules rigidly enforced prevented it, a free fight. If your coach cannot show you how to gain distance without holding your opponents, get another coach. It is fair to assume that he does not understand the strategy of the game.

Side Line Coaching

Coaching from the side lines is prohibited in the rules because it is considered an unfair practice. The game is to be played by the players using their own muscle and their own brains. If an onlooker, having seen all the hands in a game of cards, undertook to tell one of the players what card to play, the other players would have just cause to object.

The Committee by its ruling has endeavored to prevent as far as practically possible the sending in of substitutes for the mere purpose of giving information as to the following play, which removes the chief incentive for sending in information.

"Beating the Ball"

"Beating the ball" by an unfair use of a starting signal is nothing less than deliberately stealing an advantage from the other side. An honest starting signal is good foot ball, but a starting signal which has for its purpose starting the team a fraction of a second before the ball is put in play in the hope that it will not be detected by the officials, is nothing short of crookedness. It is the same as if a sprinter in a hundred-yard dash had a secret arrangement with the starter to give him a tenth of a second's warning before he fired the pistol.

Talking to Your Opponents

Talking to your opponents if it falls short of being abusive or insulting is not prohibited by the rules, partly because it ought not to be necessary and partly because no rules can make a gentleman out of a mucker. No good sportsman is ever guilty of cheap talk to his opponents.

Talking to Officials

When an official imposes a penalty or makes a decision he is simply doing his duty as he sees it. He is on the field representing the integrity of the game of foot ball, and his decision, even though he may have made a mistake in judgment, is final and conclusive and should be so accepted. Even if you think the decision is a mistaken one, take your medicine and do not whine about it. If there is anything to be said, let your captain do the talking. That's his business. Yours is to keep quiet and play the game.

The Foot Ball Code

You may meet players and even coaches who will tell you that it is all right to hold or otherwise violate the rules if you do not get caught. This is the code that obtains among sneak thieves and pickpockets. The crime in their code is getting caught.

The foot ball code is different. The foot ball player who intentionally violates a rule is guilty of unfair play and unsportsmanlike tactics, and whether or not he escapes being penalized, he brings discredit to the good name of the game, which it is his duty as a player to uphold.

DIAGRAM OF FIELD OF PLAY.

The Field of Play is a Parallelogram bounded by the side lines and goal lines and thus measuring 300 feet by 160 feet.

Official Foot Ball Rules, 1921

Copyright, 1921, by National Collegiate Athletic Association.

FIELD.

SECTION 1. The game shall be played upon a rectangular field, 360 feet in length and 160 feet in width. The lines at the ends of the field shall be termed End Lines. Those at the sides shall be termed Side Lines and shall extend indefinitely beyond their points of intersection with the goal lines. The Goal Lines shall be established in the field of play ten yards from and parallel to the end lines. The space bounded by the goal lines and the side lines shall be termed the Field of Play. The spaces bounded by the goal lines, the end lines and the side lines shall be termed the End Zones.

Dimensions.

Field of Play.

End Zones.

SECTION 2. These lines shall be marked in white. The Field of Play shall be marked at intervals of five yards with white lines parallel to the goal lines.

Marking.

NOTE.—Previous to the beginning of play, the Referee shall see that the field is properly marked.

SECTION 3. The goal posts shall be placed in the middle of each goal line, shall exceed 20 feet in height and be placed 18 feet 6 inches apart, with a horizontal cross-bar 10 feet from the ground.

Goal.

RULE II.

BALL.

SECTION 1. The ball shall be made of leather, enclosing a rubber bladder. It shall be tightly inflated and shall have the shape of a prolate spheroid—Circumference, long axis, from 28 inches to 28½ inches; short axis, from 22½ inches to 23 inches; Weight, from 14 ounces to 15 ounces.

Ball.

NOTE.—In the case of a wet field the ball may be changed for a new one at the end of the second period at the discretion of the Referee.

RULE III.

PLAYERS AND SUBSTITUTES.

Number of Players.

SECTION 1. The game shall be played by two teams of eleven men each.

NOTE.—For the purpose of designating the positions the accompanying diagram is inserted.

NAMING OF PLAYERS IN CUSTOMARY POSITION ON OFFENSE.

Substitutes.

SECTION 2. A player may be substituted for another at any time, but before engaging in play he must report to the Referee or Umpire. After a player has reported to the proper official and the change has been made, the substitution shall be considered as completed. An incoming substitute shall not communicate in any way with any of the players upon the field until after the ball has been put in play. In case any change in the position of players is rendered necessary by the substitution, the substitute going in may give that information only through the Referee. In case the substitute sent in is to take the place of the man who had regularly been giving signals previous to his removal from the game, the man sent in may give the signal, but without consultation with the players until after the ball has been put in play. If the man who has been giving signals is not removed from the game when a new player comes in for the purpose of giving signals, the former must give the signal on the play following. A player who has been withdrawn from the game may return once, at the beginning of a subsequent period. A player disqualified or suspended may not return to the game.

PENALTY

(REFEREE, UMPIRE)

For not reporting—Loss of 5 yards. If in the opinion of the Referee the incoming substitute has had no opportunity to report to the official, and he does not in any way interfere with the play or communicate with the players, the Referee need not inflict the penalty.

For incoming substitute communicating with players on field before ball is put in play—Loss of 15 yards.

For illegal return—The player shall be suspended from the game and his team shall be penalized half the distance to the goal line from the spot of the down during which the illegal substitution was made. If play shall have intervened between the illegal substitution and its discovery, the penalty shall be enforced from the spot where the illegal substitution was discovered.

NOTE.—The Committee deprecates putting in of substitutes for the purpose of conveying information.

SECTION 3. No player having projecting nails or iron plates on his shoes or any projecting metallic or hard substance on his person shall be allowed in the game. If head protectors are worn, no sole leather, papier mache, or other hard or unyielding substance shall be used in their construction. All devices for protection must be so arranged and padded as, in the judgment of the Umpire, to be without danger to other players. Leather cleats upon the shoes shall be allowed.

Equipment of Players.

(UMPIRE)

Suspension, unless the fault is corrected within two minutes.

NOTE.—The Committee not only recommends but urges that all players be numbered.

RULE IV.

LENGTH OF GAME.

SECTION 1. The length of the game shall be 60 minutes, divided into four periods of 15 minutes each, exclusive of time taken out, although it may be of shorter duration by mutual agreement between representatives of the contesting teams.

Length of Periods.

In case no such agreement has been reached 10 minutes after the time scheduled for beginning the game, the Referee shall order the game to proceed and the full time shall be played.

Darkness.

SECTION 2. Whenever the commencement of a game is so late that, in the opinion of the Referee, there is any likelihood of the game being interfered with by darkness, he shall, before play begins, arbitrarily shorten the four periods to such length as shall insure four equal periods being completed, and shall notify both captains of the exact time thus set.

PENALTY

(REFEREE)

For refusal to abide by the opinion of the Referee under Section 2—Forfeiture of the game.

Intermission.

SECTION 3. (a) There shall be one minute intermission between the first and second periods and between the third and fourth periods, during which time no player shall leave the field of play, nor shall any representative of either team be allowed on the field of play, except as provided for in Rule XXIV., Sections 2 and 3.

PENALTY

(REFEREE, UMPIRE)

Loss of 15 yards.

(b) There shall be fifteen minutes intermission between the second and third periods. The Referee shall cause both teams to be notified three minutes before said intermission has expired. Fifteen minutes after the close of the second period, the Referee shall blow his whistle on the field, and in case either team is not ready to play within two minutes thereafter, the offending side shall forfeit such option as it may have possessed under the provisions of Rule VII., Section 1 (a), and be penalized 25 yards—the ball to be put in play by a scrimmage. The offended side shall have the choice of goal and may elect whether it will put the ball in play on its opponents' 35-yard line or whether the offending side shall put the ball in play on its own 15-yard line.

TimeExtended.

SECTION 4. Time shall not be called for the end of a period until the ball is dead, but in case of a touchdown the try at goal shall be allowed. In case of a fair catch made after time has expired, the kick only shall be allowed and time shall be called when the ball is declared dead after the kick has been made.

RULE V.

SCORING.

The game shall be decided by the final score at the end of the four periods. The following shall be the value of plays in scoring:

Scoring.

Touchdown	6 points.
Goal from touchdown	1 point.
Goal from the field	3 points.
Safety by opponents	2 points.

RULE VI.

DEFINITIONS.

SECTION 1. A Place-kick is made by kicking the ball from its position while it is resting upon the ground. It is allowable to scrape up the earth, but no artificial tees shall be permitted. Place-kick.

A Kick-off is the term used to designate the opening play of the first and third periods and it shall consist of a place-kick from the 40-yard line of the team entitled to kick. Kick-off.

After a goal from the field and after a try at goal following touchdown, the ball must be put in play by a kick-off.

A Punt is made by dropping the ball from the hand or hands and kicking it before it touches the ground. Punt.

A Drop-kick is made by dropping the ball from the hand or hands and kicking it the instant it rises from the ground. Drop-kick.

A Free kick is any kick when the opponents are restrained by rule from advancing beyond a certain point before the ball is put in play, and includes Kick-off, Kick from a Fair Catch, and Place-kick for Goal after a touchdown. Free kick.

Snapping the Ball. SECTION 2. Snapping the Ball is putting it back from its position on the ground with one quick and continuous motion of the hand or hands, the ball actually leaving the hands on this motion.

Scrimmage. SECTION 3. A Scrimmage takes place when the holder of the ball places it flat upon the ground, with its long axis at right angles to the line of scrimmage, and puts it in play by snapping it back. The scrimmage does not end until the ball is dead.

If the snapper-back does not hold the long axis of the ball as specified, the ball must be put in play over again.

Line of Scrimmage. The Line of Scrimmage for each side is an imaginary line parallel to the goal line and passing through that point of the ball nearest the side's own goal line.

Neutral Zone. It is evident from the foregoing definition that there must be two lines of scrimmage, one for each side, thus separating the two forward lines by a space equal to the length of the ball. This space is known as the neutral zone and may not be encroached upon until the ball is put in play.

Off-side. SECTION 4. A player is Off-side when the ball has last been touched by one of his own side behind him.

Fair Catch. SECTION 5. A Fair Catch is made by catching the ball after it has been kicked by one of the opponents and before it touches the ground, provided the player, prior to an attempt to catch the ball, signals his intention of making a fair catch by raising his hand clearly above his head and does not take more than two steps after making the catch.

(See illustrations Nos. 9 and 10, Page 57.)

Not a fair catch. It is not a fair catch if, after the kick, the ball is touched by another of the catcher's side before the catch.

Mark of catch. The mark of the catch is the spot at which the ball is actually caught.

Opportunity to make a fair catch is where the player is in such a position that it would be possible for him to reach the ball before it touches the ground.

Opportunity to make fair catch.

SECTION 6. A Goal from Touchdown is made by kicking the ball from the field of play over the cross-bar of the opponents' goal by a place-kick.

Goal from Touchdown.

If the ball passes directly over one of the goal posts, or if, after being kicked, it strikes an opponent and then passes over the cross-bar or one of the goal posts, it shall count a goal. In no case shall it count a goal if the ball, after leaving the kicker's foot, touches the ground before passing over the cross-bar or goal posts.

SECTION 7. A Goal from the Field is made by kicking the ball from the field of play either by a drop-kick or a place-kick over the cross-bar of the opponents' goal. A goal cannot be scored by a kick-off.

Goal from the Field.

If the ball passes directly over one of the goal posts, or if, after being kicked, it strikes an opponent and then passes over the cross-bar or one of the goal posts, it shall count a goal. In no case shall it count a goal if the ball, after leaving the kicker's foot, touches the ground before passing over the cross-bar or goal posts.

SECTION 8. A Foul is any violation of a rule.

Foul.

SECTION 9. The ball is Out of Bounds when either the ball or any part of the player who holds it touches the ground on or outside the side line or side line extended.

Out of Bounds.

SECTION 10. Tripping is obstructing a player below the knee with the hand or with that part of the obstructing player's leg that is below the knee. Mere diving under the play is not tripping.

Tripping.

SECTION 11. Hurdling, as used in the rules, applies only to the man carrying the ball.

Hurdling.

Hurdling in the open is jumping over or attempting to jump over an opponent who is still on his feet. (A man who is on his knee may be hurdled without penalty.)

Hurdling in the line is jumping over or attempting to jump over a player on the line of scrimmage, with both feet or both knees foremost, within the distance of 5 yards on either side of the point where the ball was put in play.

NOTE.—Mere stepping over a prostrate player, though the player so doing may have both feet in the air at the same time, is not construed as being within the definition or prohibition of hurdling.

Down. SECTION 12. A Down occurs when the Referee blows his whistle or declares the ball dead.

NOTE.—The Referee should never blow his whistle to indicate a foul while the ball is in play, but, if he inadvertently does so, the ball is dead and the play shall stop.

Ball is Dead. SECTION 13. The Ball is Dead (and no play can be made with it except according to rule):

When the Referee blows his whistle and declares that a down, fair catch, touchdown, touchback, safety or goal has been made.

The Referee shall blow his whistle or declare the ball dead:

(a) When a player having the ball goes out of bounds, cries "down," or is so held that his forward progress is stopped, or when any portion of his person except his hands or feet, touches the ground while he is in the grasp of an opponent;

(b) When the ball goes out of bounds after a kick, before touching a player who is on-side;

(c) When a forward pass becomes an incompleated or illegal pass, or when the ball, after being passed forward, goes out of bounds, or over the opponents' end line, or strikes the ground in the end zone, or strikes the opponents' cross-bar or goal posts;

(d) When a kicked ball, except one scoring a goal, strikes the opponents' cross-bar or goal posts before being touched by a player of either side; or, when a kicked ball, except one from kick-off or free kick, goes over the opponents' goal line before being touched by a player of either side.

Of course the provisions of Section 13 (c) and (d) do not apply in the case where a forward pass or kick is made by a team from behind its own goal line.

(e) When on a try at goal after touchdown the goal has either been made or missed;

(f) During enforcement of penalties.

Unless otherwise specified the ball is dead at the spot where it was when the Referee blew his whistle or declared it dead.

SECTION 14. A Touchdown is made when the Touchdown. ball, lawfully in possession of a player, is declared dead by the Referee, any part of it being on, above, or behind the opponents' goal line.

If a foul is committed by a player behind his own goal line when the ball is in possession of neither side and it deprives an opponent of an opportunity to recover the ball, and the enforcement of the penalty would give possession of the ball to the offended side behind the opponents' goal line, it shall count a touchdown for the offended side. If, however, the ball is in the air as from a kick when the foul is committed, it shall count as a safety against the team which committed the offense.

SECTION 15. A Touchback is made when Touchback. the ball in possession of a player guarding his own goal is declared dead by the Referee, any part of it being on, above, or behind the goal line, provided the impetus which sent it to or across the line was given by an opponent.

It is a Touchback when a kicked ball (other than one from kick-off, free kick, or one scoring a goal from the field) goes over the goal line before being touched by a player of either side. If any kicked ball strikes the goal posts or cross-bar before being touched by a player of either side, unless it scores a goal, it shall be considered a touchback.

It is a Touchback when a player who is off-side and within the opponents' 10-yard line is touched by a ball kicked by one of his own side.

NOTE.—This penalty may be declined.

It is a Touchback when a forward pass crosses either the end line or side line extended; when it strikes the goal posts or cross-bar, or when it touches the ground within the end zone. See, however, Rule XVIII., Section 6.

It is a Touchback if any interference with the interception of a forward pass is committed behind the opponents' goal line by the side which put the ball in play.

It is a Touchback when a player on defense permits a ball, kicked by an opponent, to strike his person and then roll across his goal line and he or any player of his side then falls on it back of the line.

Not a Touchback. It is not a Touchback if such player juggles the ball so that he in any way forces it over the line and he or any player of his side then falls on it.

It may be a Touchback if the forward pass be touched by an ineligible man between the opponents' 10-yard line and the end line.

Safety. SECTION 16. A Safety is made when the ball in possession of a player guarding his own goal is declared dead by the Referee, any part of it being on, above or behind the goal line, provided the impetus which caused it to pass from outside the goal line to or behind the goal line was given by the side defending the goal. Such impetus could come:

(a) From a kick, pass, snap-back, or fumble by one of the player's own side;

(b) From a kick which bounds back from an opponent or from one of the kicker's own side, who, when struck, is behind his goal line.

A Safety is made when a player of the side in possession of the ball makes a forward pass which becomes incompletd behind his goal line, or commits a foul which would give the ball to the opponents behind the offender's goal line, or commits a foul the penalty for which would leave the ball in possession of his team behind its own goal line.

A Safety is made when the ball, kicked by a man behind his goal line, crosses the extended portion of either side line before being touched by an opponent.

SECTION 17. Crawling is an attempt by the runner to advance the ball after it has been declared dead.

RULE VII.

KICK-OFF.

SECTION 1. (a) The Referee shall toss up a coin before the game in the presence of the captains of the opposing teams, first designating which captain shall call. The winner of the toss shall have the choice of goal or kick-off, which choice shall not be revokable. If the winner of the toss selects the goal, the loser must kick off. The loser of the toss shall have the same privileges at the beginning of the third period as the winner of the toss had at the beginning of the game.

First and third
periods.

(b) At the beginning of the second and fourth periods the teams shall change goals, the possession of the ball, the down, the relative spot of the down and the distance to be gained to remain the same as at the termination of the preceding period.

Second
periods.

(c) The teams shall not change goals after a try at goal following a touchdown, nor after a goal from the field, but the side just scored upon shall have the option of kicking off or having their opponents kick off, which choice shall not be revokable.

After scoring.

Ball kicked
line.

SECTION 2. At kick-off, if the ball is kicked across the goal line and is there declared dead when in the possession of one of the side defending the goal, it is a touchback.

If the ball is not declared dead, the side defending the goal may run with it or kick it exactly as if it had not crossed the goal line.

If it is declared dead in possession of one of the attacking side, provided that he was on-side, it is a touchdown.

POSITION OF PLAYERS AT KICK-OFF.

Point of Kick-off.

SECTION 1. The side having the kick-off shall kick off from its own 40-yard line at a point equidistant from the side lines.

Kicker's side.

SECTION 2. The kicker's side shall be behind the ball when it is kicked.

PENALTY

(UMPIRE)

The ball shall be kicked off again from a point 5 yards directly back of the original mark and a new restraining line for the opponents shall be established 5 yards nearer the goal line of the kicker's side.

Opponents.

SECTION 3. The opponents shall be behind a line 10 yards in front of the ball until the ball is kicked.

PENALTY

(LINESMAN)

The ball shall be kicked off again from a point which may be 5 yards nearer opponents' goal if the kicking side so desires, and a new restraining line for the opponents shall be established 5 yards nearer the opponents' goal.

RULE IX.

POSITION OF PLAYERS AT SCRIMMAGE.

Seven

SECTION 1. When the ball is put in play by a scrimmage, at least seven players of the side holding the ball shall be on the line of scrimmage.

A player shall be considered to be on the line of scrimmage if he has both hands or both feet up to or within one foot of this line, or if he has one foot and the opposite hand up to or within one foot of it. He shall also stand with both feet outside the outside foot of the player next to him, unless he be one of the two men standing on either side of and next to the snapper-back (commonly known as guards), in which case he may lock legs with the snapper-back.

Player on scrimmage line, when.

Locking legs.

If a back-field man goes up on the line of scrimmage, he must conform to this rule regarding the position of his hands or feet; otherwise he must be at least one yard back of the line of scrimmage when the ball is put in play, except that the man who first receives the ball from the snapper-back or the man occupying the usual position of the quarter-back need not be one yard back of the line of scrimmage. Such player must, however, be one yard back in order to be eligible to receive a forward pass.

Back-field man on line of scrimmage.

PENALTY

(LINESMAN)

Loss of 5 yards.

(See illustrations Nos. 5, 6, 7 and 8, Pages 56, 57.)

(See Rule XVIII., Sec. 7(a).)

SECTION 2. In a scrimmage no part of any player shall be ahead of his line of scrimmage, except in the case of the snapper-back, who, when snapping the ball, may have his head and his hand or hands, used in snapping the ball, ahead of his line of scrimmage. The snapper-back may assume any position, so long as he is not off-side, in putting the ball in play.

No player ahead of scrimmage line.

Positions on the line of scrimmage are governed by the pictures in the back of the book.

PENALTY

(LINESMAN)

If any player (with the above privilege to snapper-back excepted) is ahead of his line—Loss of 5 yards.

No player encroach on neutral zone. SECTION 3. No player of either side may encroach upon the neutral zone until the ball is put in play.

PENALTY

(LINESMAN)

Loss of 5 yards.

Center, Guards and Tackles. SECTION 4. No player of those ordinarily occupying the position of center, guard, or tackle—that is, the five middle players of the line—may drop back from the line of scrimmage on offense, before the ball is put in play, unless he is at least five yards back of the line of scrimmage at the moment when the ball is put in play, and a player who ordinarily plays behind the line takes his place on the line of scrimmage.

If a captain desires to shift the center, guard or tackle into the back-field, he may do so after notifying the Referee; but the player so shifted shall not again return to one of the middle line positions. Any one of these men may, however, be taken five yards back without consulting the Referee, and may later return again to his position.

If it be desired that a player, occupying the position of center, guard or tackle on offense, play back of the line on defense, this is allowable, and shall not prevent the player taking his place on the line of scrimmage from playing back of the line on offense thereafter. If a player has been withdrawn and returns to the game, he may be placed in any position, but shall then, of course, be governed by the provisions of this rule.

So far as the defense is concerned, the captain is not constrained in placing his men.

PENALTY

(REFEREE)

Loss of 5 yards.

One player in motion. SECTION 5. At the moment when the ball is put in play in a scrimmage, no player of the side which has the ball shall be in motion, except that one man of the side having the ball may be in motion either directly or obliquely towards his own goal line or line extended. If the end is the man in motion, another player must take his place on the line of scrimmage, as seven men must be on this line when the ball is put in play. A player shall not be ruled to be in motion if he has both feet stationary on the ground.

On kick-off and free kicks the players may be in motion in any direction, provided they are on-side when the ball is kicked.

PENALTY

(REFEREE, LINESMAN)

Loss of 5 yards from the spot where the ball was put in play.

RULE X.

KICK AFTER TOUCHDOWN.

After a touchdown has been scored, any player of the side scoring the touchdown may bring the ball out from behind the opponents' goal line to any point in front of the opponents' goal. After indicating to the Referee the spot of his selection, which shall not be revokable, a try at goal may be made from that spot. See Rule VI., Section 6.

RULE XI.

PENALTY

(UMPIRE)

Same as under Section 2.

SECTION 4. The opponents shall stand on or behind the goal line until:

Opponents.

(a) The ball is kicked or the Referee signals with his hand that the ball has touched the ground; or,

(b) A player of the kicking side advances beyond his restraining line with the ball in his possession.

PENALTY

(LINESMAN)

The ball may be kicked from some point 5 yards ahead of the original mark and a new restraining line for the opponents shall be established 5 yards back of the goal line.

NOTE.—The kicker may touch or adjust the ball in the hands of the holder so long as the ball does not touch the ground.

RULE XII.

POSITION OF PLAYERS ON FREE KICK AFTER FAIR CATCH.

Kicker.

SECTION 1. The ball shall be kicked by a punt, drop-kick or place-kick, either from the mark of the catch or from some point directly back of it.

Player with ball not to cross line.

PENALTY

(REFEREE)

The ball must be kicked from some point at least 5 yards back of the original mark and a new restraining line for the opponents shall be established 5 yards nearer the original mark.

Ball not to touch ground.

SECTION 3. After the Referee blows his whistle signifying that play may start, no player of the kicking side shall allow the ball to touch the ground in the field of play, without immediately thereafter putting it in play by kicking it.

SECTION 4. The kicker's side shall be behind the ball when it is kicked.

(UMPIRE)

Same as under Section 2.

(a) The ball is kicked or the Referee signals with his hand that the ball has touched the ground; or,

(b) The ball touches the ground (either by accident or otherwise); or,

(c) A player of the kicking side advances beyond his restraining line with the ball in his possession.

PENALTY

(LINESMAN)

The ball may be kicked from a point 5 yards ahead of the original point and a new restraining line for the opponents shall be established 5 yards back of their original restraining line.

NOTE.—The penalty in this section is to be enforced although it results in placing the offending side behind its own goal line. A second offense behind the goal line is to be penalized exactly as if it had occurred inside the field of play.

RULE XIII.

NO PLAYER OUT OF BOUNDS.

SECTION 1. No player may be out of bounds at the time when the ball is put in play except the kicker and the holder of the ball in a place-kick.

Holder of ball.

PENALTY

(UMPIRE)

Loss of 5 yards.

RULE XIV.

PUTTING THE BALL IN PLAY.

SECTION 1. The ball shall be put in play by a scrimmage unless otherwise specifically provided.

By scrimmage.

PENALTY

(REFEREE)

Loss of 5 yards.

SECTION 2. After a fair catch the ball may be put in play by any player of the side making the fair catch, by either a punt, drop-kick, place-kick or scrimmage. The Referee shall ask the captain of the side making a fair catch as to his choice of method of putting the ball in play, and the latter shall be bound by his selection.

After fair catch.

SECTION 3. If a foul is declared the ball shall not be put in play again until the penalty therefor has either been enforced or declined.

After a foul.

Player first
snapper-back.

SECTION 4. Any player of the side which puts the ball in play (except the snapper-back or either of the men standing on the line of scrimmage on each side of him), who first receives the ball when it is put in play, may carry the ball.

PENALTY

(REFEREE)

For guard or center carrying the ball—Loss of 5 yards.

snap the ball.

SECTION 5. If, after the snapper-back has taken his position, he voluntarily moves the ball as if to snap it, so as to draw the opponents off-side (whether he withholds it altogether or only momentarily), it shall not be considered as in play, or the scrimmage as begun.

PENALTY

(REFEREE)

Loss of 5 yards.

Feints by players of side
of ball.

SECTION 6. If a player of the side in possession of the ball makes a deliberate attempt, by a false start or otherwise, to draw the opponents off-side, the ball, if snapped, shall not be regarded as in play or the scrimmage as begun.

PENALTY

(REFEREE)

Loss of 5 yards.

NOTE.—Variations of starting signals or shift plays when used for the purpose of drawing opponents off-side should be penalized under this section. If he should be in doubt as to the intent the Referee may waive the penalty and direct that the ball be put in play at the same spot, the number of the down and point to be gained for first down remaining the same.

Ball kicked
at kick-off.

SECTION 7. At kick-off, if the ball goes out of bounds before it is touched by any player, or before it crosses the goal line, it shall be brought back and be kicked off again. If it is kicked out of bounds a second time, it shall go to the opponents, who shall put it in play by a scrimmage at their 40-yard line, equidistant from the side lines.

(Kicking the ball again in case it goes out of bounds at kick-off is not a penalty, and therefore may not be declined.)

SECTION 8. If a kicked ball other than at kick-off, either before or after touching the ground, goes out of bounds before crossing the opponents' goal line, it shall belong to the opponents at the point where it goes out of bounds. But if it strikes any player who is entitled to get it and then goes out of bounds, it shall belong to the player who first obtains possession of it.

After out of bounds except at kick-off.

SECTION 9. If the ball goes out of bounds, whether it bounds back or not, a player of the side which is entitled to its possession shall bring it to the spot where the ball crossed the side line, and shall walk out with it in company with the Referee at right angles to the side line 15 yards, unless he states his preference for a different distance (which may be any distance not less than 5 nor more than 15 yards from the side line), and at a point indicated by the Referee put it down for a scrimmage.

Walking in with ball after out of bounds.

(REFEREE)

SECTION 10. If the player attempting to make a fair catch takes more than two steps after catching the ball, his side must put the ball in play by a scrimmage—at a point 5 yards back of the mark of the catch—to be counted first down with 10 yards to gain.

Two steps after fair catch.

(UMPIRE)

SECTION 11. If, in case of a try at goal after a touchdown, the ball is not kicked after having been allowed to touch the ground once, no second attempt shall be permitted, and the ball shall be put in play by a kick-off.

SECTION 12. After the try at goal, whether the goal be made or missed, the ball shall be put in play by a kick-off.

SECTION 13. After a touchback, the side making the touchback shall put the ball in play by a scrimmage from first down anywhere on its own 20-yard line.

(REFEREE)

SECTION 14. After a safety, the side making the safety shall put the ball in play by a scrimmage from first down anywhere on its own 30-yard line.

After a Safety.

RULE XV.

DELAY OF GAME.

Time
taken out.

SECTION 1. Time shall be taken out while the ball is being brought out for a try at goal or kick-off; after a safety or a touchback; after a fair catch has been made; after an incomplete or illegal forward pass; during enforcement of all penalties; when the ball goes out of bounds; or when play is for any reason suspended by the Referee. Time shall begin again when the ball is actually put in play. (REFEREE, FIELD JUDGE) of Captains.

SECTION 2. Either captain may ask that time be called three times during each half (the first half consisting of the first and second periods, and the second half of the third and fourth periods), without penalty. If thereafter, however, time is taken out at the request of a captain, his side shall be penalized by a loss of two yards (unless a player for whose benefit time is taken out be removed from the game)—the number of the down and the distance to be gained remaining the same as they were before the request was made.

By order of Referee.

The Referee, however, may suspend play at any time at his own discretion without penalty to either side.

delay.

SECTION 3. No delay arising from any cause whatsoever shall continue more than two minutes.

PENALTY

(REFEREE, FIELD JUDGE)

Unreasonable delay on the part of side not in possession of ball—Loss of 5 yards, the scrimmage following to be counted as first down.

Unreasonable delay on the part of side in possession of the ball—Loss of 5 yards, the down and the point to be gained for the first down remaining the same as they were at the beginning of the scrimmage during which the delay occurred.

Refusal of either side to play within two minutes after having been ordered to do so by the Referee—Forfeiture of the game.

RULE XVI.

UNLAWFUL INTERFERENCE WITH PLAY.

SECTION 1. Before the ball is put in play the opponents must not interfere in any way with the snapper-back, nor touch him or the ball.

Interference with snapper-back or ball.

PENALTY

(REFEREE)

Loss of 5 yards.

SECTION 2. Before the ball is put in play no player shall lay his hands upon or interfere with an opponent in such a way as to delay putting the ball in play.

Interference with opponents.

PENALTY

(UMPIRE)

Loss of 5 yards.

SECTION 3. (a) When a player has an opportunity to make a fair catch, opponents who are off-side shall not in any way interfere with him or with the ball.

Interference with opportunity for making fair catch.

(b) Opponents who are on-side may attempt to catch the ball, but they shall not interfere with an opportunity to make a fair catch, except in an actual attempt to catch the ball themselves.

PENALTY

(UMPIRE)

Loss of 15 yards and offended side to have fair catch whether ball be caught or not.

(It must be borne in mind that a player running toward a "fly-ball" has the right of way and, if opponents are off-side, they must get out of his way or, otherwise, they may interfere with his opportunity to make a fair catch.)

SECTION 4. No player shall be thrown to the ground after he has made a fair catch.

Maker of fair catch not to be thrown.

PENALTY

(UMPIRE)

Loss of 15 yards.

SECTION 5. In case a signal for a fair catch is made by a player who has an opportunity for a fair catch, and another player of his side (who has not signaled for a fair catch) catches the ball before it strikes the ground, no run shall be made, nor shall the fair catch be allowed: The ball shall be given to the catcher's side for a scrimmage at the point where the catch was made.

Signal for fair catch protects only the player signaling.

(UMPIRE)

Unlawful
runner.

interference.

SECTION 6. No player of the side in possession of the ball shall use his hands, arms or body, to push, pull or hold upon his feet the player carrying the ball, nor shall there be any interlocked interference.

By interlocked interference is meant the grasping of one another by, or encircling the body to any degree with, the hands or arms by the players of the side in possession of the ball. The player with the ball may place his hand on a teammate, but may not grasp him so as to be pulled by him. The side in possession of the ball may push their opponents with their bodies. A player may not lift a fallen runner to his feet in order to enable him to continue his run.

PENALTY

(REFEREE)

Loss of 15 yards.

Batting
the ball.

SECTION 7. A player may at any time bat the ball in any direction except toward his opponents' goal.

PENALTY

(UMPIRE, REFEREE)

Loss of ball to the offended side on the spot where the foul occurred.

NOTE.—Exceptions: In case of a ball in the air from a forward pass, any eligible player of either side may bat the ball in any direction to prevent an opponent from securing it.

RULE XVII.

OBSTRUCTION OF OPPONENTS BY USE OF HANDS AND ARMS AFTER THE BALL IS PUT IN PLAY.

SECTION 1. After the ball has been put in play:

Use of hands
session of ball.

(a) The player carrying the ball may ward off opponents with his hands and arms, but no other player of the side in possession of the ball shall hold an opponent or use his hands or arms to obstruct an opponent, except that the arms, if close to the body, may be used. This prohibition includes:

- (1) Grasping an opponent with the hands or arms.
- (2) Placing the hands upon an opponent to push him away from a play.
- (3) Encircling in any degree any part of an opponent with the arm.
- (4) Using the arms in any way to lift an opponent in blocking.

PENALTY

Loss of 15 yards.

(UMPIRE)

(b) Players of the side not in possession of the ball may use their hands and arms to get at the ball or the player carrying it, but they shall not tackle or in any other way hold their opponents except in an actual attempt to get at or tackle the player who is carrying the ball.

Use of hands and arms by side not in possession of ball.

PENALTY

Loss of 5 yards.

(UMPIRE)

NOTE.—If a violation of this rule is committed when neither side is in possession of the ball, the ball shall go to the offended side as first down at the point of the foul.

SECTION 2. If the side in possession of the ball kicks:

Kicking.

(a) Players of said side, who have crossed the line of scrimmage, may use their hands and arms to push opponents out of the way in order to get at the ball or the player carrying it.

Use of hands by side kicking the ball.

(b) Players of the side which did not put the ball in play may use (1) their hands and arms to push opponents out of the way in order to get at the ball and (2) their bodies or their arms close to the body to obstruct opponents who are going down the field from getting at a player of their own side who is endeavoring to get at the ball.

Use of hands by defensive side in case of a kick.

(UMPIRE)

SECTION 3. If the side in possession of the ball makes a forward pass:

Forward passing.

Use of hands by passing side. (a) No player of the said side, who has crossed the line of scrimmage, shall, after the pass has been made, in any manner interfere with an opponent until the ball has been touched, except in an actual attempt to catch or bat the ball himself.

PENALTY

(UMPIRE)

If such offense occurs before a "fourth down" has been declared (i. e., if it occurs during a play following either a first, second or third down) the offending side shall put the ball in play at the spot of the preceding down, and the play shall count as a down. The point to be gained shall remain the same.

If, however, such offense occurs after a fourth down has been declared (i. e., if it occurs during a play following a fourth down) the ball shall go to the opponents at the spot of the preceding down. If the offense occurs behind the goal line on any down the ball shall go to the defenders of the goal as a touchback.

Use of hands by defensive side in case of a forward pass. (b) No player of the side which did not put the ball in play shall, after the pass has been made, in any manner interfere with an opponent who has crossed the line of scrimmage until the ball has been touched, except in an actual attempt to catch or bat the ball himself.

PENALTY

(UMPIRE)

Loss of ball to the offended side at the spot of the foul. In the case of two fouls on the same play the ball goes to the offended side at the spot nearest to the offending side's goal line. Illegal interference behind the goal line shall be penalized by giving the ball to the offended side on the 1-yard line, if the team defending that goal is the offender.

If a team makes a forward pass the ball is considered to be in its possession unless and until the pass has been declared incompletd or has been recovered by the opponents. Violations of this Section are to be judged solely under the provisions of Rule XVIII.

RULE XVIII.PASSING OR THROWING THE BALL.

Backward pass.

SECTION 1. Any player may, at any time, pass or throw the ball in any direction except toward his opponents' goal. A backward pass by the snapper-back on the first, second or third down, which goes out of bounds, shall belong (at the point where the ball crossed the side line) to the side first recovering it; it shall count as a down if recovered by the passer's side; on the fourth down, the ball shall go to the opponents at the point where it went out of bounds.

SECTION 2. The ball may not be passed or thrown toward the opponents' goal by a player of the side which did not put the ball in play from a scrimmage. Forward pass by side not putting ball in play.

PENALTY

(REFEREE)

If such illegal forward pass is made, the offending side shall put the ball in play by a scrimmage at a point 15 yards directly back of the spot from which the pass was made. The ensuing down shall be the first down, with 10 yards to gain.

SECTION 3. A player of the side which put the ball in play from a scrimmage may pass or throw the ball any distance toward the opponents' goal under the following restrictions:

(a) The pass must be made from a point at least 5 yards back of the scrimmage line. Forward pass must be from 5 yards back.

PENALTY

(REFEREE)

If such offense occurs before a "fourth down" has been declared (i.e., if it occurs during a play following either a first, second or third down) the offending side shall put the ball in play at the spot of the preceding down and the play shall count as a down. The point to be gained shall remain the same.

If, however, such offense occurs after a fourth down has been declared (i.e., if it occurs during a play following a fourth down), the ball shall go to the opponents at the spot of the preceding down.

(b) Only one forward pass may be made in each scrimmage. Second forward pass illegal.

PENALTY

(REFEREE)

The same as stated under Section 3 (a).

SECTION 4. If the ball, after having been legally passed forward, strikes the ground within the field of play, either before or after Forward pass striking ground.

having been touched by an eligible player of either side, the pass shall not be considered as completed.

PENALTY

(UMPIRE, REFEREE)

For such incompleted pass the same as under Section 3 (a).

Forward pass crossing end line, striking goal or in end zone.

SECTION 5. If the ball, after having been legally passed forward, strikes the goal posts or cross-bar, before or after it has been touched by any eligible player and before it has touched the ground, or if it strikes the ground inside the end zone or any obstruction or spectator in the end zone, or if it crosses the end line or side line extended before touching the ground, it becomes dead and shall count as a touchback to the defenders of the goal.

NOTE.—Of course the provisions of this section do not apply in a case where a forward pass is made by a team from behind its own goal line.

Position of feet of player receiving forward pass in end zone.

SECTION 6. If the ball, after having been legally passed forward, goes into the end zone, the position of the feet of any legal player receiving the ball and not the position of the ball itself, shall determine whether it is a properly completed forward pass within the end zone (i. e., if the player so catching it has at the time a foot or part of a foot on or outside the side line or the end line, it is a touchback).

Players who may receive forward pass.

SECTION 7. (a) After the ball has been legally passed forward, it may first be touched only by such players of the passer's side as were at the time the ball was put in play at least 1 yard behind the line of scrimmage or were playing at either end of the said line.

NOTE.—It follows that a player who is more than one foot back of the scrimmage line and not one yard back of the scrimmage line is not eligible in any event to receive a forward pass. He can not receive it as being the player on the end of the scrimmage line, for he is not on the scrimmage line under Rule IX., Section 1. He cannot receive it as a player back of the scrimmage line, because he is not at least one yard back.

If a player of the passer's side so legally touches the ball, he only of his side may recover or attempt to secure possession of the ball until it touches the ground or is touched by an opponent.

If a forward pass, after having been touched by an eligible player of the passer's side, is touched by another player of that side who was originally "eligible" (before the ball has been touched by an opponent), the pass shall not be considered as completed.

PENALTY

For such incompleated forward pass same as Section 3 (a).

If a forward pass is touched by any player of the passer's side who is ineligible to receive it, the pass shall not be considered as completed.

Forward pass touched by ineligible player.

PENALTY

(UMPIRE)

If any ineligible player of the passer's side touches the ball, it shall go to the opponents at the spot of the preceding down, unless the foul occurred between the opponents' 10-yard line and their end line, in which case the ball may go as a touchback to the offended side.

(b) Any player of the side which did not make the forward pass has full right to touch and to attempt to secure possession of the ball until it has touched the ground.

(c) When the ball has been legally passed forward and has been touched by any player of the side not making the pass, any player of either side has the right to attempt to secure possession of the ball until it has touched the ground.

SECTION 8. If the ball, after having been legally passed forward, goes out of bounds before it touches the ground, unless it be touched by an ineligible player, the pass shall not be considered as completed.

Forward pass out of bounds.

PENALTY

(UMPIRE, LINESMAN)

For such incompleated forward pass same as Section 3 (a).

Evasion by throwing ball to ground. SECTION 9. No player shall intentionally throw the ball to the ground anywhere in front of him in order to make an incompleting forward pass.

PENALTY

(REFEREE)

If such offense occurs before a fourth down has been declared (i.e., if it occurs during a play following either a first, second or third down), the offending side shall put the ball in play at a spot 10 yards back of the preceding down and the play shall count as a down. The point to be gained shall remain the same. If, however, such offense occurs after a fourth down has been declared (i.e., if it occurs during a play following a fourth down), the ball shall go to the opponents at a spot 10 yards back of the preceding down.

RULE XIX.

OFF-SIDE AND ON-SIDE.

Off-side. SECTION 1. A player is put off-side if the ball in play has last been touched by one of his own side behind him. No player, however, may be called off-side while behind his own goal line, nor when holding the ball for a place-kick after a fair catch or touchdown.

When off-side player may touch ball. SECTION 2. A player may at all times receive the ball from another of his own side who is in front of him, and any player may recover the ball on a fumble or a muff, but in no other instance shall a player when off-side touch the ball. [Apparent violations of the off-side rule by players attempting either legally or illegally to receive a forward pass are to be judged solely under the provisions of Rule XVIII.]

PENALTY

(UMPIRE)

When an off-side player within his opponents' 10-yard line is touched by a ball kicked by one of his own side—Touchback for defenders of goal.

In all other cases—Ball to go to the opponents on the spot where the foul occurred.

When ball touches opponent. SECTION 3. A player who is off-side is put on-side when the ball touches an opponent.

SECTION 4. The player who, standing back of his own line of scrimmage, receives the ball from one of his own side and then kicks it beyond the line of scrimmage may not himself touch the ball until after it has touched a man entitled to get it.

Kicker though on-side may not recover ball.

PENALTY

(UMPIRE, REFEREE)

Loss of ball to opponents at spot where foul occurred.

RULE XX.

NECESSARY GAIN ON DOWNS.

SECTION 1. If in four consecutive downs a team, having constantly had the ball in its possession, shall not have advanced the ball 10 yards, it shall go to the opponents on the fifth down, except as provided in Section 2.

10 yards in 4 downs.

SECTION 2. The ball shall not be considered as having been "constantly in possession":

Continuity of downs broken.

(a) When the ball, after having passed into the actual possession and control of the other side, is recovered before it is declared dead by the Referee;

(b) When the ball has been kicked and the opponents given a fair and equal chance of gaining possession of it. (No kick shall be regarded as having given the opponents such chance unless it shall have crossed the line of scrimmage or shall have been touched by an opponent.)

The Referee shall in such case warn the offending side once, and, if the offense is repeated, he shall declare the game forfeited to the opponents.

Unfair play.

SECTION 10. In case the play is interfered with by some act palpably unfair and not elsewhere provided for in these rules, either the Referee or the Umpire shall have the power to award 5 yards to the offended side, the number of the down and the point to be gained being determined as provided in Rule XXV.

RULE XXV.

ENFORCEMENT OF PENALTIES.

(GOVERNING ALL CASES NOT OTHERWISE SPECIFICALLY PROVIDED FOR.)

SECTION 1. Penalties for fouls committed by players shall be enforced from the spot where the foul was committed, even though it be behind the goal line, unless otherwise specified. The penalty for illegal starting shall be enforced from the point where the ball was put in play. The penalty for a foul committed against a man with the ball while out of bounds shall be enforced from the point where he crossed the side line.

enforced.

Penalties for fouls committed by persons other than players shall be enforced as specifically provided under Rule XXIV.

Ball after distance penalty not in advance of point necessary for first down in previous play.

SECTION 2. If a foul is committed by the side which put the ball in play, and the distance penalty does not leave the ball in advance of the point necessary for first down when the ball was last put in play, the down and point to be gained for first down shall remain the same as they were at the beginning of the scrimmage during which the foul occurred.

Ball after distance penalty in advance of point necessary for first down in previous play.

SECTION 3. If a foul is committed by the side which put the ball in play, after a gain of such a length that the distance penalty leaves the ball in advance of the point necessary for first down when the ball was last put in play, the ensuing down shall be counted first down with 10 yards to gain.

First down when offending side not in possession of ball.

SECTION 4. If a foul is committed by the side which did not put the ball in play, the scrimmage after a distance penalty shall be counted as first down with 10 yards to gain.

First down when neither side in possession of ball.

SECTION 5. If a foul is committed by a player when neither side is in possession of the ball, the ball shall go to the offended side as first down at the point of the foul.

Distance penalty carrying ball inside 1-yard line or across goal line.

SECTION 6. If a foul is committed outside the 1-yard line, and the distance penalty, if enforced, would carry the ball across the goal line, or inside the 1-yard line, the ball shall be down on the 1-yard line.

Foul within 1-yard line.

SECTION 7. If a foul is committed within the 1-yard line, and the distance penalty, if enforced, would carry the ball across the goal line, one-half the remaining distance to the goal line shall be given. The enforcement of this penalty cannot result in a score. No matter how small may be the remaining distance, the ball is considered to be in the field of play.

SECTION 8. In case one official signals a foul against one side and another official signals a foul against the other side, on the same play, the ball shall be brought back to the point where it was put in play and be played over again, the number of the down and the point to be gained for first down remaining the same.

Both sides penalized on same play.

In case of disqualification by an official, the disqualification may not be declined by the offended side, nor may the distance penalty accompanying it be offset by a foul by the other side, unless such foul is also punishable by disqualification.

Disqualification always enforced.

SECTION 9. In case officials signal different fouls against the same side during the same play, only one penalty shall be inflicted, but the offended side shall have the right to elect which of the fouls shall be penalized.

More than one official penalizing same side on same play.

SECTION 10. Penalties for all fouls may be declined by the offended side, in which case the play shall proceed exactly as if no foul had been committed. In case of different fouls against the same side during the same play, as in Section 9, one being an infraction of the forward pass rule, the offended side shall have the right to decline the forward pass penalty and elect the other penalty. A penalty which includes disqualification may be declined, but the disqualified player must leave the game. An incompletd or illegal forward pass does not constitute a foul and provision for it therefore is not regarded as a penalty and hence may not be declined.

Refusal of penalties.

RULE XXVI.

OFFICIALS.

The officials of the game shall be a Referee, an Umpire, a Linesman and a Field Judge.

It is the opinion of the Rules Committee that it is contrary to the best interests of the game for teams to dispense with the services of any one of the officials provided for under the rules.

NOTE.—It is desirable to have a horn and a stop-watch for the Field Judge, a whistle for the Referee and a horn of some kind for the Umpire and the Linesman, in order to distinguish their calls from that of the Referee.

RULE XXVII.

SECTION 2. The decision of the Referee upon all matters not specifically designated under the duties of other officials shall be final.

SECTION 3. In making his decisions the Referee must recognize and allow precedence to any penalty declared by the Umpire.

In the event of the ball being kicked into a player of the kicker's side, he shall report the fact to the Umpire.

SECTION 6. It is the special province of the Referee to see that the ball is properly put in play, and, except as otherwise provided, he shall be sole judge of its position and progress.

Approved Rulings

A forward pass is caught simultaneously by a member of the passer's side and by an opponent. Ruled: Possession of the ball belongs to side putting the ball in play.

A member of side kicking ball is touched by the ball when off-side. Ruled: The ball is not automatically dead; play may ensue and penalty may be declined.

The ball is kicked off, goes less than ten (10) yards and is then kicked again. Ruled: As kicking loose ball.

Rule 6, Section 13 (a) should be followed strictly. That wherever the ball is advanced to, at that point the whistle should be blown, that being the point where the ball is dead.

Rule 16, Section 5. Two men signal for a fair catch; one touches the ball and the other gets it still on the fly. No run allowed and ball is dead.

An off-side play by opponents and an incompleated forward pass, or, holding in the line by opponents and an incompleated forward pass. The first offense takes precedence and hence the second is disregarded.

Rule 3, Section 2. Penalty for illegal return: Disqualify player, give half the distance to the goal line and notify Central Board.

Rule 18, Section 8. Position of the feet determines, the same as always, either in the end zone or out of bounds.

When a kicked ball has become a free ball, any player may use his hands to push another player in order to get at the ball himself.

If a player with one foot out of bounds touches a forward pass, the ball then striking in the field of play, the ball is ruled as out of bounds.

Vicious striking in the face of an opponent with the heel of the hand by a player on defense shall be ruled as unnecessary roughness.

If a player catches a forward pass while he is on the body or shoulders of another person of his side, the catch shall be allowed, provided the latter player does not assist the catcher to advance by any positive motion.

If a player with one foot out of bounds attempts to make a fair catch and touches the ball, no fair catch shall under any circumstances be allowed and the ball shall be ruled as out of bounds.

If, on a kick-off, an off-side play is called and the ball goes out of bounds, the out-of-bounds play shall not count against the kicking team and they shall still have a second chance to kick.

If, on a kick-off or free kick, a foul occurs back of the goal line before the ball has been declared dead, the penalty is to be inflicted on the next play or kick-off.

If a player commits a foul behind his opponents' goal line which would give the side defending the goal possession of the ball had the foul occurred in the field of play, a touchback shall be declared.

If a kick-off goes over the goal line, is fumbled, and then goes out of bounds, it shall be ruled as a free ball; i. e., touchdown if recovered by the kicking side, touchback if recovered by the defending side; subject, however, to approved ground rules.

If an illegal substitution takes place between the making of a touchdown and the next kick-off, the penalty shall be inflicted at the kick-off.

Running into a man making a forward pass in a legitimate attempt to hurry or block the pass is not to be ruled as unnecessary roughness, unless in the opinion of the official unnecessary roughness is used in the play.

After the ball has been kicked (not kick-off or free kick) and before it has been touched by any player, the pushing of an opponent into the ball shall not put the opponents on-side, unless his hands touch the ball.

If a ball strikes the goal post after having been fumbled, kicked or passed from behind the goal line, the ball is to be played exactly as though the goal post had not intervened.

The calling out by a player on the defense of the word "hep" or some similar word or number, used obviously to disconcert the offense, may be ruled as unsportsmanlike conduct.

If a ball hits an official it is to be played precisely as though it had not touched him.

If a penalty is incurred after a touchdown, touchback, or safety has been made—i. e., piling on, unnecessary roughness, etc.—the penalty is to be inflicted on the next kick-off or play.

If a fumbled ball is touched simultaneously by opposing players and then goes out of bounds and into the crowd so that the play becomes amenable to the approved ground rules, it shall be ruled as belonging to the team which did not kick the ball, provided the fumble came from a muffed or fumbled punt; otherwise, to the team which did not put the ball in play.

Rule 3, Section 2. "An incoming substitute shall not communicate in any way." Ruled: There shall be no talking or speaking at all by the substitute.

Rule 6, Section 13 (d); Rule 6, Section 15, second paragraph; Rule 7, Section 2. If, on a kick-off, the ball goes over the goal line and then outside the side line; or side line extended, it becomes a touchback.

Rule 9, Section 5. "If he has both feet stationary on the ground." This clause is to be interpreted literally without relation to movements of the body.

Rule 14, Section 6. Note. This is intended to stop the tendency to use the starting signal to draw opponents off-side and not to minimize the importance of the starting signal as part of the play. Officials must use their judgment as to the intent of the signal.

Rule 20. If an on-side kick made on the fourth down crosses the scrimmage line and is recovered by the offensive side, a first down is to be given.

Rule 24, Section 1. If the penalty is given against the defensive side, it gives the side with the ball a first down.

Officials may, within their discretion, caution players against infringement of off-side, holding, and similar rules. They shall not do so, however, with reference to illegal substitutions or formations.

Approved Ground Rules

The following ground rules shall apply unless they be altered by mutual agreement of representatives of the two teams before the game:

- 1a. A kick-off or free kick or any kicked ball not scoring a goal, which crosses the goal line and goes into the stand or among the spectators, shall count as a touchback.
- b. A blocked kick which after being blocked crosses the kicker's goal line and goes into the stand or among the spectators shall count as a safety.
- c. A ball passed backward across the goal line which goes into the stand or among the spectators shall count as a safety.
- 2a. A blocked kick which goes over the side line fence or among the substitutes shall belong to the side blocking the kick at the point where the ball crossed the side line.
- b. A fumbled ball which goes over the side line fence or among the substitutes shall belong to the side whose player last touched it in the field of play, at the point where the ball crossed the side line. Note—This rule does not apply to forward passes.

A. G. Spalding & Bros

SPALDING

A great game and a great ball.

We are proud to have been so closely identified with the growth of American foot ball through the medium of the universally used Spalding No. J5 Official Intercollegiate Foot Ball.

Used in all Important Contests.

SPALDING FOOT BALL SHOES

THE greatest handicap a foot ball player can have is an ill-fitting pair of shoes. The newer game demands speed. The fraction of a second that eludes the tackle makes the touchdown and decides the contest. You cannot afford to take a chance when buying foot ball shoes, but you run no risk when buying Spalding's. Spalding shoes are made in Spalding factories by workmen who have specialized in making athletic footwear, while the Spalding Trade Mark is your guarantee of quality and an assurance that you are getting value for your money.
